PEACE AND TRADE WITH RUSSIA NEAR.

Workers’ Judge for Yourself about Russia.

As a result of the Centralia tragedy on August 21st, the name of the Centralia Labor Party has been accepted. It is the only party in the world which has the power to carry through with the program of peace and cooperation with Russia. Theparty is composed of the entire body of workers of the world, with the exception of those who have already been accepted as members of the party.

LUMBER VS. LABOR.

The lumber workers were in a state of revolt. They had been working without pay for three months, and they were determined to take action. The company had refused to recognize the union, and the workers had decided to strike. The company had called in the police, and a violent confrontation was imminent.

PERFORMANCE AT THE POTLATCH.

The Potlatch was a traditional feast held by the indigenous peoples of the Pacific Northwest. It was a time of celebration and feasting, and it was a way for the community to come together and strengthen their bonds. The Potlatch was also a time for the presentation of gifts and the exchange of goods. The feast was a symbol of the people’s collective wealth and prosperity.

PERFORMANCE AT THE Wholesale Club.

The Wholesale Club was a large retail store that sold a wide variety of goods, including food, clothing, and household items. The store was known for its high-quality products and low prices. It was a popular destination for shoppers and a source of employment for many workers.

PERFORMANCE AT THE UNION HALL.

The Union Hall was a community center that was used for meetings, social events, and cultural activities. It was a gathering place for the local community and a symbol of the workers’ power. The hall was decorated with posters and banners that promoted the union’s goals and values.

Formerly The Ohio Socialist.

Formerly The Ohio Socialist was a weekly newspaper that was published from 1928 to 1932. It was one of the leading socialist publications in the United States during the 1930s. The paper was known for its strong advocacy of socialist principles and its support for the labor movement.

Unrest spreading among farmers.

Farms were in a state of turmoil, with tensions rising and farmers protesting against the policies of the government. The farmers were concerned about the high cost of living and the low prices they were receiving for their crops. They were also worried about the lack of government support and the increasing threat of poverty.

Is This 100% Americanism?

The issue of Americanism was a热点话题 in the United States during the 1930s. It was a debate about whether the United States should adopt a more isolationist foreign policy or continue to play a role in world affairs. The question was particularly relevant during the Great Depression, when many Americans were concerned about the effects of the Depression on the country.

Reds Drive On - And On!

The Red scare was a period of anti-communist sentiment in the United States during the 1930s and 1940s. It was a time when the government and the media were targeting those who were perceived to be socialists or communists. The Red scare led to the persecution of many people, including those who were accused of being subversive.

LUMBER VERSUS LABOR.

The conflict between the lumber workers and the company had reached a breaking point. The workers had been on strike for three months, and they were determined to win their demands. The company had refused to negotiate, and the situation was becoming more and more tense.

Workers’ Judge for Yourself about Russia.

The workers had learned about the workers’ movement in Russia and were inspired by the achievements of the Russian workers. They believed that the Russian workers’ movement was a model for the workers in the United States, and they were determined to follow in their footsteps.

Skygac's Column.

The press reports that Roosevelt's campaign for the presidency is in deadly earnest. So long as he is in the race, the whole complexion of the contest changes and the campaign in the South becomes almost as exciting as the campaign in the North. So, with all due respect to the great man, we make this prediction: He will lose.

Mr. Roosevelt's campaign is marked by the most unpremeditated policy of any candidate in the history of the United States. OPEN FORUM MEETINGS

WOMEN'S CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH OPEN FORUM.

The public is invited to attend the open forum on Tuesday, September 26, in the basement of the St. John's Church, Clarksburg, Ohio. The forum is from 7:30 to 9:00 pm. It will be held in the company of the women of the church. The forum topics will include discussions of the issues of the day, such as the role of women in society, the impact of technology on communication, and the effects of globalization on the local economy. The forum will be open to everyone, regardless of gender or age. For more information, please contact the church office at (123) 456-7890.

WAR ON IGNORANCE

The Editor writes:

"We have declared WAR ON IGNORANCE. Will you join us in the battle to eliminate ignorance from the society?" A call to action for everyone from the Communist Labor Party of Ohio.

The clipper joins the struggle. It is a beacon of hope to the oppressed masses. It is a rallying point for the working class to unite and fight against the capitalist system.

The Communist Labor Party of Ohio is the vanguard of the working class, leading the fight against the capitalist system. We believe in the power of the working class and the potential for change. We call for a revolution to establish a socialist society where the means of production are owned and controlled by the working class.

If you wish to join the struggle, please contact your local chapter of the Communist Labor Party of Ohio. Together, we can make a difference.

The Cleveland Press, running "You're in for a Treat," has again demonstrated its ability to blab at less or as little at the mass media units, and it seems in a class by itself. Since the press is a form of propaganda, the presentation of their views is quite often less than comprehensive. The game of the Cleveland Press is to present the views of the people in a manner that is not only comprehensible but also entertaining.
