The Political Situation.

The great country is at a standstill. The Democratic party is disunited, the Republicans are divided, and the country is in a state of depopulation. The election of President Buchanan is a national calamity, and the country is in a state of depression. The future of the country is in doubt, and the future of the President is in question. The situation is serious, and the country is in a state of anxiety.

LOCAL NEWS AND NOTES.

At a convention held by the 2nd ward Republican organization, the following resolutions were adopted:

1. That the President is doing wrong in his policy of war.
2. That the country is in a state of depression, and the future is in doubt.
3. That the country is in a state of anxiety, and the President is in question.
4. That the country is in a state of depression, and the future is in doubt.
5. That the country is in a state of anxiety, and the President is in question.

ECHOES OF SOCIALISM.

The country is in a state of depression, and the future is in doubt. The President is in question, and the country is in a state of anxiety.

CREDITOR AND DEBTOR.

A "Bunion" Letter to a Socialist.

October 13, 1860.

Dear Sir:

Your letter has reached me, and I am pleased to hear from you. You have given me an account of your labors, and I am glad to hear that you have been successful in your endeavors. The country is in a state of depression, and the future is in doubt. The President is in question, and the country is in a state of anxiety.

Your truly,

A. Buchanan.

TO FRED. E. KARENY

Workmen's Club, Chicago. This is a standard approach of labor's representatives in their public appeal to the working class to support such candidates as it places on its tickets. This means that the socialist candidates are backed up by the working men's clubs and the socialist party, and that the laboring classes in Chicago have an opportunity to get their men elected as representatives of their interests and their wants.
