WILL FIGHT SOCIALISM.

Archbishop Messemer Throws Down Gauntlet to Socialists—Praises Gompers and Mitchell, but Condemns American Labor Union—Some Comments on His Conclusions.

In a sermon delivered in Milwaukee last Sunday by Archbishop Messemer in connection with the 50th anniversary celebration of the Wisconsin Federation of Catholic Workers, the Archbishop declared, "The time has come when the Catholic Church must take a decided stand against the socialism and the unionism which are at this moment destroying the very foundations of society and civilization." The Archbishop said that the Catholic Church had "a duty to the State and to the people of this land to speak out against the socialistic tendencies which are so prevalent today." He praised the work of the American Federation of Labor, which he said had "done much good work in the interest of the workers," but he condemned the work of the American Labor Union, which he said had "done much harm in the interest of the workers." He said that the Catholic Church would stand by the workers, but it would not stand by the unionists, and that the Catholic Church would not support any group that sought to destroy the free institutions of the country.

The packing house strike.

As we go to press the papers announce that the great packing house strike has been declared by the employees of the Chicago Stockyards Company. The strike, which has been going on for several weeks, has now reached a crisis. The employees, who are employed in the packing house, have carried on a determined effort to organize the employees of the company into a union, with the object of obtaining higher wages and better working conditions. The company, however, has refused to recognize the union, and has attempted to break it up by the use of force. The employees have been forced to resort to strike action in order to maintain their organization and to secure their rights.

OPINIONS OF OTHERS ON SOCIALIST ISSUES.
The Father Is Not Responsible for Opinions Expressed in This Document.

In answer to Mr. T. J. Jackson's comment, published in our paper July 22, upon the fathers being the ultimate source of all wickedness and sin, I would state that I am not aware that such an opinion is held by any recognized set of fathers. As a matter of fact, I have always held that the mothers were the ultimate source of all wickedness and sin. It is true that I have not always held this opinion, but I have been forced to do so by the evidence of the facts of the case.

Mr. T. J. Jackson's letter "The doctor should have restrained and sold, therefore, his practice, I am convinced.

Why, Mr. Jackson, according to you we are to be responsible for the destruction of the race, and is he the man who would believe it? A man who believes this is not a doctor but a self-made man. I believe that the race is to blame for the sin.

Dr. & Mrs. O. S. L. (The following is the editorial note of the Chicago Socialists):

Mr. T. J. Jackson seems to have a rather broad view of the problem of the race. He says that the race is to blame for the sin. I am sure that most men believe this, but I think that we should be careful not to blame the race too much.

In conclusion, I want to say that I think that Mr. Jackson is right in his opinion, but I think that we should be careful not to blame the race too much.

Cleveland and the Railways.

Grosser Significance of Present Railroad Strike.

At the present time, the present railroad strike is of great moment and significance. It is true that the strike is of great moment, but it is more than that. It is a matter that affects the entire country.

The strike is due to the fact that the railroad companies are trying to reduce the wages of the workers. This is a matter that affects the entire country, and it is a matter that must be dealt with.

The workers, therefore, have the right to strike, and the railroad companies have the right to be made to pay the workers more. This is a matter that must be dealt with, and it is a matter that must be settled.
