CROWS OF A NEST.

Wretched Condition of Mill-Hands in Birmingham, Ala.

[The text continues with various articles and editorials, including one titled "The Socialist Vow" and another about "The Vote of 1898."]

THE VOTE OF 1898.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 4.—Serving Read, National Organizer of the Inter- national Association of Machinists, said the vote of 1898 was the most important in the history of the country, and if it were true, that would mean a great deal of trouble for the Republicans. But if it were false, then the vote would be of no importance, and the country would be safe.

IRISH SOCIALISTS' START.

DUBLIN, Ireland, Jan. 18.—The United Irishman, which was established in the heart of Ireland, has published its first issue. It is a weekly paper, and its editor is a well-known Irishman, who has been in the United States for the past ten years. The paper is devoted to the interests of the Irish people, and its object is to bring about a more thorough knowledge of the Irish conditions. The paper is well written, and its articles are full of information and interesting facts. It is a valuable addition to the literature of the Irish people, and it is to be hoped that it will be continued for many years to come.

THE PEOPLE.

NEW YORK, FEBRUARY 12, 1899.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

"BLEEDIN' KANSAS"

Progressively Gropping Its Way out of the Woods.

Her Successive Moves to Except the Fainting Capitalist Race—Furniture Mansion That Had to be Destroyed by Experiencing—Un-Grouped "Cov-" Formed—"Politicians" An "O-Gaging" the Base of Their Empire—"For Braun and Free Silver—The Race That Shall Not to be Served.

[The text continues with various articles and editorials, including one about "The Vote of 1898." "The Socialist Vow," and others.]

"WAKE UP! Something is going to drop!"

The Socialist Vow.

[For the WEEKLY FIVE CENT.

"CLUBMAN, Spoken, Wash."]

We have taken a vow, we require it now. We are going to rise up in the world, and we are going to make our mark. We are going to show the world that we are not to be trifled with. We are going to fight for our rights, and we are going to win.

We are going to stand up for what is right, and we are going to stand up for what is just. We are going to be independent, and we are going to be free. We are going to be our own masters, and we are going to be our own rulers.

We are going to fight for our homes, and we are going to fight for our families. We are going to protect our children, and we are going to protect our wives. We are going to be good citizens, and we are going to be good parents.

We are going to stand up for our principles, and we are going to stand up for our convictions. We are going to be true to our own beliefs, and we are going to be true to our own consciences.

We are going to stand up for our country, and we are going to stand up for our land. We are going to be loyal to our government, and we are going to be true to our country.

We are going to stand up for our rights, and we are going to stand up for our interests. We are going to be independent, and we are going to be free. We are going to be our own masters, and we are going to be our own rulers.

We are going to fight for our homes, and we are going to fight for our families. We are going to protect our children, and we are going to protect our wives. We are going to be good citizens, and we are going to be good parents.

We are going to stand up for our principles, and we are going to stand up for our convictions. We are going to be true to our own beliefs, and we are going to be true to our own consciences.

We are going to stand up for our country, and we are going to stand up for our land. We are going to be loyal to our government, and we are going to be true to our country.

We are going to stand up for our rights, and we are going to stand up for our interests. We are going to be independent, and we are going to be free. We are going to be our own masters, and we are going to be our own rulers.

We are going to fight for our homes, and we are going to fight for our families. We are going to protect our children, and we are going to protect our wives. We are going to be good citizens, and we are going to be good parents.

We are going to stand up for our principles, and we are going to stand up for our convictions. We are going to be true to our own beliefs, and we are going to be true to our own consciences.

We are going to stand up for our country, and we are going to stand up for our land. We are going to be loyal to our government, and we are going to be true to our country.

We are going to stand up for our rights, and we are going to stand up for our interests. We are going to be independent, and we are going to be free. We are going to be our own masters, and we are going to be our own rulers.

We are going to fight for our homes, and we are going to fight for our families. We are going to protect our children, and we are going to protect our wives. We are going to be good citizens, and we are going to be good parents.

We are going to stand up for our principles, and we are going to stand up for our convictions. We are going to be true to our own beliefs, and we are going to be true to our own consciences.

We are going to stand up for our country, and we are going to stand up for our land. We are going to be loyal to our government, and we are going to be true to our country.

We are going to stand up for our rights, and we are going to stand up for our interests. We are going to be independent, and we are going to be free. We are going to be our own masters, and we are going to be our own rulers.

We are going to fight for our homes, and we are going to fight for our families. We are going to protect our children, and we are going to protect our wives. We are going to be good citizens, and we are going to be good parents.

We are going to stand up for our principles, and we are going to stand up for our convictions. We are going to be true to our own beliefs, and we are going to be true to our own consciences.

We are going to stand up for our country, and we are going to stand up for our land. We are going to be loyal to our government, and we are going to be true to our country.

We are going to stand up for our rights, and we are going to stand up for our interests. We are going to be independent, and we are going to be free. We are going to be our own masters, and we are going to be our own rulers.
The People, Sunday, Feb. 12, 1899.

Political and Economic.

The Senate, Mass., "News" is borrowing on its new idea of having bridges to carry its trustees over the river. The "News," it seems, is in a financial struggele and it has sought to raise $50,000 in bonds to meet its current expenses. The "News" has been granted a charter to issue the bonds and the trustees have agreed to sell them. The "News" hopes to use the proceeds to pay its debts and to improve its facilities.

The English Reminiscences.

Mr. J. B. McInnes, New York.

During the course of an interview with Mr. J. B. McInnes, one of the "News"'s leading correspondents, he was asked how he had become interested in the Socialism in England. Mr. McInnes replied that he had been interested in the Socialism movement for some years, and that he had been reading the works of Mr. J. B. McInnes, one of the "News"'s leading correspondents, for some time. He said that he had found the works of Mr. J. B. McInnes most interesting and instructive, and that he had been impressed with the Socialism movement as a whole.

Mr. McInnes further stated that he had been interested in the Socialism movement in England for some time, and that he had been corresponding with Mr. J. B. McInnes, one of the "News"'s leading correspondents, on the subject. He said that he had found Mr. J. B. McInnes to be a most interesting and instructive correspondent, and that he had been impressed with the Socialism movement as a whole.

Mr. McInnes concluded by saying that he was a strong advocate of Socialism, and that he believed that it was the only solution of the social and political problems of the day. He said that he was a strong advocate of Socialism, and that he believed that it was the only solution of the social and political problems of the day.

The English Reminiscences.

Mr. J. B. McInnes, New York.

During the course of an interview with Mr. J. B. McInnes, one of the "News"'s leading correspondents, he was asked how he had become interested in the Socialism in England. Mr. McInnes replied that he had been interested in the Socialism movement for some years, and that he had been reading the works of Mr. J. B. McInnes, one of the "News"'s leading correspondents, for some time. He said that he had found the works of Mr. J. B. McInnes most interesting and instructive, and that he had been impressed with the Socialism movement as a whole.

Mr. McInnes further stated that he had been interested in the Socialism movement in England for some time, and that he had been corresponding with Mr. J. B. McInnes, one of the "News"'s leading correspondents, on the subject. He said that he had found Mr. J. B. McInnes to be a most interesting and instructive correspondent, and that he had been impressed with the Socialism movement as a whole.

Mr. McInnes concluded by saying that he was a strong advocate of Socialism, and that he believed that it was the only solution of the social and political problems of the day. He said that he was a strong advocate of Socialism, and that he believed that it was the only solution of the social and political problems of the day.

The English Reminiscences.

Mr. J. B. McInnes, New York.

During the course of an interview with Mr. J. B. McInnes, one of the "News"'s leading correspondents, he was asked how he had become interested in the Socialism in England. Mr. McInnes replied that he had been interested in the Socialism movement for some years, and that he had been reading the works of Mr. J. B. McInnes, one of the "News"'s leading correspondents, for some time. He said that he had found the works of Mr. J. B. McInnes most interesting and instructive, and that he had been impressed with the Socialism movement as a whole.

Mr. McInnes further stated that he had been interested in the Socialism movement in England for some time, and that he had been corresponding with Mr. J. B. McInnes, one of the "News"'s leading correspondents, on the subject. He said that he had found Mr. J. B. McInnes to be a most interesting and instructive correspondent, and that he had been impressed with the Socialism movement as a whole.

Mr. McInnes concluded by saying that he was a strong advocate of Socialism, and that he believed that it was the only solution of the social and political problems of the day. He said that he was a strong advocate of Socialism, and that he believed that it was the only solution of the social and political problems of the day.
The People, Sunday, Feb. 12, 1899.

Texas Official Returns.

The vote of Texas for the head of the ticket, H. H. Royal, Governor, was 562,000. The suffrage was 1,038,000, or 65 per cent. Out of the 14 counties, Royal polled in 13. There are

Correspondence.

[Letter box]

DUBOIS, PA., CAMPAIGN.

A Local Picture that is Local Everywhere in the Land.

Dubois, Pa., July 10th, 1898.

Mr. S. G. Brown, President of the Illinois Socialist Labor Party, is due to arrive at our headquarters at the right time. Our principles are correct, and therefore the first step of this is to re-form the party and to get the people by the people and for the people.

The Socialist Almanac.

The Socialist Almanac.

BOSTON, MASS.

February 12, 1899.

[Letter box]

The People, Sunday, Feb. 12, 1899.

Texas Official Returns.

The vote of Texas for the head of the ticket, H. H. Royal, Governor, was 562,000. The suffrage was 1,038,000, or 65 per cent. Out of the 14 counties, Royal polled in 13. There are

Correspondence.

[Letter box]

DUBOIS, PA., CAMPAIGN.

A Local Picture that is Local Everywhere in the Land.

Dubois, Pa., July 10th, 1898.

Mr. S. G. Brown, President of the Illinois Socialist Labor Party, is due to arrive at our headquarters at the right time. Our principles are correct, and therefore the first step of this is to re-form the party and to get the people by the people and for the people.

The Socialist Almanac.

The Socialist Almanac.

BOSTON, MASS.

February 12, 1899.

[Letter box]