AMERICAN LABOR TODAY

By MAYLE, M. WELLS

I am a representative of a national labor movement, which in the opinion of many is more interested in the welfare of the nation than any other group in the country. It is my business to speak for the American Federation of Labor, a trade union of over five million members. It is the largest organization of workers in the world, and is the most democratic and progressive force in the land. It is the only organization that has any real influence on the labor movement of the world.

The representatives of the American Federation of Labor have always been active in the labor movement. They have been present at every convention and have always been active in the labor movement of the world. THE ECONOMICS OF THE DUAL UNION PROBLEM

By L. B. JONES

For many years the question of the dual union problem has been before the labor movement. It has been the subject of much discussion and debate. It has been the subject of much discussion and debate. It has been the subject of much discussion and debate.

The Volkovskii Institute of the 22nd of the Congress of the Communist International: Petrograd-Moscow 1920

From "THE SECOND CONGRESS OF THE COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL," PUBLISHED BY THE RUSSIAN DIVISION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

The Bolshevik view of the 22nd of the Congress of the Communist International: Petrograd-Moscow 1920

The second congress of the Communist International was held in Petrograd and Moscow from August 15 to 25, 1920. It was attended by delegates from 21 countries, including the Soviet Union, Germany, France, Italy, and Japan. The congress adopted new principles and tactics for the international communist movement, and established a new world communist party. The congress emphasized the need for unity and solidarity among the communist parties and for the united struggle against capitalist rule and imperialism. It also called for the establishment of a world revolutionary alliance to overthrow the capitalist system.

The congress was a significant event in the history of the communist movement, marking a new phase in the struggle for international communism. The principles and tactics adopted at the congress had a profound impact on the development of the communist movement in the years that followed. The congress also laid the foundation for the establishment of the Comintern, a powerful international communist organization that played a crucial role in the spread of communism around the world.

The congress was a milestone in the history of the communist movement, and its principles and tactics continue to be an inspiration for communist activists and organizations around the world today.
Crisis in the Communist Party of Germany.

By Karl Attike in the "Moscow Pioneers", May 7, 1921.

Translated from the Russian by M. T.

Crisis in the Communist Party of Germany.

The situation in the Communist Party of Germany has passed a very serious stage. It is no longer possible to avoid the fact that a considerable number of members of the party are its enemies. This is evident from the fact that the majority of the Party has already declared itself against the Central Committee of the Party of Germany. The Central Committee of the Party has been forced to take a firm stand against the opposition, and has had to take a number of important steps in order to put an end to the opposition.

The situation is very serious, and the Party is in a very difficult position. The Central Committee of the Party has had to take a number of important steps in order to put an end to the opposition.
