THE PLATFORM.

The Socialist Party is no abstraction, no movement in the air, no mere organization, no mere political party, but is the same as the movement of all the working classes for the solution of the problem of the working classes and the emancipation of humanity in general. The Socialist Party is the voice of the laboring classes, the voice of the industrial laboring classes.

WOMEN'S DEVELOPMENTS.

Rising on the elevated B. S. & S.

and going up to settlement work, I asked at a recent conference, "How does it look for the future?" and was told, "Nowhere." The Congress seems to me to be very much in the position of a man who has been for four or five years in the game and is seeking to get something out of it for his own use. He has seen hundreds of women's groups and organizations come and go and has learned that there are certain things which are necessary in order to make a successful movement. He has decided that he must develop such movements and that it is not enough to have a few women meeting together in a room and calling themselves a group. He must have a larger organization which will be able to carry on a successful campaign.

The family grew larger and more prosperous and the man was inclined to think that his group was too small and that he needed a larger one. He decided to form another group and to work with it. He began to plan and to try to get more women to join his group. He succeeded in getting a few more women and then he started to work with his new group. He continued to grow and to add more women to his group. He was successful in getting the attention of the public and in making the group known.
