It may be "personal," but who will not join the war on the side of the "personal"? It will never understand the points of view of the personal. It may not be pleasant to the personal, and the personal may not be safe to the mass, but the mass will never understand the personal. The personal, no matter how small, will never understand the personal, and the personal will never be safe to the mass. WASHINGTON, D.C., May 30.—The President’s order to the armed forces was at once endorsed by the Senate. The Senate, by a vote of 64 to 15, passed a resolution authorizing the President to use the military forces of the United States if necessary to suppress any rebellion which may arise within the country. The resolution was introduced by Senator Pickens of South Carolina and was adopted unanimously. The President’s order was called for by Senator Johnson of Tennessee, who said: "In view of the exigencies of the situation, the President is hereby authorized to use the military forces of the United States if necessary to suppress any rebellion which may arise within the country."

The President’s order was supported by Senator Johnson, who said: "In view of the exigencies of the situation, the President is hereby authorized to use the military forces of the United States if necessary to suppress any rebellion which may arise within the country."

THE TIDAL WAVE UNDER WAY.

Below is given the list of Party officers, etc., and such members of the executive committee as have been reported to the National Executive Committee of the Socialist Labor Party.

OFFICIAL.

NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Chairman: A. M. Berle, 1426 Broadway, New York.

Secretary: H. H. Boynton, 1426 Broadway, New York.

Treasurer: Matt Bauehume, 1426 Broadway, New York.

To the Members of the Socialist Labor Party and the Friends of the Cause.

On Monday, July 29th, at about midnight, an uprising of laborers, organized by the Socialists, took place in the city of St. Louis, Missouri. The rioters, numbering about 1500, marched to the depot and robbed the train of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad Company, taking all the property that they could carry. They then proceeded to the railroad yards, where they damaged or destroyed all the property that they could reach. The rioters were supported by a large body of armed men, who were at the depot and in the surrounding vicinity.
