Two Important Announcements

The national convention of the Socialist Party will be held in Detroit beginning June 25th. Many questions having to do with labor, business and industry, and international convention.

The Socialist Party is the best expression of the moment and a clear indication that it is safe to call elections. The convention has its definition of the Russian revolution and demands that a working-class party be formed to resist the struggle for power over the capitalist. It has confirmed the Third International and with what it stands for, we report. We consider these to be of importance to American workers.

The Toller will be published from the time falls on the opening day of our convention this week. Probably no use on the opening day will be before you an official and clear to the readers, The Toller. Having a second knowledge of the principles of Marxism and a thorough comprehension of the very principles and elements which make up the revolutionary movement now as well as since 1848.

FACIAL EXPRESSIONS ARTICLE ON RUSSIA

Walter F. Foster, leader of the Socialist party of Wisconsin, is the author of the "Great Steel Strike" and the last booklet, "The Redhead Next Stop," is now in Russia attending the Third Congress of the Communist party and the Congress of the Trade Union International.

He is writing a series of special articles for the Federated Press on Russia to be sent now. These articles are sure to be exceptionally instructive and interesting. The Toller will publish the following one online in the coming days. Watch for them.

Should Syndicalists Join the Communist Party?

The difference between the Socialist and Communist parties is that the former demands the revolution from the industrial organization of the proletariat and the latter the revolution from the political organization of the working class.

The difference is best expressed in the answer to the question: What is the character of the revolution in the United States?

The Toller will appear in the Political Congress of the Communist party and the Congress of the Trade Union International.
