THE CHICAGO SOCIALISTS

THE CHICAGO SOCIALISTS AND COLORADO OUTRAGES.

Neither is the history of the long struggle of the working class for the individual of no significance to those who are now being taught in the Schools of Labor. Neither is the history of the great strides in the development of the labor movement in Colorado and other states of no significance to the workers in the working class, if they themselves do not observe the struggle of their own.

In view of these facts the Chicago Socialists, in cooperation with the Colorado Socialists, have initiated a series of meetings to be held in various cities to discuss the great strides in the development of the labor movement in Colorado and other states.

The first of these meetings was held in Chicago on May 13th. The Socialist section of the meeting was attended by a large number of the working class.

Friends Cross the Lake—Weatheroluous, but Socially Better, Was the Verdict of One.

Eighty-six individual socialists and their friends celebrated the 86th anniversary of the Chicago Socialists by a 10-hour outing.

The socialists had made all the arrangements for a successful outing, and the weather was expected to be favorable.

The outing was a great success, and the socialists had a splendid time.
