EUGENE V. DEBS MAKES REPLY TO FORMER PRESIDENT CLEVELAND.

The Secret History of the Great Pullman Strike Told by the Man Who Conducted It.

For years the conditions at the Chicago Stock Yards have been such as to make them the despair of labor. For instance, the workers are so small that they are always in constant fear of being caught in the crossfire. The strike is provoked by the terrible struggle in the struggle for eight hours in all of its forms. It was generally accepted among the labor leaders that the president has the right to take his position. The fact that the miners, gunners, and other laborers in all the United States have been standing in line for years that President Cleveland, and his majority of the board of directors, have been equal to the on-the-spot labor of the two.

A FORCED STRIKE.

The battle of the meat makers.

BY A. M. SIMONS.

For years the conditions at the Chicago Stock Yards have been such as to make them the despair of labor.
THE CHICAGO SOCIALIST, AUGUST 27, 1904.

LAW AND ORDER

From the Chicago Rights of Man's Presidential Campaign Committee.

Eugene V. Debs Makes Reply to Former President Cleveland.

POLITICS

From the Chicago Rights of Man's Presidential Campaign Committee.

Eugene V. Debs Makes Reply to Former President Cleveland.

BATTLE IN HISTORY

The labor movement in the United States has been in existence for over a century. It began with the struggle for the eight-hour day and has since grown into an international movement that seeks not only to improve the conditions of working people, but also to promote social justice and equality for all.

MOYER REFUTES CAPITALIST LIES.

Fredric A. Moyer, a leading socialist in the United States, penned an article refuting capitalist lies in the August 27, 1904 issue of The Chicago Socialist. He challenged the capitalist rhetoric that labor problems were caused by the workers themselves, arguing that capitalism was the root of the problem. Moyer called for a socialist revolution to bring about a society where worked for the benefit of all the people.
LABOR DAY EDITION

The working-class struggle and working-class political movement will be clarified at the Labor Day edition of THE CHICAGO SOCIALIST, to which many of the ablest writers in the country will contribute. There will appear arguments of many who have been employed Problem of vital interest to the working people.

FILE YOUR BUNDLES ORDERS EAILY

800 Copies, $2.00; 1,000, $2.00

Comrade, Give This Issue a Second-reading Circulation

AN APPEAL TO THE STRIKERS.

Brothers, your fellow workers in Chicago greet you with high greetings and greetings of labor; a high greeting of the workers. You are struggling against base greed; that would drive you into conditions worse than slavery.

Your noble struggle for a better life and a brighter outlook for humanity is one of the most splendid victories that the working people are receiving from your brother workers, who show that all real workers are one.

In this fight for overcoming pride and concentration, you have the support of all the workers of the world. The legal owners, to whom you must sell your labor power, are driven by economic and moral considerations. They are the subordinate partner of the capitalist.

The strike is not just a battle against base greed; it would drive you into conditions worse than slavery.

For beyond all else they have the legal right to throw you out of the trade of your life.

The colored workers are just as much entitled to food, clothing, and satisfactory work as any other workers. The strike is not just a battle against base greed; it would drive you into conditions worse than slavery.

Will you continue your support of the workers' strike? Will you continue to support the strikers of the world? Will you continue to support the workers of the world?

The strike is not just a battle against base greed; it would drive you into conditions worse than slavery.

For beyond all else they have the legal right to throw you out of the trade of your life.

The colored workers are just as much entitled to food, clothing, and satisfactory work as any other workers. The strike is not just a battle against base greed; it would drive you into conditions worse than slavery.

Will you continue your support of the workers' strike? Will you continue to support the strikers of the world? Will you continue to support the workers of the world?

The strike is not just a battle against base greed; it would drive you into conditions worse than slavery.

For beyond all else they have the legal right to throw you out of the trade of your life.

The colored workers are just as much entitled to food, clothing, and satisfactory work as any other workers. The strike is not just a battle against base greed; it would drive you into conditions worse than slavery.

Will you continue your support of the workers' strike? Will you continue to support the strikers of the world? Will you continue to support the workers of the world?

The strike is not just a battle against base greed; it would drive you into conditions worse than slavery.

For beyond all else they have the legal right to throw you out of the trade of your life.

The colored workers are just as much entitled to food, clothing, and satisfactory work as any other workers. The strike is not just a battle against base greed; it would drive you into conditions worse than slavery.

Will you continue your support of the workers' strike? Will you continue to support the strikers of the world? Will you continue to support the workers of the world?

The strike is not just a battle against base greed; it would drive you into conditions worse than slavery.

For beyond all else they have the legal right to throw you out of the trade of your life.

The colored workers are just as much entitled to food, clothing, and satisfactory work as any other workers. The strike is not just a battle against base greed; it would drive you into conditions worse than slavery.

Will you continue your support of the workers' strike? Will you continue to support the strikers of the world? Will you continue to support the workers of the world?

The strike is not just a battle against base greed; it would drive you into conditions worse than slavery.

For beyond all else they have the legal right to throw you out of the trade of your life.

The colored workers are just as much entitled to food, clothing, and satisfactory work as any other workers. The strike is not just a battle against base greed; it would drive you into conditions worse than slavery.

Will you continue your support of the workers' strike? Will you continue to support the strikers of the world? Will you continue to support the workers of the world?

The strike is not just a battle against base greed; it would drive you into conditions worse than slavery.
THE BATTLE OF THE MEAT MAKERS.

(Continued from First Page)

The officials are on the lookout for the violators, and are now in possession of a large supply of checks that will be sent to the state police for immediate action.

The strike is still in progress, and the workers are determined to win. The employers are also determined to win, and the battle is being fought with determination and courage. The workers have the support of the community, and the employers have the support of the politicians. The outcome of the strike is uncertain, but one thing is certain: the workers are not going to give up without a fight.