TEN THOUSAND AT THE COLISEUM;
STUPENDOUS SOCIALIST SUCCESS

Enthusiasm Knows No Bounds—Debs Makes Effort of His Life—Thirty Unions
March to the Strains of Revolutionary Music—Thousands Dance
Till Midnight—On to Washington the Watchword.

Drew together by the class struggle between wage workers and capital,
the Chicago Socialist's nativity,
its tenacity, its usefulness and its work,
and the enthusiasm of the masses of the world, its work is now
a command in the Tribune.
The word has gone out among the laboring classes that there is a great meeting
to be held on Sunday
at the Coliseum.

Wednesday afternoon, December 16, 1903, the Coliseum was filled. Every corner of the building was occupied by a body of working people, who were there to hear the address of Eugene V. Debs, the great labor leader.

Debs made his address in front of a crowd of ten thousand, a meeting whose size was never before equaled in the history of the movement.
The crowd was composed of working people from all parts of the city and the surrounding counties.

The speeches were made by Debs and
other labor leaders,
including John Peter Streight, who addressed the crowd. The speeches were powerful and eloquent, and they inspired the people with the message
of socialism.

At the end of the meeting,
the crowd marched to the Chicago Union Station,
where they boarded trains
for Washington, D.C., to join the Socialist Congress of 1904.

The meeting was an historic event in the history of the socialist movement.
It marked
the beginning of a new era
in labor organization
and politics.

End of page 249

FEDERATION OF LABOR DOINGS.

President Schreiber turns a Somersault—For an Agreement
To Complete a LightERMILL—Knock Down the Car—Healyze
Butter—Leather Trust Destroys the Leather Workers.

History is being made first in the Chicago labor movement. Future events will be marked by the activity of the劳动党. The party has been growing rapidly in the last few months, and is now facing a new challenge.

The Federation of Labor
is making a strong showing,
and is determined to secure an agreement with the employers.

In other news, the American Federation of Labor has been active, and is advancing its agendas.

End of page 249
The Chicago Socialist calls attention to the fact that there is a very great deal more that could be accomplished by the socialists if they were able to get in touch with the large masses of working people. The time is ripe for such a movement, and we should make every effort to bring about a general strike for the eight-hour day and against the system of national service. By doing this, we shall be able to make a real advance toward the establishment of a socialist society.

The necessity of the hour is clear. The working people of this country must unite in a common struggle against the capitalist system. The time is ripe for such a movement, and we should make every effort to bring about a general strike for the eight-hour day and against the system of national service. By doing this, we shall be able to make a real advance toward the establishment of a socialist society.

The necessity of the hour is clear. The working people of this country must unite in a common struggle against the capitalist system. The time is ripe for such a movement, and we should make every effort to bring about a general strike for the eight-hour day and against the system of national service. By doing this, we shall be able to make a real advance toward the establishment of a socialist society.

The necessity of the hour is clear. The working people of this country must unite in a common struggle against the capitalist system. The time is ripe for such a movement, and we should make every effort to bring about a general strike for the eight-hour day and against the system of national service. By doing this, we shall be able to make a real advance toward the establishment of a socialist society.

The necessity of the hour is clear. The working people of this country must unite in a common struggle against the capitalist system. The time is ripe for such a movement, and we should make every effort to bring about a general strike for the eight-hour day and against the system of national service. By doing this, we shall be able to make a real advance toward the establishment of a socialist society.

The necessity of the hour is clear. The working people of this country must unite in a common struggle against the capitalist system. The time is ripe for such a movement, and we should make every effort to bring about a general strike for the eight-hour day and against the system of national service. By doing this, we shall be able to make a real advance toward the establishment of a socialist society.

The necessity of the hour is clear. The working people of this country must unite in a common struggle against the capitalist system. The time is ripe for such a movement, and we should make every effort to bring about a general strike for the eight-hour day and against the system of national service. By doing this, we shall be able to make a real advance toward the establishment of a socialist society.

The necessity of the hour is clear. The working people of this country must unite in a common struggle against the capitalist system. The time is ripe for such a movement, and we should make every effort to bring about a general strike for the eight-hour day and against the system of national service. By doing this, we shall be able to make a real advance toward the establishment of a socialist society.

The necessity of the hour is clear. The working people of this country must unite in a common struggle against the capitalist system. The time is ripe for such a movement, and we should make every effort to bring about a general strike for the eight-hour day and against the system of national service. By doing this, we shall be able to make a real advance toward the establishment of a socialist society.
TACTICS AND STRATEGY.

By Hon. Buerger.

(Continued.)

Before resorting to the use of force for the purpose of 'giving an ri,' they should very carefully consider the consequences of the act and the result which will result from it. A strike is a serious business, and should not be taken lightly. It is the right of every man to work or not to work, but when he does refuse to work, he is putting himself in a position to be fired. The employer, just as a subject against the laws of the land, has a right to fire him if he feels inclined. The employer is the one to make the decision, and if he decides that the man is not necessary, he is entitled to discharge him. In other words, unless there is a sufficient number of men to do the work, the employer is entitled to discharge them. The power to fire is a necessary part of the function of management, and it is for the employer to decide who is necessary and who is not.

JOLTS FROM OUTSIDE.

Stooges are not supposed to think, understand or work. That's their one and only job. If they're stumbled on a job, that's their job to do. That's why they're there. They're there to do that job, and that's what they do. If they're supposed to think, understand or work, then they're not the stooges.

The growth of Reclamation is simply the result of the efficiency of the system. The system is the one that's growing, and not the Reclamation. The new Reclamation office will have an annual deficit of five dollars.

If a laboring man is given the choice of returning the interests in his work to the employer or to the government, he would undoubtedly choose the government. If the employer is not satisfied with the work, he can fire the man, but the government cannot.

The idea of the laborer being put in a position where he can think, understand, and work, is absurd. The laborer should be given his job, and that's it. If he's not satisfied with the job, he can go elsewhere. But if he's satisfied with the job, he should be left alone.

The big employers of labor often promise a policy of paternalism, but when they see the laborer is dissatisfied, they take away the job, and put him back to work. The laborer is not supposed to think, understand, or work. That's his job. If he does anything else, he's not supposed to.

The laborer is not supposed to think, understand, or work. That's his one and only job. If he's supposed to think, understand, or work, then he's not the laborer.

This Will Interest You.

On the fifteenth of August we adopted the plan of giving high prices to goods in those cases where the market price was high. This plan was well thought of by the Comrades, who decided to examine the awards until the fifteenth of August. This should give every one an opportunity to secure a well-adapted product of the times, at a price lower than market.

The following is a partial list of the commodities you may purchase:

- For 40% discount on: Cereal, Coffee, Cider, and Oil
- For 50% discount on: Beer, Wine, and Tobacco
- For 60% discount on: Meat, Groceries, and Clothing
- For 70% discount on: Furniture, Books, and Furniture
- For 80% discount on: Houses, Cars, and other Real Estate

The prices for these articles are set at a level that will make them available to the workers. The prices are set at a level that will make them available to the workers. The prices are set at a level that will make them available to the workers.

The following prices are set:

- 40% discount on: Cereal, Coffee, Cider, and Oil
- 50% discount on: Beer, Wine, and Tobacco
- 60% discount on: Meat, Groceries, and Clothing
- 70% discount on: Furniture, Books, and Furniture
- 80% discount on: Houses, Cars, and other Real Estate

The prices for these articles are set at a level that will make them available to the workers. The prices are set at a level that will make them available to the workers. The prices are set at a level that will make them available to the workers.

DEBATE! DEBATE!

SUNDAY AFTERNOON DEC. 20TH 2:30 P.M. 12th St. TURNER HALL

A Debate on the Merits and Demerits of SOCIALISM vs. SINGLE TAX

SOCIALISM: SINGLE TAX

ERNST UNTERMANN, JOHN H. HARDING, A. M. SIMONS, LOUIS F. POST

The hall will hold 900 people and the admission will be 10c

TEMPLE WORK

TRUMAN WORK

J. H. HOLMWOOD, Artistic Food Ware, 924 E. Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.

FLIP-FLAP SHOES, a pair of shoes for men, boys and children. The shoes are made of the finest leather, hand-made and fitted to every foot. The price is $2.50 per pair. The shoes are guaranteed to last a lifetime.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

The Chicago Socialist is printed by the Chicago Socialist Publishing Company, 414 S. Washington Street, Chicago, Ill.

This is the only weekly paper that is printed by the Comrades. The paper is printed by the Comrades, and is not printed by any other organization. The paper is printed by the Comrades, and is not printed by any other organization.

THE CHICAGO SOCIALIST.

JULY, 1903.

RANK AND FILE.

The White workers will be in the forefront today. The County Council of the White Socialists has decided to make a stand today, and the White Socialists will be in the forefront of the movement. The White Socialists will be in the forefront of the movement. The White Socialists will be in the forefront of the movement.

FOR SALE.

Good Batteau Cigars, suitable for Grocers or other business. Apply at once, at 484 W. Warren Ave.

COEUR D'ALENE.

The "Coeur d'Alene" was wrecked by the railroad company on Dec. 2. The railroad company was at fault, and the railroad company was at fault. The railroad company was at fault, and the railroad company was at fault.

THE CHICAGO SOCIALIST.