EUGENE V. DEBS MAKES REPLY TO FORMER PRESIDENT CLEVELAND

The Secret History of the Great Pullman Strike Told by the Man Who Conducted It.

zine, ex-President Grover Cleveland has "government" in this connection, it should be understood that Mr. Cleveland has reference to the federal government, not to the state government of Illinois, or the municipal government of Chicago, both of which were overridden and set at defiance by the executive authority. enforced by the military power of the federal government, under the administration of Mr. Cleveland. CLEVELAND VINDICATES HIM-SELF.

The ex-President's article not only triamphantly vindicates his administration, but congratulates its author upon the eminent service he rendered the republic in a critical hour when a labor strike jarred its foundations and threatened its overthrow

It may be sheer coincidence that Mr. Cleveland's eulogy upon his patriotic administration, and upon himself as its central and commanding figure, appeared on the eve of a national convention compased largely of his disciples who were urging his fourth nomination for the presidency for the very reasons set forth in the article on the Chicago strike. HIS KNOWLEDGE SECOND-11AND.

However this may be, it is certain that of his own knowledge ex-President Cleveland knows nothing of the strike he discusses; that the evidence upon which he acted officially and upon which he now bases his conclusions was ex parte, obtained wholly from the railroad interests and those who represented or were controlled by these interests, and it is not strange, therefore, that he falls into a series of errors beginning with the cause of the disturbance and running all cause of the disturbance and running all through his account of it, as may be proved beyond doubt by reference to the "Report on the Chicago Strike" by the "United States Strike Commission," of his own appointment.

WHAT WAS THE CHICAGO STRIKE?

Simply-one of the many battles that Simply one of the many patties that have been fought and are yet to be fought in the economic war between capital and labor. Pittsburg, Homestead, Buffalo, Latimer, Pana, Coeur d'Alene, Cripple Creek and Telluride recall a few Mr. Cleveland has sought to fasten upon Mr. Cleveland has sought to fasten upon the latter faster that the country in the co of the battles fought in this country in the world-wide struggle for industrial what workingman, or what representa-tive of labor, does he cite in support of his statements or his official acts? Not I aver that he received every particle of his information from the capitalist side, that he was prompted to act by the capitalist side, that his official course was determined wholly, absolutely by and in the interest of the capitalist side, and that no more thought or considera-tion was given to the other side, the hundreds of thousands of workingmen, whose lives and whose wives and babes were at stake, than if they had been so many swine or sheep that had balked on their way to the shambles. THE OBJECT OF FEDERAL IN-TERFERENCE. From the federal judge who sat on the bench as the protege of the late Geo. M. Pullman, to whose influence he was indebted for his appointment—as he was to the railroad companies for the annual passes he had in his pocket—down to the passes he had in his pocket—down to the last thug sworn in by the railroads and paid by the railroads (p. 340 report of strike commission) to serve the railroads as United States deputy marshals, the one object of the federal court and its officers was not the enforcement of law and preservation of order, but the breaking up of the strike in the interest of the railroad ecoporations, and it was be-cause of this fact that John P. Algeld, Governor of Idinois, and John P. Hopkins, Mayor of Chicago, were not in har-mony with President Cleveland's admin-istration and protested against the federal troops being used in their State and city for such a malign purpose. This is the fact, and I shall prove it the latter city.

Judge Woods had the distinction of convicting the writer and his colleagues without a trial and of releasing William W. Dudley, of "Blocks of Five" memory, in spite of a trial.

Judge Woods is dead, and I do not attack the dead. I have to mention his name, and this of itself is sufficient. PULLMAN'S CONTEMPT OF COURT. During the strike the late George M. Pullman was summoned to appear before the federal court to give testimony He at once had his private car attached to an east-bound train and left the city, treating the court with sovereign contempt. On, his return, accompanied by Robert Todd. Lincoln, his attorney, he had a tete-a-tete with the court "in chambers," and that ended the matter. He was not required to testify, nor to appear in open court. The striker upon whom there fell even the suspicion of a shadow of contempt was sentenced and jailed with alacrity. Not one was spared, not one invited to a "heart-to-heart" with his honor "in chambers." A CHALLENGE TO CLEVELAND.

In reviewing the article of ex-President Cleveland I wish to adduce the proof of my exceptions and denials, as well as the evidence to support my affirmations, but I realize that in the limited space of a single issue it is impossible to do this in complete and satisfactory manner; and as the case is important enough to be revived, after a lapse of ten years, by Mr. Cleveland, and as the side of labor has never yet reached the people, I am prompted to suggest a fair and full hearing of both sides on the public rostrum or in a series of articles, and I shall be happy to meet Mr. Cleveland, or any one he may designate, in such oral or written discussion, and if I them, or if I cannot produce satisfactory evidence that the crimes charged were instigated by the other side, the side in whose interest President Cleveland brought to bear all the powers of the federal government, I will agree to publicly beg forgiveness of the railroads, apologize to the ex-President and cease

my sgitation forever. THE CAUSE OF THE PULLMAN

STRIKE.
That Mr. Cleveland knows nothing about the Chiengo strike except what has been told him by the railroads and their emissaries, that he has not even read the report of his own strike commission, is apparent from the very be-ginning of his article. He says, "The strike was provoked by a reduction of wages." This is not true. The fact is that although wages had been repeated-They appointed a committee to meet the officials and ask why, if their wages had to be reduced, the high rents they were obliged to pay the Pullman Company were not correspondingly lowered. Failing to secure redress, they called upon Mr. Pullman himself. He promised to investigate. They returned happy. The following day the committee were dis-charged, and thereupon all the employes laid down their tools and walked out of the shops. That is what provoked the strike and the report of the strike commission proves it.
THE COURT'S PARTIALITY TO

THE RAILROADS.

It is easy for Mr. Cleveland and others who were on the side of the railroads to introduce copies of documents, reports, etc., for the simple reason that the federal court at Chicago compelled the telegraph companies to deliver up copies of all our telegrams and copies of the proceedings of our convention and other meetings of the American Railway other meetings of the American Railway Union, including secret sessions, but the federal court did not call upon the rail-roads to produce the telegrams that pass-ed among themselves, nor between their counsel and the federal authorities, nor the printed proceedings of the General Managers' Association, for public inspec-tion and as a basis for criminal prosecu-tion.

HAD THE STRIKE WON.

Nevertheless, there is available proof ejudiced mind, to the honest man who government, under the administration of President Grover Cleveland, was at the beck and call of the railroad corpora-tions, acting as one through the "Gen-

these corporations, with the federal courts and troops to back them up, had swarms of mercenaries sworn in as deputy marshals to incite violence as a pre text for taking possession of the headquarters of the American Railway Union by armed force, throwing its leaders into prison without trial, and breaking up a strike that was fairly won without a blow being struck, and breaking down the union that was victorious, maligning, browbeating and persecuting its peace-able and law-abiding members and putting the railroad corporations in supreme control of the situation.

That was the part of President Cleve and in the Chicago strike, and for this achievement the railroad combine and the trusts in general remember him with profound gratitude and are not only willing but anxious that he shall be President of the United States forever more A PRECEDENT FOR FUTURE AC-TION. In the closing paragraph of his article Mr. Cleveland compliments his administration upon having cleared the way which shall hereafter guide our nation safely and surely in the exercise of its functions which represent the people's The word, "people's," is not only superfluous but mischievous and fatal to truth. Omit that and the ex-President's statement will not be challenged.

CLEVELAND'S FIRST MOVE. How did President Cleveland begin operations in the Chicago strike? Among the first things he did, as he himself tells us, was to appoint Edwin Walker as spe cial counsel for the government.

Who Was Edwin Walker? "An able and prominent attorney, says Mr. Cleveland.

Is that all? Not quite. At the time President Cleveland and his Attorney General, Richard Olney, designated Edwin Walker, upon recommendation of the railroads, as special counsel to the government, for which alleged service he was paid a fee that amounted to a fortune, THE SAID EDWIN WALKER WAS ALREADY THE REGULAR COUNSEL OF THE CHICAGO, MIL-WAUKEE AND ST. PAUL RAIL WAY.

Turning for a moment to "Who's Who in America," we find:

"Walker, Edwin, lawyer, removed to Chicago in 1865; has represented several railroads as general solicitor since 1860. Illinois counsel for C., M. & St. P. R. R. since 1870; also partner in firm of W. P. Rend & Co., coal miners and special counsel for the United States in the law suits growing out of the great railroad strike of 1894."

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF WALK-ER'S APPOINTMENT.

What is the significance of such ar appointment under such circumstances Can it be in doubt a single moment Does it not indicate clearly that the railroads controlled the government, that President Cleveland did the bidding of the General Managers' Association by appointing as special counsel of the gov ernment their own attorney to prosecut the striking employes and use the pow ers of government to crush them into submission? Cun there be a shadow of doubt about it in the mind of any can-

WHY THE MAILS WERE OB-

Perfect quiet and or-der prevail, as I shall show, but the railroads are beaten to a standstill, utterless helpless, cannot even move a mail car, simply because their employes have quit body. Note also that the employes were willing to haul the mail trains, and all other trains, refusing only to handle Pullman cars until the Pullman Com pany should consent to arbitrate its dis agreement with its striking and starving employes. But the railroad officials de termined that if the Pullman cars were not handled the mail cars should not

This is how and why the mails were obstructed and this was the pretext for federal interference. In a word, Presi dent Cleveland, obedient to the railroads took sides with them and supported them in their conflict with their employes with all the powers of the federal govern-

SUPPOSE CLEVELAND HAD AP POINTED DARROW?

Suppose that President Cleveland had appointed Clarence S. Darrow, attorney for the American Railway Union, instead of Edwin Walker, attorney of the General Managers Association, as special counsel to the government!

And suppose that Darrow had ordered the offices of the General Managers' Association sacked, the books, papers and correspondence, including the unopened private letters of the absent officers, packed up and carted away and the offices put under the guard of federal ruflians, in flagrant violation of the constitution of the United States, as was done by order of Walker with the offices of the American Railway Union!

And suppose, moreover, that the American Railway Union, backed up by Darrow, agent of the United States government, had sworn in an army of "thugs, thieves and ex-convicts" (see of ficial report of Michael Brennan, superintendent of Chicago police to the Coun-cil of Chicago) to serve the American Railway Union as deputy United States marshals and "conservators of peace and

And suppose, finally, that the expected trouble had followed; would any one in possession of his senses believe that these things had been done to protect life and property and preserve law and order?

That is substantially the case that President Cleveland is trying to make for himself and his administration out of their participation in the Chicago

THE RAILROADS THE REAL LAW-BREAKERS.

The implication that runs through Mr. Cleveland's entire article is that the railway corporations were paragons of peace and patriotism, law and order, while the oyes were a criminal, d perate and bloodthirsty mob, which had to be suppressed by the strong arm of the governm ut.

No wonder the ex-President is so dear to the iron heart of the railroad trust, and every other trust that uses the gov ernment and its officers and soldiers to further its own sordid ends.

Let us consider for a moment the simple questions: Who are the more law-abiding, the oredatory railroad corporations or hard-worked railroad employes?

What railroad corporation in the Unit d States lives up to the law of the land?

What body of railroad employes vio BRAZEN DEFIANCE OF THE LAW BY RAILROADS.

The railroad corporations are notorious for their brazen defiance of every law that is designed to curb their powers or restrain their rapacity.

The railroad corporations have their obby at Washington and at every State capital; they bribe legislators, corrupt courts, debauch politics and commiagainst the commonwealth.

The railway employes are a body honest, useful, self-sacrificing, peace-lov ing men, who never have and never wil be guilty of the crimes committed by their corporate masters.

And yet President Cleveland serve the corporate masters and exaits and glorifies the act while he attempts to absolve the criminals and fasten the i sufferable stigma upon honest men.

Nothing further is required to demon strate beyond all cavil the capitalist clas character of our present government. THE STRIKE COMMISSION'S RE PORT.

Now for a few facts about the strike It been May 11, 1894, and was perfectly peace ble and orderly until the army of "thugs, thieves and ex-convicts," as Superintendent of Police Brennan called them in his official report to the Council of Chicago, were sworn in as deputied by the United States marshal at the command of Edwin Walker, attorney of the

THE BATTLE OF THE MEAT MAKERS.

BY A. M. SIMONS.

For years the conditions at the Chicago Stock Yards has been such as to make them the despair of labor organizers. Almost wholly unskilled, in the ordinary sense of the word, of the most diverse nationalities and discouraged by the terrible defeat in the struggle for eight hours in old K. of L. days, it was generally accepted that the workers of the "Yards" could never be organized. The owners did all in their power to confirm this position. The most thorough, unscrupulous, and extensive spy system to be found in almost any industry in America, was accompanied by a thorough-going system of Victimization of all who showed even the slightest friendliness to organized labor.

But the Yards and Packingtown have been unionized. More than that the men have shown that across all the lines of race and nationality and trade, or lack of trade, they have felt the thrill of labor's brotherhood and are holding together with a firmness and fidelity that has seldom been equalled on the battle-ground of

A FORCED STRIKE.

Right here it is worth a moment's time to take a glance at some hitherto unpublished history concerning the origin of this strike-especially since the packing-house owners are out with a statement to the "public" complaining of "broken contracts" and whining for sympathy from their victims. It is a matter of common gossip within the sacred precincts of the offices and the "Exchange building" that the strike was forced at this time by the employes. One of them has admitted that had the workingmen been able to delay it a month longer they would have won it. But they had no choice. It was strike when they did or suffer a reduction of wages, the disruption of their union by discrimination and discharge of the most active men. Then when the strike came the owners at once played one of the most skillfully, diabolically treacherous tricks ever played in a labor war. This was their famous offer of arbitration (when too late to permit its acceptance) and hen their alleged agreement with its subsequent violation.

A HITHERTO UNPUBLISHED TELEGRAM. Right here is the place to tell something that has just come to my ears from an absolutely reliable source that explains what has occurred since then. I know from information that is impossible of error, that immediately on the signing of the alleged agreement a cypher telegram was sent out by at least one of the great packing-houses (and everyone knows that uniformity of action is an absolute rule among the stock-yards firms, in such matters), saying "EMPLOY NO UNION LEADERS." This telegram was sent, by this house at least, to all its branch houses, and it is absolutely certain that an identical dispatch was sent to all the other branch houses. My evidence on this point comes from within the office and is absolutely reliable. Under these conditions there was nothing left for the men to do but to go out again, and this was done. This is the battle which is now on. It is a fight for life, for the individual workers—for the right to stand together as men, for better conditions for themselves, their families, their children and their children's children.

CONDITIONS AT PRESENT. It is probable that a condition similar to that now existing within the great board walls of "Packingtown" has never been seen in this world before. It is a saturnalia of beastiality such as the Romans of centuries gone by made famous. Thousands of negroes have been imported from the cities of the South-products of the worst of capitalism, chattel-slavery and primitive savagery combined. Men, in whom the savagery of Africa has been intensified by generations of the worse savagery of wage- and chattel-servitude, accompanied by a final education in the slums of some great city, are now caged up within "Packingtown," that blame rests upon them, but they are here in the midst of our present society and it is silly to be blind to their present terrible brutal degradation. These men have been hauled here, with the same consideration that Texas steers are hauled to the same locality. They are not here to produce meat, but to BREAK THE STRIKE. They are here to feed race prejudice and lay the foundations for future race-riots. They are here to aggravate and enrage the strikers in the hope that they may commit some mad act of violence and thus permit the use of militia to shoot them into helpless submission. I say they are not here to produce meat. They are not even considered as employes—but only as strikebreakers. If they can only be kept within the inclosed palisade of the Yards long enough, it is hoped that the former employes will come cringing back to take up their servile task beneath the damnable yoke of wage-slavery that has ever been more galling in Packingtown than almost anywhere else on earth.

Being here only for this purpose, they are subject to no control. They are not organized for labor, they are not directed as to work. A foreman who has charge of one of the gangs of alleged workmen, said that when he told one of them to work a little faster, he was met with the response: "Now see heah, boss, I just cahn't go no fahster than I ahm now." On venturing a suggestion that if he could not hurry he might at least do his work well, he was told by the negro scab, "Now look heah. If you don't like the way Ahm doin' this work, then you just go 'way and lemme alone." And the foreman went away, because he knew that this negro, like all the others now in the packing-house, was not there to work, but to break a strike.

Moreover, he knew that the negro was armed and of brutal, murderous disposition. No others could live in the conditions which I shall show exist there at the present time. One of the boarding-house keepers nitted that at the first meal of every gang of scabs, all the table knives disappeared again, on the persons of the strike-breakers, with the point broken off and both edges ground sharp, making a most murderous weapon.

HELL IN PACKINGTOWN.

Within the "lodging-houses," and indeed the entire Yards, I have just stated there reigns a saturnalia of beastly debauchery that beggars all description. At all hazards the negroes must be kept within the Yards. Hence their every passion must be gratified, for the gentle, religious packing-house magnates know well the lesson which ages of slave-owners have learned and used, that there is no surer way of keeping a slave quiet than by first debauching and debasing him, and then giving him full liberty to gratify all his passions. There was no need to debase the negro. Earlier generations of masters had already done that. But these had been to some degree restrained in giving him full rein to his inclinations by desire to preserve his labor power and protect property. Neither of these considerations prevails here. A horde of police protect property and his labor-power is not what is wanted at present.

So it is that gambling, drinking, and all the disgusting actions that would be called beastial, were man not the only animal that had sunk so low as to be guilty of them, run riot at the Yards.

No detailed description of these conditions is possible in a paper such as this, or indeed in any publicawhatever. Some hint can be given, and imagination, aided by knowledge of what the beasts of capitalism might do if all restraint were removed and all the encouragement to debauchery still remained. Suffice to say that every woman now working in the Yards is the free prev of whatsoever brutalized negro may care to use her for his purposes. Stories of brutal, disgusting rapes have already come to my ears from the most anthentic sources. One physician let in a flood light that makes one shudder when he stated that in his official capacity as "company doctor" he had cared for TWO HUNDRED CASES OF SYPHILIS IN ONE WEEK AMONG THE NEGRO STRIKE-BREAKERS.

Besides these undescribable, and unimaginable conditions in this respect, the stories of nightly prize-fights, where men pound one another into bleeding semblances of human beasts, while crowds of cheering scabs, men and women, join with the police in watching this modern gladiatorial exhibition-I say in comparison with the other things described, these latter sink into comparative decency.

Here is "law and order" to stagger the world. Yet up to the present time no preacher of morality has dared to say one word from any Chicago pulpit concerning these conditions. Perhaps I am wrong in saying not one, for rumor goes that some of the priests of the Greek Catholic Church have objected. If this be so I am glad to record the fact. But around the Yards there are churches in plenty-Protestant and Catholic. One of these in particular comes to my mind, occupied by a man who once called himself a Socialist-a man whom one of the best universities in America had given an opportunity to fit himself for his life's workwhom several years of subsequent study of social conditions had told him, as he has admitted to me, the truth concerning the great struggle of labor for emancipation. A few years ago this man was located "back of the Yards" in a little, struggling church. Socialists were welcomed gladly to his church. He spoke often and bravely for the cause of the suffering slaves of Packingtown. Suddenly he received a "promotion" to a betterpaying church on the OTHER SIDE OF THE YARDS. Here he has been ever since. Here he is to-day. But no word comes from him now for the men whom he knows, as few men know better, are in the most desperate battle of their lives, a battle that will work for weal or for woe upon all future generations of packing-house slaves. Will he dare to speak? It is not alone in the yards that the beasts whom capitalism has developed within itself are turned loose to prey upon whom they will. While the entire police force is protecting scabs, arresting union pickets. watching negro prize-fights and crap-games (Harrison has just announced that pugilism and gambling have been suppressed in Chicago), the criminals of this great city are running riot. Released from the lairs into which their creator, Capitalism, usually herds them, they are going forth seeking whom or what they may deyour. Hold-ups, burglaries, etc., are multiplying on every hand. But the property of the workingman and the little capitalist no longer demands protection from present governments. Indeed this strike has shown once more how completely all the powers of government are at the disposal of the "masters of the bread." Any and all violations of law on the part of owners are condoned, while every move of the strikers is construed into a crime and punished promptly. The packers could house their scabs in the most discusting conditions, in violation of a whole book full of ordinances, but Mayor Harrison

If the strikers would vote the So cialist ticket this fall the bosses would give them everything they ask for, and a little more, to keep them quiet.

Things will brighten uup consider ably for the strikers in the Stock Yards when they learn to go to the ballot box as unanimously as they go on strike.

Walter Wellman was sent to Col orado to whitewash the Republican administration, and incidentally to blackguard the miners. He made a poor job of both.

The main plank in the Democrati platform reads: "The Republicans have been robbing the people for eight years, and it is now our turn." This plank, however, was left out for fear the working people might catch on to the tricks.

It is quite probable that the Hearst newspapers will attempt no more "stray votes." One taken in New York is not at all encouraging to the crow eaters. It was found that the laboring men in New York "take kindly to Debs," and that Parker "does not command the Bryan strength." Of 37 men who voted for Bryan in 1900 Parker "will lose nearly one-half," and the only encouragement the Hearstocrats got out of three days' canvass was that many who voted for McKinley "are merely coming back to the regular Democracy." Comrades, peg away; we have 'em going.

After one of our soap-box speakers had unished addressing a large audience one evening last week an old man, one of the fast dying middle class, came up and shook his hand and said: "Young man, you are all right. I ean't find a word wrong with what you say, but you are forty years ahead of your time." Our speaker respectfully retorted. "Are you sure that it is not you who are living and thinking the thoughts of a past generation? Are you sure that you have kept abreast of the times? Go home and rend the history of the few years immediately preceding the struggle which culminated in the abolition of chattel slavery."

The Chicago Tribune in taking its "straw vote" was astounded to find so many policemen who stated they were going to vote the Socialist ticket. But in reality there is nothing strange about it. The police, from the very nature of their work, are brought into contact with all the rottenness of the effect of capitalism, competition and capitalist class rule. They see its results in its finished work in all its horror. Besides these object lessons which capitalism furnishes, the police have been listening to the Socialist speakers on the street corners for the past five years.

Their attitude is perfectly natural and logical, and need not astonish our conservative mugwump contemporary Unless all signs fall the morning after the election the capitalists will have something of a straw which will show which way the cyclone is coming from

The police who are making things so uncomfortable for Socialist speakers in various parts of the country are simply obeying the orders of their and all other workingmen's masters. There is some disposition on the part of the working class to blame the police per sonally. This attitude on the part of the workers reminds us very much of the dog when be is struck with a stick wielded by a man. The dog cannot reason from cause to effect, so instead of attacking the man he biter the stick. The police, the militia and the courts are cimply the clubs that capitalism wields to smash the heads of workers with whenever they make any effort to extend their interests, or better their conditions. And there is not much hope of the workers se curing much improvement in the condi-Lons under which they must work and live until they take the aforementions! clubs out of the hands of the class to whose interest it is to keep them in economic bondage. Remember, Mr. Workingman, that it is your vote that places all the powers of government in the possession and control of the class which invariably uses it against your part at the ballot box all this may ing class. Therefore, away with class be changed. It is not so much the rule! Away with official authorities capitalist's superior intelligence as it by grace of the money power! D. is your pitiable studidity which perpet nates this borrible nightmare.

"LAW AND ORDER"

Law and order are nice things, es pecially so when one can get them made "to order." Brother Donnelly, though; the president of the "International Ment Cutters and Butcher Workmen's Union," who but lately expressed misgivings on account of the possibility that a large percentage of the strikers in Packingtown might turn Socialists in consequence of the yers, appointed by President Cleveland. experience they are busy gathering at present, is not half as enthusiastic for ployes, that is to say laber, the working them as he used to be.

Brother Donnelly probably is not wholly blind to the fact that, notwithstanding the friendly course pursued toward the strikers by Police Justice Fitzgerald, law and order are handied in a rather one-sided manner by the authorities.

from the very start that in the streets of Packingtown, inhabited almost exclusively by strikers and their friends. order of a kind would have to be maintained which would strike the fancy of Messrs, Armour, Morris, Swift, Tilden et al. That according to existing rules and regulations, it does not matter whether the wise Judge Brentano has since overruled them or not, the packers should not have been suffered to house en masse in their shambles and refineries that forlorn crowd of strike breakers imported by them from all parts of the country. was known neither to Captain Clancy nor to old Brint, although the latter prides himself on his knowledge of all the city's ordinances. Just as igsorant as these two, Building Commissioner Williams and Health Commissioner Reynolds, proved to be, and with them in the dark groped his (socalled) honor, the Mayor, reputed to have inherited from his late lamented progenitor among other nice and useful things, statwart democracy and stanch friendship for the working people. To the city's corporation attorney, Tolman, who receives an arnual salary of $10,000 for his fabulous, or rather mythical, versatility in legal lore a lawyer hired by the strikers, had to show the sections of the lodging house ordinance, violated by the packers, before he ventured the "recommendation" that the ordinance 'should be enforced, although it might prove disagreeable to the packers," of the packers in a joeular mood stat ed that the strike breakers were to be regarded as-guests of his high and mighty clients. The worthy Brentano, by the way, managed to remain serious at this delightful quib. From the above it can be seen that Mayor Harrison knows how to keep his love for law and order within bounds

He refrains from action even at a time ed the deputy marshals, Edwin Walker's when he counts on a great number hirelings, the General Managers' Assoof workingmen's votes for his political friends and allies, As "yet more friendly to the working people" than Mr. Harrison, our famous sheriff, the sport-loving Mr. Barrett, personally knows of the existing laws as little as of most other calls things. To keep on the safe side he retains a counsellor at-law, or a number of such, among them-characteristically enough-Mr. Levy Mayer, the renowned guide of plutocracy, philosopher and friend of the philanthropic "Illinois Manufacturers' Association." That Mr. Mayer should have called the sheriff's attention to the fact that it is unlawful in Illinois to import strike breakers without telling them beforehand what kind of services are ple demanded of the railroads that they expected from them, is not very probable. But it is improbable that no one else should have given Mr. Barrett an inkling as to said law. Nevertheless, Mr. Barrett has not seen at made no attempt whatever to prevent the packers from unlawfully bringing a great number of ignorant and most probably vicious men within the confines of our glorious commonwealth. So much for the two Democratic high coculorums. Now to the Republicans.

State's Attorney Deneen has not yet raised a finger in order to force the packers to obey laws which they don't like. Yet Deneen is at presentbeing candidate for Governor-undoubtedly far more "friendly to the cause of the people" than he will be after election. United States District Attorney Mr. Bethea is not in evidence at all. The strike has furnished him all kinds of proof for the fact that his celebrated injunction against the packers is constantly being violated by them, but he does not make the slightest use of this proof. He most probably lies low somewhere, keeping his ear to the ground, listening for orders from Washington or Oyster Bay. But he strains his ear in vain. This guarding of property in strikes is as a rule, a mere pretense. Too often the real object of guards is to prevent newcomers from taking the strikers' places, by sussion, often to be followed, if ineffectual, by intimidation and violence. The Pullman Company claims this was the real object of these guards. This paragraph from the report of Mr. Cleveland's own commission is suffi-cient answer to Mr. Cleveland's article. It is conclusive, crushing, overwhelming. DEPUTIES STARTED THE TROU-

DISTURBANCES

DEPUTY MARSHALS. The first trouble instigated by the dep uty marshels was the signal for the fed eral court injunctions, and they came like a succession of lightning flashes.

Next, the general offices of the Amer can Railway Union were sacked and put that time a couple of hundred deputy inder gnard sud communication destroy ed. (Later Judge Grosscup rebuked the federal satraps who committed this outrageous crime, but he did not pretend to bring them to justice.) Next, the leaders of the strike were arrested, not for crime, but for alleged violation of an injunction.

Next, they were brought into court denied trial by jury, pronounced guilty by the same judge who had issued the Injunction, and sent to jail from three to six months.

THE "CONCLUDING WORDS NOT YET WRITTEN."

The Supreme Court of the United States, consisting wholly of trained and successful corporation lawyers, affirmed the proceedings and President Cleveland says that they have "written the concluding words of this history." Did the Supreme Court of the United States write the "concluding words" in the history of chattel slavery when it handed down Chief Justice Taney's decision that black men had "no rights that the white man was bound to respect?"

These "concluding words" hasten the overthrow of wage slavery as the "concluding words" of the same Su preme Court in 1857 hastened the over throw of chattel slavery.

The railroad corporations would rather have destroyed their property and seen Chicago perish than see the American Railway Union triumphant in as noble a cause as ever prompted sympathetic, manly men to action in this world. PEACE OVERTURES TURNED DOWN. The late Mayor Pingree of Detroit came to Chicago with telegrams from the Mayors of over lifty of the largest cities arging that there should be arbitration. (p. XXXIX., report of strike ommission.) He was turned down with out ceremony and afterwards declared "The strike occurred on May 11, and that the railroads were the only crimi-from that time until the soldiers went hals and that they were responsible for all the consequences.

On June 22, four days before the strike against the railroads, or rather the boy-cott of Pullman cars, took effect, there was a joint meeting of the railroad and Pullman officials. (p. XLII., report of strike commission.) At this meeting it was resolved to defeat the strikers, wipe out the American Railway Union, and, to use their exact words, "That we act unitedly to that end."

This was the only joint meeting of the kind that had ever been held between the officials of the railroad companies and the Pullman Company. They mutually determined to stand together to defeat the strike and destroy the union Now, to show what regard these gentlemen have for courts and law and mor als, this incident will suffice: RAILROAD OFFICERS PERJURE THEMSELVES.

When the officers of the American Railway Union were indicted by a spe cial and packed grand jury and placed on trial for conspiracy, the general managers of the railroads were put on the witness stand to testify as to what action and been taken at the joint railroad and Pullman meeting above described, and each and every one of them perjured himself by swearing that he had no recollection of what had taken place at that meeting. Sitting within a few feet of them. I saw their faces turn scarlet under the cross-examination, knowing that they were testifying falsely, that the court knew it, and that every one present knew it, but they stuck to their agreement and uniformly failed to re nember that they had resolved to stand ogether, the railroads agreeing to back the Pullman Company in defeating their famishing employes, and the Pullman Company pledging itself to stand by the railroads in destroying the American

Now follows what the strike commisioners themselves have to say about the deputy marshals, and their words are specially commended to the thoughtful consideration of their chief. President Cleveland: "United States deputy marshals, to the number of 3,600, were lected by and appointed at request of the General Managers' Association, and of its railroads. They were armed and paid by the railroads and acted in the double capacity of railroad employes and United States officers. While operating the railroads they assumed and exercised unrestricted United States authority when so ordered by their employers, or whenever they regarded it as necessary They were not under the direct control of any government official while exercising authority. This is placing officers of the government under control of combination of railroads. It is a bad precedent that might well lead to seri-

THE GOVERNMENT SERVES THE CORPORATIONS.

Here we have it, upon the authority of President Cleveland's own commis sion, that the United States government under his administration furnished the railroad corporations with government officers, in the form of deputy marshals, to take the places of striking employes, operate the trains and serve in that due capacity in any way that might be required to crush out the strike. This is perhaps more credit than the ex-President expected to receive. His own con mission charges him, in effect, with serving the railroads as strike-breaker by furnishing government employes to take the places of striking railroad men and arming them with pistols and clubs and with all the authority of government offi-

Page after page bears testimony the disreputable character of the deputy marshals sworn in to the number of several thousand and turned loose like armed bullies to "preserve the peace."

The report of the strike commission contains 681 pages. I have a mass of other testimony, but for the purpose of this article have confined myself to the report of Mr. Cleveland's own commis

HOW THE STRIKERS WERE DE-FEATED.

Hundreds of pages of evidence are given by impartial witnesses to establish the guilt of the railroad corporations, to prove that the leaders of the strike counseled peace and order, that the strikers themselves were law-abiding and used their influence to prevent disorder; that there was no trouble until the murderous deputy marshals were sprung upon the community, and that these instigated trouble to pave the way for injunctions and soldiers and change of public senti-ment, thereby defeating the strike.

CONFIRMED BY CLEVELAND. President Cleveland unwittingly, perhaps, confirms this fact. On page 232 of his article he quotes approvingly the letter written to Edwin Walker, special counsel of the government and regular counsel of the railroads, by Attorney General Richard Olney as follows: "It has seemed to me that if the rights of the United States (railroads?) were vig orously asserted in Chicago, the origin and center of the demonstration, the result would be to make it a failure every where else, and to prevent its spread over the entire country."

That is the point, precisely the point, and Mr. Cleveland admits it. It is not the "obstruction of the mails," nor disorder, nor the violation of law that arouses Mr. Cleveland's government and out this down not to move the mails or restore order, a mere pretext, which was fully exposed by Governor Altgeld) was the prime cause of federal interference, and to "make it a failure everywhere all constitutional restraints were battered down, and as a strike-breaker President Cleveland won imperishable re report of the strike commission and then answer these questions: To whose interest was it to have riots and fires, lawlessness and crime?

To whose advantage was it to have disreputable "deputies" do these things? Why were only freight cars, largely spital wrecks, set on fire? Why have the railroads not yet re

When the strike was at its height and the railroads were defeated at every turn, the federal court hastily empanneled a special grand jury to indict the strikers. The foreman of this jury was chosen specially because he was a lent union hater, and he afterward betraved his own capitalistic colleagues in matter they had entrusted to his in-

Not a juror was accepted who was of the same political party as the defendants. Every possible effort was made to rush the strike leaders to the State prison. THE FAILURE OF THE PROSECU TION.

After all the evidence of the prosecuion had been presented they realized that they had miserably failed. Not one particle of incriminating asstimony could the railroads produce with all the sleuth bounds they had at their command.

Next came our turn. The general narragers were dumfounded when they were, one after the other, put on the stand. Eighty-six witnesses were in court to testify as to the riots and fires. Assistant Chief Palmer and other members of the fire department were on hand to testify that when they were trying to extinguish the flames in the railroad yards they caught men in the act of cutting the hose, and that these men wore the badges of deputy marshals. Other witnesses were policemen who were ready to testify that they had caught these same deputies instigating violence and acts of incendiarism

THE JURY DUMFOUNDED The jury had been packed to convict When our evidence began to come in their eyes fairly bulged with astonishment. There was a perfect transforma-lion scene. The jurors realized that they had been steeped in prejudice and grossly deceived. The general managers testified that they did not remember what had taken place at the joint general managers' and Pullman meeting. Their printed pro-ceedings were called for. They looked appealingly to Edwin Walker. The terror that overspread their features can never be forgotten by those who witnessed it. Their proceedings would expose their mendacity and convict them of conprompts it to "vigorous" assertion of its spiracy and crime. Something must be powers, but the "demonstration," that is done and done quickly. Court adjourned or lunch. When it reconve Grosscup gravely announced that a ju-ror had been suddenly taken ill and that the trial could not proceed. THE SUSPICIOUS "ILLNESS" OF A

JUROR. The next day and the next the same announcement was repeated. We offered to proceed in any of the several ways provided in such exigencies. The prosecution objected. The cry, "To the penitentiary," had subsided. To "let go" was now the order of the railroads. Not another session of court must be held, for their printed proceedings, the private property in the strong box of each man ager, and full of matter that would con vict them, would have to be produced. All the proceedings of the American Union had been produced in evidence by order of the court, and the court could not refuse to command the railroad officials to produce the proceedings of their association. These proession of the trial, but by order of the court the defendants were forbidden to ook into them, and Edwin Walker, the government counsel, watched them with the faithful eye of a trusted guardian.

We were not allowed to examine the proceedings of the General Managers' Association, notwithstanding our procedings, telegrams, letters and other private communications had been brough into court by order of the judge, inspected by Edwin Walker and others, and printed in the court records for public inspection. It was at this point that the court adourned and the juror was taken iil. Ten years have elapsed. He is still ill and we are still waiting for the court onvene and the trial to proceed. GOVERNMENT REFUSED TO GO ON WITH CASE.

Every proposition to continue the case was fiercely resisted by Edwin Walker. special counsel of the government and general counsel of the railroads. Clarence S. Darrow objected to Mr.

Walker's appearing in that dual capacity, representing at the same time the government and the railroads, the suposed justice of the one and the vengeful spirit of the other, but Judge Grosscup overruled the objection.

again, the interest in it gradually subdding, and many months afterward, when it was almost forgotten, it was quietly stricken from the docket, JURORS GRASPED DEBS HAND.

When the remaining eleven jurors were discharged by the court, Edwin

Walker extended his hand to them, but they rushed by him and surrounded the writer and his co-defendants, grasping their hands and assuring them, each and every one of them, that they were convinced of their innocence and only regretted that they had been prevented from returning their verdict accordingly. The details appear in the Chicago papers of that time.

At the very time we were being tried for conspiracy we were serving a sentence in prison for contempt, the program being that six months in jail should be followed by as many years in the penitentiary.

For a jury to pronounce us innocent in substantially the same case for which we were already serving a sentence would mean not only our complete vindicourt that had, at the behest of the railroads, sentenced us to prison without a trial.

And so the trial was abruptly terminated on account of the alleged illness of a juror, and they could find no other to take his place.

These are the facts and I have all the documentary evidence in detail and only lack of space prevents me from making the exhibits in this article. If President Cleveland or the railroad

A hundred and fifty thousand railroad suployes, their fellow members in the American Railway Union, sympathized with them, shared their earnings with them, and, after vainly trying in every peaceable way they could conceive to touch the flint heart of the Pullman Company, every overture being resented, every suggestion denied, every proposition spurned with contempt, they determined not to pollute their hands and dishonor their manhood by handling Pullman cars and contributing to the suffering and sorrow of their brethren and their wives and babes. And rather than do this they laid down their tools in a body, sacrificed their situations and submitted to persecution, exile and the blacklist; to idleness and poverty, crusts and rags, and I shall love and honor these moral heroes to my latest breath. There was more of human sympathy, of the essence of brotherhood, of the spirit of real Christianity, in this act than in all the hollow pretenses and heartless prayers of those disciples of mammon who cried out against it, and this act will shine forth in increasing splender long after the dollar-worshipers

The Chicago strike is not yet settled, and its "concluding pages" are yet to be written.

MOYER REFUTES CAPITALIST LIES.

President of Western Federation of Miners Denies Statement in Capitalist Press that He Advised Unionists to Vote Democratic. Various capitalist newspapers have printed statements that Charles II. Moyer, President of the Western Federation of Miners, who was so long imprisoned on the trumped up charge of "desecrating the flag," advised unionists to vote the Democratic ticket.

In reply to any inquiry from the office of The Worker, Comrade Moyer writes as follows:

"Dear Comrade-On my return to send marters, Secretary Haywood handed me yours of the 2d, also a copy of the enclosed elippings from the News of June 21. In reply I feel that it will only be necessary to forward you a copy of my report to the twelfth annual convention of the Western Federation of Miners to convince you of my firm belief in the neessity of political action not only by the Western Federation of Miners, but by organized labor in general. I ara unable to see any relief to be secured for the wage workers through pure and simple trade unionism, and I would either be a fool or a knave, after The trial was postponed again and the many years of trials, to advise the laboring people to continue casting their ballots for the Republican or Democratic parties. Not only will I support the Socialist candidates nominated by the Chicago convention, but will raise my voice and use what little influence I may have with my class in the cause of Socialism.

In conclusion permit me to say that during my incarceration in the milltary prison, I was quoted by the press and at many times falsely accused of making statements, solely for the purpose of turning my friends on the outside against me, and thereby bringing about my defeat for re-election as president of the organization, but regardless of the persecution, I desire at this time to assure my comrades of the Socialist movement, also my brother unionists, that I am to-day more determined to fight the battles of my class than ever before and that I will ever be found fighting shoulder to shoulder with my comrades, who are waging a war of extermination against a system which is binding the chains of slavery more securely around the fimbs of the wage workers and which makes Peabodyism a possibility.

"In the tenth and eleventh annual conventions of the Western Federation of Miners I cast my ballot for a policy of education along political and economic lines, and had I had the privilege of being present at the twelfth annual convention gladly would I have reaffirmed the action of the former conventions.

"The Republican and Democratic parties have done nothing for the wage workers, that I am aware of, that would lead me to change my views, up to this date, and offers nothing in the Remarkable Growth of Socialist Sentiment In the State.

The Campaign Committee meets every Monday night at Jung's Hall, 106 Randolph street; go up to second floor, walk to rear and up one flight of stairs. All members should attend, as well as all other party members who wish to see for themselves what is go-

Some comrades in the county are impatiently complaining that the Campaign Committee is showing small results for the money they have been receiving. We wish to state that so far no great amount of money has come in, and what has been received has been used for the purpose of getting out campaign subscription lists, paying for the printing of same and for postage, which is a considerable item, and other incidental expenses. In other words the money has been used in the laying of wires for the purpose of getting in more money to carry on a good campaign. The committee is determined to incur no more liabilities, to be saddled on the party when the election is over, and will proceed according to its means.

However, the committee is already in a position to show results: About 8,000 campaign subscription lists have been sent out, on which money is commencing to come in, and an organizer for Cook County has been placed in the field. In the course of a week another organizer will be placed in the State. to assist in the able work being done by Organized Collins. Comrade Brower, of Elgin, has been selected for this work, and if he accepts, which we have reason to believe he will, our candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor will both be touring the State and aiding in the work of presenting the Socialist philosophy to the unconverted.

The Socialist party now has organizations and will have candidates in 49 out of 51 Senatorial districts in the State; also in all of the Congressional districts. The work of corresponding with the various locals, getting the various Senatorial, Congressional and county conventions under way for the nomination of candidates, getting the nomination papers properly filled out. etc., has been very heavy. State Secretary Smith has been compelled to work night and day, as well as on Sundays, but this work is now well under way, and soon will be competed. when the State Secretary will be able to give more time to the campaign

During the past week the committee has purchased and received in donation from the National Committee 30,000 pieces of literature for distribution among the stock yards strikers. the bulk of which has already been distributed. Speakers have also been sent out and the reception given the rades in Joliet are preparing to hold Socialist philosophy by the strikers is meetings each week with speakers simply wonderful.

* AN APPEAL TO THE STRIKERS.

Brothers, your fellow-workers in Chicago greet you and wish von success! Every day we scan the papers, anxiously looking for some sign of victory for your just cause.

Days have grown into weeks, and still you are struggling against base greed, that would drive you into conditions worse than slavery.

Your noble struggle for a better life and a brighter outlook for yourselves, wives and children, and the help and sympathy you $ are receiving from your brother workers, shows that all realize the fact that we must stand or fail together.

But in this fight against overweening pride and concentrated wealth, our scanty help and boundless sympathy is of little avail.

The legal owners, to whom you must sell your labor power, look upon you simply as a "commodity" to be bought in the competitive market.

Whatever rights you may have as human beings are of no importance compared with their rights in "private property." On your side you have the just demand for a decent living, but on their side they have the 'scab," the hungry stomachs anxlous to make any kind of a living.

But beyond all else they have the legal right to throw you out, to keep you out, and to put others in your place, without regard to what becomes of you or your families.

And in this legal right they are backed by the police, the courts and the militia. The colored slaves of the South were at least sure of a cabin, food, clothes and medical attendance, work or no work, because they were s'aves.

You are not sure of any of these things, nor are your masters obliged to furnish them to you, because you are free citizens.

As economic slaves you are weak, because of your economic

As free citizens you are unconquerable, because of your political strength.

On the political field each one is as strong as any one of your But your very strength is your curse, so long as you use it against your own interests. By voting for either the Republican or Democratic parties you vote to give all the political and economic power into the hands your masters. You vote yourselves into economic slavery!

You use the weapon, which should be yours, to stab yourselves and your dear ones. You forge the chains by which your masters hold you in bondage! Use your political power to secure economic freedom!

Own yourselves, as you now oyn the ballot, and by your political strength become joint owners with your fellow-workers of all the industries and means of production, on which modern society depends. Rise like men, vote for the economic freedom of yourselves and families by voting for the party of your class!

Vote to overthrow the present system of wage slavery! The Socialist party alone represents your interests, because it stands for the economic and political supremacy of the working

A tour of the State will be made during the fall by the following speakers: Simons, Morgan, Black. Edwards, Stedman, Brower, Breckon, Berlyn and Carr, and others. A schedule of dates has been arranged, which will give from one to three and four rallies at the various principal towns and cities in the State.

The county organizer, Comrade Larsen, has made a good beginning in his new duties. He already has under way the organization of new branches in the First and Thirtleth wards, and in Maywood, Riverview and Dalton.

He is also trying to systematize the agitation in the various wards. The committee was well pleased with his

The resources of the movement are limited, only a certain amount can be expected from the limited resources of the comrades and sympathizers, and if we get started in the real work of the campaign by the middle of September we should be able to keep it in full swing until the day of election.

THREE PHASES OF THE QUESTION.

During the past week I have spoker at three meetings with wholly differ ent audiences, yet from all come i story of encouragement for Socialism On the 17th I occupied a "soup box" in Jollet: An audience of laborers of three hundred or more gathered round with a quier, earnest attention that was a sharper contrast to the sneering. patronizing attitude of former years than would have been the wildest ap plause. The Joliet courades have ar ictive, enthusiast local that is holding meetings every week where a year ago the name of Socialism was almost un

From Jolief I went to Wengua to speak at a plenic of the U. M. W There is no yet no Socialist local here but this will soon be remedied, a more than the necessary members can be obtained with a little bustling, and the men are there who will do the hustfing. Here I spoke from the same platform as a mine "operator," s alled, probably, because he has noth ing to do with the operation of a mine Mr. Monser, the "operator" of the Wenona Coal Company, was a gentle man of the old school, who could no realize that the old days of personal paternal relations between employed and employes were gone forever. He spoke well. He declared himself in favor of a child labor law that would keep every boy under eighteen out of the mines. He indersed the union. He 50c. for 4 months. Write for samples. praised its work. He did not believe in the "closed shop," but otherwise be spoke much as a "pure and simpler" might have done. But it was all in vain. In spite of his attempted friendship, in spite of his praise for the union, in spite of his personal acquaintance for twenty-live years with his employes; in spite, on the other hand, of their back of intelligent conclousness of class luterests, the class struggle was there and it was almost pitiful to watch the old man vainly striving to stretch his hands across that tremendous social chasm, and coping in value to find a response from he other side. The message of Social sm they received gladly, enthusiasti eally. They denounced the Colorade outrages vehemently, and many de chared their intention of voicing their ndignation at the polis. When the speech was concluded, the first man to grasp my hand was the old operator who had leaped from his carriage as ! came down from the platform, and who greeted me with, "You're all right, young man. I enjoyed you talk, but you are forty years ahead o the times." The retort was on m lins, but I held it back, to say, as I tic, benevolent, personal relations be tween muster and man." On the 20th the scene shifted to a Chantauqua at Aurora. An audience of nearly two thousand gathered be neath a tent, to be amused, "instruct ed," or sentimentally "stirred." A smug, middle-class audience, ready for "reform" which should prolong the agony of their industrial death, but frightened at the suggestion of peaceful revolution that should free them and fit them for life as men and women. I had faced the same audience a hundred times and more be fore, and I did not withhold the truth. But I was surprised at the effect. Instead of the old patronizing holierthan-thou sneer, or the open indiffer ence of other years, there was the closest, most earnest attention. I used the "inevitability" argument, and as I traced the facts that were arguing so logically through history and to-day for Socialism, I do not believe it was wholly the speaker's conceit that made me read interest in nearly every face and conviction in many. Indeed, at the close I heard over and over again the story that we hear on every side in these days: "Socialism is coming. The vote for the Socialist party this year will be something to astonish the world." Fraternally, looked at the evidences of growing

class consciousness, and a sharpening class struggle around me, to reply, "I is you who are a generation behind the times and who are seeking to bring back the long gone stage of paternalis

The Struggle for Existence

By Walter Thomas Mills, A. M. of Chicago, Ill.

This is a Study in the Foundation Principles of Social Economy and Their Application to the Collective Struggle for Existence.

A THOUSAND QUESTIONS of the greatest importance to the working class carefully started and discussed.

This book will make you understand what the political warfare is all about, and how to work with those whose interests are the same as yours for a decisive victory for yourselves. There are no men or women who can read this book and not learn how, collectively, to put into their own lives Less of Straggle and More of Axistence.

You can't afford to talk to vote till you have read this book. After you have read it you will have are win way in all rational political and economic discussions.

Every Printer ever engaged in setting type or reading proof on this book has become a callst.

My magazine is now on a paying basis. That is, I am taking in as much money as I am paying out, a condition that has not existed since I established Wilshire's Magazine. It took $100,000 in cold cash to put it there, but it's there.

The comrades who know me know I have no desire to make money, but that I only wish to make Socialist Propaganda.

What is the best way to do this?

I have given it a great deal of thought and have decided that the best way is to take into partnership with me 5,000 Socialists who are as earnest as I am. With their active assistance I can do many times more than I can now.

But, few Socialists have any money to invest! Very well, if I can get the men I want I'll give them the stock free-but on one con-could not learn of it until the employers were ready to turn their poor brutalized, purchased negro slaves out, in order to precipitate the long-desired riots and get the use of the militia. But a union man who dares to even use the streets in the neighborhood of his nuserable home, is clubbed, thrown into a patrol wagon and dragged to the police station as a "disturber of the peace."

ENTER THE MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION.

This fight is a wider fight than those who are engaged in dream. One of the superintendents of one of the largest of the packing-houses stated a week ago that there were hundreds of men in his department (nearly all the men indeed who were really there to do work) who had been sent there BY THEIR EM-PLOYERS. Members of the Employers' Associations, and Citizens' Alliances all over the country have been ordering their wage-slaves to work for this new master. Men have been called into a host of offices throughout the United States, and told that their further right to live and work, depended on whether they were will ing to enter into the companionship of the beastialized negro scabs who are now caged up in the walls of

THE LESSON OF IT ALL.

One lesson is coming home to the men who are battling so bravely against such tremendous odds beneath the smoke-laden atmosphere of the world's greatest industry. Every day adds hundreds to the number who see that while the government remains in the control of the master class, and while the institution of private ownership stands between them and their chance to live, that there is no hope for them, or their class, or families. These men are listening gladly to the gospel of Socialism. They are listening to it from the lips of orators, from the pages of literature, but most eagerly of all, in the voice of the events of which they are a part. They are being forced to realize that, Democrat or Republican, is but a political label for the same old capitalism that is crushing them to death. They know that while there may be Democrats and Republicans among those who are being used to crush them, there are no Socialists. They know that while some of their bosses will vote for Roosevelt and some for Parker, that none will vote for Debs. So it is that every day sees thousands more who are determined to use their ballot to back up their strike—who propose to voice their solidarity at the one place where they cannot be defeated-by voting for the Socialist party.

OUT-DOOR AGITATION.

Branch secretaries and organizers will please read carefully each week the announcements for street meetings under this heading, and make all necessary arrangements to avoid disappointments. The permits should be on hand in every case. When speakers assigned to meetings are for sufficient reason unable to attend they should immediately notify the Secretary or procure a substitute. A brief report of each meeting for publication should be mailed to the office immediately after the meeting. Comrades whose names do not appear in the following list are urged to attend the meeting most convenient for them and assist in the propaganda. Requests for speakers and notices of meetings must be in not later than Tuesday night.

After due consideration the Executive Committee is of the opinion that all street meetings should close at 10 o'elock.

All communications relating to street meetings should be addressed to Jas. P. Larsen, City Organizer, 163 Randolph street.
