WRESTLING

With the Police and Police Magistrates in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, June 19—The story of Mayor H. P. Green, who was shot, is undoubtedly the most sensational event of the week. The mayor was at the house of different persons in groups of 10 or 12 at 1 a.m. when he was attacked. The mayor is now holding the best of one out of five matches. He was at the meeting of the Labor Council, where he spoke on the subject of labor politics. He was last seen at the liberty inn, where he was found dead. The mayor was a Popular Republican, a member of the police force, and served as a captain in the army. He died of a heart attack.

The mayor was a popular figure, and the police force was deeply felt. The labor leaders were in the house of the mayor and the mayor was found dead. The mayor was a Popular Republican, a member of the police force, and served as a captain in the army. He died of a heart attack.

FIGURES AND FACTS.

In our last week's article we adduced facts to show that a general way of life has been ushered in by the improvement in the workman's life. The improvement is manifested by higher wages, shorter hours, and better conditions of labor. The improvement is also evident in the fact that, in nearly every case, the laborer is able to afford the necessities of life and to enjoy life in a manner that is compatible with health and contentment.

POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC.

We introduce with pleasure to the readers of the Solemn Committee the "Pensioner," issued by the American National Provident Committee. The committee is organization which has been established by the National Executive Committee of the Socialist Labor Party, for the purpose of promoting the public interest in the great work of pensions.

The committee is organized in several sections, each section being responsible for the的工作 of a special area. The committee is organized on a voluntary basis, and its members are appointed by the National Executive Committee.

The committee has already accomplished a great deal, and its members are working hard to improve the situation. The work of the committee is essential, and its members are devoting all their energies to the cause.
