Local Party Progress.

South Side.

An effort is being made to build the South Side Workers' Party to the limit of its possible strength. A meeting was held recently at 7532 S. State, and it was decided to hold another meeting this evening at 7532 W. 14th Place. The South Side Workers' Party is one of the most active bodies in the city, and it is expected that a strong organization will be formed.

North Side.

The North Side Workers' Party is making steady progress, and its membership is rapidly increasing. The party is well organized and has a strong leadership. The members are actively engaged in the work of the party, and they are determined to do their part in the struggle for the rights of the working class.

Central Evanston.

The Central Evanston Workers' Club met recently at 2200 N. Kenmore Ave. The meeting was well attended, and the members discussed the latest developments in the struggle for the rights of the working class. The club is one of the most active bodies in the city, and it is expected that it will continue to grow in strength.
