This is what the Socialist Party has told you for years but you have persistently pin-ned your faith to the party of your fathers ands perhaps of your grandfathers. You don't know why, but you simply cannot break away and think and act for your own interest and your own class.

The working class itself is to blame. perhaps unke eingly in many instances, fo these decisions by judges who owe their office to men placed in power by the votes

It would be unfair to assume that all the labor leaders understand this class struggle well enough to accuse them of betraying their class into the hands of the enemy-the capitalist class, but they should know by ex perience in the past that both Democrat and Repulican judges have never failed to place the rights of property above the rights of humanity, of the workers.

And this is why false issues are thrown before you such as tariff reform, 16 to 1, and new comes municipal ewners, ip of gas and electric light plants and possibly, the street cars. Mr. Cruice, on the "labor" ticket told

Then why is there a distinction? Its because you have been throwing away your vote by putting iste political power men who so, take a good look at them and see if you represent a class whose streets.

Thus we witness another example of "recognition" for those who have served the capitalist class so well: "recognition" for that "sentimentalism and patriotism" so-called, which freed the negres from chattlel slavery and placed him under the system of wage slavery. Fractically none of those "sentimentalists" who played such an important rels in working up the spirit of revolution to abolish chattel slavery were recognized or honored for their services. Nothing more was heard of Wendeil Phillips or Garrison after they had been used an toofs (perhaps unconsciously) by the capitalists of the North to fan the fame of "patriotism" and yell "Hip hurrah Baya! One Fiag." Lowell received a foreign appointment. A few army and navy men were placed on high pedestals. Those who recall the events of the time will remember that on the capitulation of Paris the feeling in the city was still in favor of war, of guerre a outrance. This was shown by the rejection of General Troch and hispartizans, and the election of General Troch and hispartizans, and the electi was shown by the rejection of General Trochu and his friends to election of Gambet. As and his friends to the Assembly that was to ratify the terms of the treaty of peace. This feeling was intensified by the chagrin occasioned by the triumphant occupation of Paris on the lat of March by German troops. Three hundred thousand of the National Guard had willingly aided in the defense; No fatigue in the trenchess no defeats in the sorties, no sufferings from famine, had diminished their ardor; and their disposition was so belicose that in agreeing to the terms of peace M. Jules Parve did not deem it prudent followed the disarming of this excited hody of men. These guards proceeded to the Place de l'Alms, where were collected three hundred cannon manufactured during the elege, the fract of contributions from all clances of the proudly called their own. Owing to the decisition of the contributions from all clances of the proudly called their own. Owing to the activity of the Central Committee, covern Paris and Versalles I will be proposed to a request made their crules that these they and their supporters regarded as its bitterest and to subm elick, the fink of cuntiflutions and which, therefore, they proudly called their own. Owing to the activity of the Central Committee, chosen by delegates from the National Guard, these cannon were not taken away by the Germans. After the conquerors had withdrawn to their lines, the National Guard and paleed the guns in flatteries on the Butter Machanism and a paleed was organized to assure their safety. This siarmed the courage to move to Paris, as it ought to have been subject to the summit and a paleed was organized to assure their safety. This siarmed the courage to move to Paris, as it ought to have been done, but determined to sit at ternalities and to stush the National Guard. Instead of allowing the Parislans to place at the head of their National Guard a general of their own choice, as they wished to do, the authorities at Versallies designated General Vinoy, commander-in-chief of the Faris forces, who was desisted by the National Guard as having been the principal instrument in the capitulation. They sine gave the direction of the Freiesture of Police to General Valentine, and made other appointments, all shewing has been found to see that it was their desire and intention to encreach upon the rights of the Freislans.

Out of these causes grew the content between the government and intention to encrease in the government and the content between the government and the National Guard. M. Kansas City, Mo., March 12, 1903. o the Editor of the Chicago Socialist: I notice a great deal of talk in the Socialist I notice a great deal of talk in the socialist press about the "municipal ownership take." My idea is to but these capitalist parties go shead and "socialize" as much as they like. I would treat their efforts as a concession to the Socialist principle of public ownership and an attempt to pacify the people with half a loaf. Let them issue all the bends they can. It will be easier for the people to recognize exploitation in this direct form than through the devious methods of the capitalists awners of industry.

I hope you shall find space for this letter, and that you will subjoin the comment, if there is any.

Por we cannot tarry here. We must bear the brust of danger, we must bear the brust of danger, we must bear the brust of danger.

We the youthful sinewy races, all the rest on us depend.

Ploneers! O pluneers!

O yeu youths, Western youths, Se impatient, full of action, full of manly pride and friendship.

Plain I see you Western youths, ase you tramping with the foremost,

Pioneeral O pionteral

Have the elder races halted? they droop and end their lesson, Wearled over there beyond the seas?

We take up the task eternal, and the burden and the lesson. Pioneers! O ploneers!

All the past we leave behind, We debauch upon a newer mightler world, varied world, Fresh and strong the world we solre, world of labor and the march, Plansera! O planeers!

Down the edges, through the passes, up th mountain steep.
Conquering, holding daring, venturing as a go the unknown ways.
Picacetal O pioneers:

We primeval forests filling, We the rivers stemming, vexing we and piercing deep the mines within, the surface broad surveying, we the virgin soil upheaving, Pioneers! O pioneers!

From the peaks gigantic, from the great sierras and the high plateaus, From the mine and from the gully, from the hunting trail we come Pioneers! O pigneers!

From Nebraska; from Arkansas, entral inland race are we, from Missouri with the continental blood intervenad. All the bands of comrades clasping, all, the Southern, all the Northern, Pioneers! O pioneers!

O resistless restless race!

beloved race in all! O my breast actes with tender love for all!

I moure and yet exalt, I am rapt with love for all. Planeers! O ploneers!

Raise the mighty mother mistress. Waving high the delicate mistress, over all the starry mistress, thend your heads laise the fang'd and warlike mistress, st

Impassive, weepon'd mistress, Pioneers! O pioneers! Se my children, resolute children, those swarms upon our rear we must never yelld or faiter, back in ghostly millions frowning there behind as arging, Pioneers! O pioneers!

On and on the compact ranks, With accessions ever waiting, with the places of the dead quickly filled, Through the battle, through defeat, moving yet and never stopping. Piqueers! O pioneers!

O to dis advancing on! Are there some of us to drop and die? has Then upon the march we fittest die, soon and sure the gap is filled. Pioneers! O pioneers!

All the pulses of the world, Failing in they beat for us, with the Western movement beat. Holding single or together, steady moving to the front, all for us, Pleneers! O pioneers!

Life's involv'd and varied pageants, All the forms and shows, all the workmen a their work. All the seamen and the landsmen, all the mesters with their slaves,

Pioneers! O pioneers!

All the hopeless slient levers. All the prisoners in the prisons, all the rightnous and the wieked. All the joyous, all the sorrowing, all the living all the dying. Pioneers! O pioneers!

I too with my soul and bady We, a curious trio, picking, wandering on CUT WAY. Through these shores amid the shadows, with the apparitous pressing.

Pioneers! O ploneers!

Le, the darting bowling orb! Lo, the brother orbs around, all the cluster-ing suns and planets, All the dessing days, all the mystic nights with dreams, Pioneers! O pioneers!

These are of us, they are with us,
All for primal needed work, while the follawers there in embryo wait behind.
We to-day's procession heading, we the route for trevel clearing. Pionsers! O pioneers!

Never must you be divided, in our ranks you move united Pioneera! O pleneera! Minstrels latent on the prairies! Shrouded bards of other lands, you may rest, you have done your work,) Soon I bear you coming warbling, noon you rise and tramp amid us,

Not for delectations sweet, Not the cushion and the stipper, not the peaceful and the studious Not the riches safe and palling, not for us the tame enjoyment Pioneers! O pionecra!

Pioneers! O pioneers!

Do the feasters stattoners teast? Do the corpulent sleepers sleep? Have they locked and boited doors? Still be ours the diet hard, and the blanket on the ground, Pigarers! O pioneers!

Has the night descended? Was the read of late so tollsome? did we stop discouraged nodding on our way?

Tet a passing hour I yelld you in your tracks to pause oblivious. Pioneers! O pioneers!

Fill with sound of the trumpet, Far, far off the daybreak call-back! how loud and clear I hear it wind, Swift! to the head of the army!-swift! spring to your places, Pioneers! O ploneers!
