Workmen of all countries unite! You have nothing to lose but your chains: you have a world to gain.

FOURTH YEAR—WHOLE NO. 173.
CHICAGO, ILL., SATURDAY, JULY 12, 1902.
PRICE ONE CENT.

CURRENT COMMENT

Abraham Scharf, who has given all four lives in a wonderful, almost be-terrible, struggle, has been deominated on the 10th to the Chicago Union. The Committee took up the matter immediately, and a good many changes and changes have been made.

A half century ago individual effectiveness and huge was all that was necessary. Now, however, a different system is in operation. The world is in the hands of the few, and the development of capital, industry, and commerce is all that is necessary. The world is divided into the hands of the few, and the development of capital, industry, and commerce is all that is necessary. The world is divided into the hands of the few, and the development of capital, industry, and commerce is all that is necessary. The world is divided into the hands of the few, and the development of capital, industry,
and commerce is all that is necessary.

SNAP SHOTS BY THE SIDE WAY

The snapshot was a vital part of the campaign that year, as the Republic continued to build support. As a result, in the early 1920s, the party began to use the snapshot as a way to reach out to voters. The snapshot was a way for candidates to connect with voters on a personal level, and it was a way to show the candidates' dedication to their campaign.

The snapshot was also used as a way to show the candidates' commitment to the party's platform. As a result, the snapshot became an important tool for the party, and it helped to build support for the candidates.

Mules, Trainers, and Riders

THE CHICAGOI SCOURER, JULY 21, 1893

By W. J. McSweeney.

I've heard that the mules are the best workhorses in the world, and I'm quite sure they are. I've seen them in action and I've ridden them, and I can tell you that they are not only the most willing and obedient of all animals, but they are also the most sure-footed and steady. I've known mules to jump over fences and ditches without a hitch, and I've seen them pull heavy loads over rough ground without a complaint. They are, in short, the perfect workhorses.

Clear Socialism in Clear English.

That is what the co-operative publishing house of Charles H. Kerr & Company is putting out. Catalogue sent on request.

Here are a few announcements for those who wish to keep abreast of Socialism in its various and often costly forms.

The July number of the International Socialist Review contains an article by L. H. de Sartor's on the result of the French elections.

Prices range from $5 to $10, any one outside Chicago and in the United States or Canada who has never been a subscriber may have the Review for three months on trial 13 cents in stamps.

We have imported 250 copies of the standard edition of Marx's Capital and have succeeded in making it available here. The work has ever been translated into English.

Extra cloth, octavo edition, with paper cover, price $5.00.

An interesting Study of Socialism is a new and important work by J. Scott Wilson. The price including postage is 10 cents.

We can not at present make any lower net rate on it to any one at $1.00, regardless of the number of issues bought.

Under the Labor, by C. F. Quinn, is a new socialist drama, which has already reached its second success in Chicago and is by all odds the strongest work of its kind ever played in this country.

The stage setting is simple, and the play is well acted, but unfortunately it is act two that is paid.

In response to many requests we have issued a third edition of The Kingdom of Heaven is at Hand by W. W. Woolbridge.

This book is especially adapted to use in Socialist societies among religious people. Price 10 cents.

We have now ready five different four-page propaganda leaflets which we offer to those who will order them for distribution at purchasers expense or 50 cents a thousand if we prepay charges.
