THE WORKERS' CALL

“Workingmen of all countries unite! You have nothing to lose but your chains; you have a world to gain.”

SECOND YEAR—WHOLE NO. 102.
CHICAGO, ILL., FEBRUARY 16, 1901.

HOLDS THE RECORD
Apex of Capitalist Exploitation Reached by Chicago.

The Chicago Tribune is reported to have paid the highest price for a single issue of a daily newspaper in the United States. The newspaper was sold for $50,000, which was a record number for a single copy.

IN THE ASCENDANT
The Trust Lifts Business Ethics to a Higher Plane.

The development of the trust system has led to a higher level of ethical practices in business. Companies are now more focused on honest dealings and fair treatment of customers.

EVOLUTION OF "MORALITY"
Competition and Speculation Become "Moral.

The concept of "morality" in business has evolved. Competition and speculation are now perceived as moral practices rather than unethical.

ONE STAFF ALONE REQUIRED
Superfluous Employees Will Now Have New Work Assigned to Them With Solution.

The elimination of superfluous employees has led to the assignment of new work, ensuring that everyone has a role in the company.

A MODERN "IRONCLAD" Now the Steelworks Have Fitted Armored Carriers.

The steelworks have equipped their carriers with armor to protect them from potential threats.

Socialist Pointers

While we have accomplished much, we must continue to strive for a better world.}

The Workers' Call is a newspaper that advocates for socialist and working-class causes. It provides updates on industrial activism, labor rights, and the struggle against capitalist exploitation.
To be or not to be associated with the Best Socialist Literature means to read or not to read THE PEOPLE'S MARX

The PEOPLE'S MARX from the pen of Gabriel Deville and in the translation of Robert Elvey. La Monté, presents to the English-speaking Socialists the most excellent and successful polemic of Karl Marx "Capital." This luminous epistle, from the last and eighteenth French edition, is issued in the style in every particular of the publications of the INTERNATIONAL LIBRARY.

OTHER OPINIONS OF THE PRESS

Deville, in this sillogism and practical polemic, which is not a mere compendium, but a complete book of his own, is by itself a work of the same order.

"I am not at all sure whether or not the people who have read this book will be thankful to have read it."

"I am not at all sure whether or not the people who have read this book will be thankful to have read it."

The price of The People's Marx is: one dollar and a half in cloth and five dollars in paper. The book is sold at the bookstores. The book is sold at the bookstores. The book is sold at the bookstores.

Agnes Whitaker

ADDRESS: 35 Downing St.

INTERNATIONAL LIBRARY PUBLISHING CO.

Peter Sissman

Attorney at Law

Telephone: 16 S. B. T. 12

THE PEOPLE

Uncompromising Exponent of Socialism.

Without this position, the struggle for the masses would lose its strength and its meaning.

Unfinishing Advocate of Labor Rights.

In this issue, a list of important questions is presented which cannot be ignored.

Schenck, a former editor of the New York Times, has said: "The character of a newspaper is determined by its subject matter."

The People's Marx is a unifying force, a means of overcoming the class struggle.

THE ADVANCE?

An editorial article, written by the editors of The People, gives a detailed account of the events that have taken place in the last three months.

The editors of The People point out that the advance of the working class has been slow, but that the people have not lost heart.

Schenck, a former editor of the New York Times, has said: "The character of a newspaper is determined by its subject matter."

THE INTERNATIONAL SOCIALIST REVIEW

This is the only periodical in the English language which publishes the complete writings of the great socialist thinkers of all nations.

The International Socialist Review is published every two months and is the official organ of the International Socialist Labor Party.

WALTER THOMAS MILLS, A. M., Principal

The Chicago School of Social Economy

A night school in Chicago, conducted by a number of progressive business men, is now in session. The school offers courses in business ethics and practice, the psychology of social problems, and various other subjects.

READ WHAT YOURS ARE TAKING THE COURSE ARE SAYING ABOUT IT:

"This course will greatly help women who want to do effective work for socialism."

"We need more of this kind of course to educate the masses."

"We need more of this kind of course to educate the masses.

CHAS. H. KERR & Co., publishers

24 FIFTH Ave., CHICAGO

Public Ownership

Cigars and Tobacco