THE ACHALLENGE TO DAVID M. PARRY
Will He Dare to Meet a Socialist in Public Debate?

Courtney Lemos, in behalf of the State Committee of the Social Democratic Party of New York, challenges the President of the National Association of Manufacturers, which is carrying on a systematic fight against socialism and trade unionism.

(From a dispatch of the New York World.)

The following resolution has been sent by registered letter to David M. Parry, whose efforts are directed to trade unionism and the socialist conscience of the people, and is received by authorized agents.

Mr. David M. Parry, President of the National Association of Manufacturers and the American Federation of Labor, is in the public eye of America as a part of the progressive movement, and as such he has been invited by the National Committee of Socialists, which is carrying on a systematic fight against socialism and trade unionism, to meet in public debate with Mr. Parry, and to discuss the questions involved in the present political situation.

R. C. Petrie, President of the State Committee of Socialists, and the President of the American Federation of Labor, in a letter to Mr. Parry, states that the question of the day is not one of theory, but one of practice, and that the National Committee of Socialists is willing to meet Mr. Parry and discuss the questions involved in the present political situation.

All who believe in the right of progress and the right of labor to work and to share in the benefits of the social and industrial revolution will be interested in this public debate.

THE WAR SITUATION.

A number of the class which grows upon the old truth that industrial work is the best work for men and women who are interested in the class struggle.

The war situation is a matter of much concern to all who are interested in the class struggle. It is a matter of much concern to all who are interested in the class struggle. It is a matter of much concern to all who are interested in the class struggle.

THE UNIONs AND THE COURTS.

BY MARCUS HITCHC.

The two sides which the labor unions have to learn, before they can emancipate themselves, are that unite their members, are that are the essential factors in the success of any labor organization.

The labor unions are not a body of capitalists, nor a body of laborers, but a body of laborers and capitalists united for the common benefit of both. They must therefore combine the interests of both classes and strive to promote the welfare of both.

THE Necessity FOR ORGANIZATION

BY JOHN W. WOKE

When the American people heard the Filipinos, it easily conquered every Filipino allegiance with the efficiency that it is written. Why? Because on the American side there was organization. Without organization in every department, whether it be a worker's union, a church, or a political party, they are not able to organize for effective action. Organization makes the difference.

Labadro, the Italian Social-

After a careful study of the Italian labor movement in Chicago, the editor of the Chicago Socialist has decided to devote a special feature to the Italian labor movement in the near future. This will be a continuation of the work that was started in the Labor News of last week.

WORKING CLASS AND ELE-

BY NANCY J. BIRD

Frank G. Carper, who writes for a syndicate of papers, recently visited the 50th Ward, which is under the leadership of the Socialist party. The Socialist candidates are not only well organized, but they are also well prepared for the election. The Socialist candidates have campaigned vigorously and have shown a real interest in the welfare of the working class.

PROTEST AGAINST RUSSLANDING COLORADO.

The Colorado State Legislature has again enacted the Russlanding law, which was passed in 1903, but which was declared unconstitutional by the United States Supreme Court in 1904. The law provides that all persons who are not citizens of the United States shall be presumed to be aliens and shall be subject to deportation. The law was passed in order to prevent the entry of aliens into the United States.
