OPEN LETTER TO WM. J. BRYAN.

MAY-DAY—A PROLETARIAN SERMON.

THE POLITICAL PUGILIST PROMOTER.

THE PERIODICAL POLITICAL STRUGGLE—AS IT APPEARS, AND AS IT REALLY IS.
THE WORKERS' CALL, CHICAGO, ILL. SATURDAY, APRIL 17th.

Socialist Pointers

The Chicago reform law which was adopted a few years ago was intended to be a reform.

The members of the Chicago Reform Association have become so much interested in the cause of peace, that they are now proceeding to make the Workers' Call the leading paper for the cause of peace in the world.

The Editors of the Workers' Call are to be congratulated on their success.

The only way to get the reform law adopted is to have a reform association, and the Workers' Call is the only association which can do it.

The Editors of the Workers' Call are to be congratulated on their success.

Socialist Temple Notes.

We do not stop for rain, snow or sleet.

Some of our neighbors are complaining of us as disturbers of the peace. I don’t see what we are doing. And yet we will not stop.

Comrade Peter Simon speaks plainly.

First Sunday evening Comrade W. H. Leiper, editor of The Worker, met with a group of farmers who had never heard of him. Then ten o’clock, and the sun was just setting. He told them about the workers, about The Worker, and about how they could help each other. They listened and they nodded.

The speaker for the Socialist Party committee was probably George Gordon.

The next meeting was held on Saturday night, after dinner at the Woman’s Club. The speaker was Comrade J. P. Myron, who had just returned from London. He spoke about the movement in England, and how it was going. He said that the workers there were doing a great deal for themselves.

The meeting adjourned.
