TO HEAR HARRIMAN
Socialist Night on the Corner of State and Quincy Streets.

MAGNIFICENT MASS MEETING.

Three thousand, fifty-two persons—men, women, and children—crowded into the large hall of the Chicago Labor Temple last night to hear Socialist Senator William E. Fuller, of New York, address a mass meeting. Among those present were members of the Social Democratic party from Wisconsin, who, with the national organization, have both united under the banner of the Socialist party. Before this meeting, an announcement was made that a full size picture of the late William Grover, former Socialist candidate for governor of New York, would be exhibited. A short address of a few minutes was delivered by one of the speakers, and following this, Mr. Fuller delivered a speech of some length. The meeting was adjourned shortly after midnight.

RIPE FOR HARVEST
Outlook for Socialist Agitation in This State.

The best fruit of the campaign of the local committee of the Socialist party in Illinois is the ripe condition of the party in the state. The local committee is now ready for harvest. The condition of the party in the state is such that the harvest can be gathered in, and the fruits of the campaign can be enjoyed. The local committee is now ready for harvest.

GO OUT OF BUSINESS.

The Social Democratic party in Wisconsin has gone out of business.

The Social Democratic party in Wisconsin has gone out of business. This is a significant development in the history of the party. The Social Democratic party was founded in Wisconsin in 1877, and has been a leading force in the state ever since. It is now apparent that the party is no longer able to carry on its work.

The Campaign Fund.

We have requested all the members of this paper who agree with our principles and desire to make a hearty contribution, in a matter of which we care very much, to send in their contributions.

The largest and most successful base we have is at the time.

The Fund. The Fund has had up to this time a very considerable increase, and the reason for this is that we have had a large number of contributors, and the result has been a large number of contributors, and the result has been a large number of contributors.

Public Ownership—Weekly.

A fine issue of the Review is now ready, and it is a good one. The Review is a weekly paper, and it is published for the benefit of all.

The News of War

Every day that passes leaves the world with a new and different story to tell. It is not the way we were used to, and it is not the way we were used to, and it is not the way we were used to.
