Skygac's Column.

The Allies are all deep in despair, but the majority of the workers are determined to stay the course of the Bolsheviks. But what now?

Report from Paris! Ever since the last effective step has been taken, the workers have been on strike, and the strike is continuing. The strike is now in its third week, and the workers have been on strike for over a month. The workers are determined to stay the course of the Bolsheviks, but what now?

Statement by the Russian Soviet Government Bureau.

January 28, 1940

In view of the war's inescapable extension of the conflict of trade relations between Britain and the United States, and in view of the fact that the Russian Soviet Government Bureau has been unable to accept the offer of mediation proposed by the United States in the current negotiations, the Russian Soviet Government Bureau hereby informs the public of the following:
