BELGIUM'S CAPITAL
An Account of Socialist Activity in Brussels.

FAMOUS "MAISON DU PEUPLE!"
Observations of Chicago Contractors on the Working Conditions in Belgium.

One constantly hears when visiting socialist movements in Belgium as in other countries that there is a lack of cooperation among the workers. But in actual fact cooperation is the keynote of the Belgian socialist movement. In the unions, in the cooperatives, in the political parties, cooperation is the name of the game. The socialist worker in Belgium realizes that he must work with others for the common good. The socialist worker in Belgium is a cooperative worker.

A SOCIALIST'S REPLY
To the "Holy Inquisition" of the Municipal Voters' League.

REVOLUTION VERSUS REFORM.
National Not Committee in Session to Institute for National Self-Defense System.

March 18, 1906.

P. PANDOLFI, to the Municipal Voters' League.

This will be the next part of our series on the "Holy Inquisition." The Municipal Voters' League has become a real "Holy Inquisition," and it is time for us to set the record straight.

Socialism is not a religion. Socialism is a practical political program. It is based on the principle of cooperation, and it seeks to create a society where everyone works together for the common good.

The Municipal Voters' League is a group of people who believe in individualism and competition. They believe that the only way to make progress is by each person competing against the other. They believe that cooperation is a weakness, not a strength.

But the Municipal Voters' League is wrong. Cooperation is the key to progress. It is the key to building a better world.

We must continue to fight against the Municipal Voters' League and all other groups that are against cooperation. We must continue to work for a world where everyone works together for the common good.

A SOCIAL CONTRAST.

How the Quaker Table is Devoured at a Farmer's Thanksgiving Day Dinner.

W. K. Vanhouten, noting the good-natured farmer who came into his home for the Thanksgiving day dinner, said: "I had him to breakfast at the Money Hotel.

The farmer came in at 10 o'clock, and after a hearty breakfast, the two men went out to the field to look over the property. The farmer was delighted with the view, and the following day he went back to the Money Hotel and said: "I want to buy your property." The farmer then bought the property for $10,000.

DISRUPTORS OF THE WORLD-WIDE STRUGGLE OF THE POTENTIAL ARMOR FOR THE COUNTRY ARE FOILED.

AUSTRALIA.

The Australian Senate has voted against a bill in the American government to finance the Australian forces. An attempt is expected today to bridge the division in the Senate to make possible a more effective settlement. The Australian government has been advised by the Senate that it will not be able to pay for the war and that the American forces will be forced to be paid for by the Senate.

FINLAND.

Germany has been forced to cede land to the Soviet Union, which has publicly hinted it may take further land from the former German Empire. The Soviet Union has been allowed to gain more influence in the region, which has led to a decrease in the influence of Germany. The tension has not yet subsided, and the situation remains tense.

HOLLAND.

The government of the Netherlands has been forced to impose a state of emergency, which has led to a ban on all public gatherings and a curfew. The ban has been imposed due to the increase in the number of cases of the new virus. The state of emergency will remain in place for at least two weeks, and the government has announced that it will be extended if necessary.

GERMANY.

Seven German associations have been formed to promote democracy among workers. A congress of the left wing of the Social Democrats has been convened in Berlin. The congress has been attended by representatives of various political groups, including the Social Democrats, the Communist Party, and the Socialist Party. The congress has agreed to work towards a democratic society.

SWITZERLAND.

Switzerland has imposed strict quarantine measures to prevent the spread of the virus. The government has announced that all public gatherings and public events will be canceled for at least two weeks. The government has also announced that it will implement measures to ensure the supply of essential goods.

AN ADDRESS TO VOTERS.
By Senator Chaffee, U. S. P., on Motion in Opening Session of the State Convention.

The Socialist Labor party in the state of New York has this day decided to meet in convention at Albany, N. Y., on Saturday, Oct. 8, 1892, to nominate the candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and for the various State offices, for the year 1892. The convention will be held at the New York Hotel, commencing at ten o'clock in the morning, and will continue until the business is finished.

The Socialist Labor party was organized in New York in 1872, and has since that time been a constant force in the state. It has been a strong advocate of the labor movement, and has been instrumental in securing the passage of many important labor legislative measures. It has been a consistent advocate of the principles of social democracy,
and has been a constant opponent of the methods of the capitalist class.

The convention on Saturday, Oct. 8, will be the first since the organization of the party in New York.
It will be a significant event in the history of the labor movement in the state, and will be attended by a large number of labor leaders.

The Socialist Labor party has always been a consistent advocate of the principles of social democracy, and has been a constant opponent of the methods of the capitalist class. It has been a strong advocate of the labor movement, and has been instrumental in securing the passage of many important labor legislative measures. It has been a consistent advocate of the principles of social democracy,
and has been a constant opponent of the methods of the capitalist class.
