THE VOTE.

An Increase All Along the Line, Doubling and Tripling in Some Places.

DE LEON'S VOTE RISES ABOVE 2,200 FROM 1,800 LAST YEAR.

The S. L. P. Now Holds the Balance of Power in New York State.

Collings,

DENTON, Mass.--The returns are now far from complete, but from all indications the S. L. P. vote is increasing rapidly in this part of the state. It is estimated that the vote will average about 2,000 in the three counties of Middlesex, Essex, and Suffolk. In Essex County, the S. L. P. vote is estimated at over 1,800, while in Middlesex County it is about 1,500 and in Suffolk County it is about 1,300.

The vote in the other counties of the state is said to be evenly divided between the S. L. P. and the Republicans, with the exception of a few counties in southern New England where the vote for the Democrats is still strong.

The S. L. P. candidates are expected to carry the state, and the balance of power in the state legislature will be in the hands of the S. L. P.

THE FAMILY.

Capitalism Takes It Up By The Roots and Blights It.

The Farm Freedom is Impossible Without a Good Family Life, and the White of Another for a Living, and the More Family Lives There Are, the Better Off They Are.

The S. L. P. Platform.

The S. L. P. platform calls for the establishment of a family farm system, where each family is its own master and has control over its own resources. The farm family will be the backbone of the S. L. P. program and will be given priority in all matters affecting agriculture. The S. L. P. will work for the elimination of monopolies and trusts, which have ruined the farm family by keeping prices low on the farm and high on the market.

The S. L. P. family farm system will provide for the education of children, both on the farm and in the cities, and will also provide for the welfare of the elderly.

The S. L. P. family farm system will be supported by a strong program of labor and industrial unionism, which will give the farm family a voice in the management of the farm and in the determination of its policies.

The S. L. P. family farm system will also provide for the protection of the environment, and will work for the preservation of natural resources and the prevention of pollution.
The ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL CONDITIONS IN CHINA.

The important document of the Chinese government, The Charter of the Chinese Constitution, has been signed by all the provincial governors in China. This charter, which is a result of long negotiations, will be adopted by the Chinese government as a guide for the future. The charter includes provisions on the protection of human rights, the freedom of speech, and the right to education. It also includes provisions on the protection of the environment and the rights of women and minorities. The charter is a significant step forward in the development of a modern, democratic China.

The CHINESE CONSTITUTION.

The Chinese Constitution is a document that outlines the fundamental rights and freedoms of the people of China. It is the supreme law of the land and is based on the principles of democracy, equality, and human rights. The constitution guarantees the freedom of speech, the right to a fair trial, and the right to education. It also guarantees the right to work, the right to property, and the right to social security. The constitution is a significant step forward in the development of a modern, democratic China.

The CHINESE LABOR LAWS.

The Chinese Labor Laws are a set of laws that protect the rights of workers in China. These laws include provisions on the protection of the right to organize, the right to collective bargaining, and the right to strike. The laws also include provisions on the protection of the right to a fair wage, the right to safe and healthy working conditions, and the right to equal pay for equal work. The labor laws are a significant step forward in the development of a modern, democratic China.

The CHINESE EDUCATION LAWS.

The Chinese Education Laws are a set of laws that outline the fundamental rights and freedoms of the people of China. These laws include provisions on the protection of the right to education, the right to access to information, and the right to freedom of speech. The laws also include provisions on the protection of the right to participate in cultural and artistic activities, and the right to freedom of movement. The education laws are a significant step forward in the development of a modern, democratic China.

The CHINESE HEALTH LAWS.

The Chinese Health Laws are a set of laws that protect the rights of the people of China. These laws include provisions on the protection of the right to health care, the right to access to medical services, and the right to freedom of movement. The laws also include provisions on the protection of the right to education, the right to a fair wage, and the right to social security. The health laws are a significant step forward in the development of a modern, democratic China.
PHILOSOPHY OF SCIENTIFIC SOCIALISM.

Address delivered by H. E. Allen, M. D. in Detroit, N. Y.

The theory of evolution is not unique. The theory of natural selection, proposed in the "Origin of Species," has as its foundation the same kind of evidence as that which supports the theory of the evolution of the human race. The evidence is, in fact, the same kind of evidence which is used in all cases of evolution. The evidence is, in fact, the same kind of evidence which is used in all cases of evolution.

Philadelphia, New York, etc.

TO THE PEOPLE.

In the following letter, I have tried to set forth the facts as clearly and simply as possible. I have attempted to present the evidence in a way that is easy for the reader to understand. I have tried to show that the facts support the conclusions that I have arrived at.

I hope that this letter will be of some use to you. If you have any questions or comments, please feel free to write to me.

Sincerely yours,

McBride-Passo-Ritchie.

Two Meetings, in Mass., but what?

Wheelock and the Socialists.

The Wheelock meeting, held on Wednesday evening, was attended by a large number of people. The meeting was well conducted and the speeches were well received.
