AN OPEN LETTER
To Samuel S. Jones, Mayor of Toledo, Ohio.

DEFINITION OF A SOCIALIST.

Can you represent the interests of "all the people," while both interests Roosevelt's Agitators?

Mr. S. S. Jones, Mayor of Toledo:

Dear Sir—

You are asked to address the Workingmen of all the United States, and you are asked to set up a standard of wages for all the workingmen of the United States. It is a standard of wages that will be raised to the very highest point that you can possibly reach.

We have the right to ask you to make a wage of $6 a week for all the workers in this country. We have the right to ask you to make a wage of $10 a day for all the workers in this country. We have the right to ask you to make a wage of $15 a week for all the workers in this country.

Therefore, you are asked to set up a standard of wages for all the workingmen of the United States, and you are asked to raise the standard of wages as high as you can possibly reach.

We are asking for a standard of wages that will be raised to the very highest point that you can possibly reach. We are asking for a standard of wages that will be raised to the very highest point that you can possibly reach.

Yours truly,

[Signature]

CHICAGO, ILL., FEBRUARY 24, 1900.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

"SOCIETY" ALARMED.

ASKED NOT TO AID SOCIALISM.

Quoted Speech from the Elgin News: "The American people are not anxious to aid socialism."

"It is a very grave business, indeed, to aid socialism. It is a very grave business, indeed, to aid socialism. It is a very grave business, indeed, to aid socialism."

The Chicago Worker's Call.

"The Chicago Worker's Call."
Society Alarmed

Address (Continued from page 1)

Society Alarmed

The social and economic status of the working class is under pressure, which calls for vigilance and action. The working class must unite to defend their rights and interests. The struggle for economic and political equality is a struggle for the survival of the working class. The struggle for freedom is a struggle for a better life. The struggle for justice is a struggle for a better future.