SNAP SHOTS AT THE MAYDAY

Here was one of the leaders of the labor strike of the Union Strike Committee. He tried to pull the plug of the labor strike today, but the workers had the idea that they were being tricked. The workers were still on strike, and the strike leaders were trying to de-unionize the workers. The strike leaders were trying to destroy the unity of the workers and bring about a split in the labor movement.

A TIMELY WARNING

Against Socialist/Communist War

Socialist Pointers

The Socialist Party, which is a radical political organization, is actively involved in the workers' strike. It is challenging the capitalist system and fighting for the rights of workers. Their slogan, "No War, No Capitalism," reflects their commitment to a socialist society.

The Socialist Party is dedicated to the principles of Socialism and is working towards a world where the interests of the workers are protected. They are fighting for a society where the means of production are owned and controlled by the working class, and where the benefits of the economy are shared equally.

The Socialist Party is not afraid to take on the powerful forces of the ruling class. They are willing to fight for what they believe in, even if it means facing opposition. They are committed to the revolution and the creation of a socialist society.

The Socialist Party is a beacon of hope for those who are tired of the capitalist system. They are a reminder that there is an alternative to the way things are, and that it is possible to create a better world.
