THE CHICAGO SOCIALIST, APRIL 8, 1905.

THE CHICAGO SOCIALIST was published weekly at 4602 North Clark Street, Chicago, Ill. by the Workers' Socialist League of America. Its present editor is J. F. Schreiner. The subscription price is $3 a year. Single copies, 10 cents each.

THE CHICAGO SOCIALIST is an independent Socialist paper and is not responsible for the views expressed by bureaus and correspondents.

A WORD TO OUR READERS.

The Chicago Socialist is an independent Socialist paper and is not responsible for the views expressed by bureaus and correspondents.

THE LESSONS OF THE ELECTION.

The lessons of the recent election are clearly indicated. The people have declared that they will not accept the old methods of conducting business and politics, and that they will not allow the capitalist class to continue in its present position of monopoly and control of the public life of the country.

The Socialist Party, which is the only political party that advocates the abolition of private ownership of the means of production, is the only party that can meet this situation and win the support of the working class.

THE SCHOOL AT FRANKFURTH.

The School at Frankfurth, a Socialistic educational institution, was opened on December 31, 1904. The school is under the direction of Dr. F. F. Frankfurth, who is also the head of the Socialistic movement in Germany. The school is intended to provide a comprehensive education for working-class youth, based on the principles of Socialism.

THE SECOND, THIRD AND FOURTH VOLUMES OF MARX'S "CAPITAL."

BY ERNEST UNTERMANN.

It is necessary to keep in mind that the second, third, and fourth volumes of Marx's "Capital" are not published in the same order as the first volume. The first volume was published in 1867, and the second, third, and fourth volumes were published in 1871, 1872, and 1874, respectively. The order in which these volumes are published is as follows:

Volume 1: Capital: A Critique of Political Economy, Part I
Volume 2: Capital: A Critique of Political Economy, Part II
Volume 3: Capital: A Critique of Political Economy, Part III
Volume 4: Capital: A Critique of Political Economy, Part IV

The second, third, and fourth volumes of Marx's "Capital" are not as well known as the first volume, but they are just as important. They provide a comprehensive analysis of the capitalist system and its effects on society.

THE FACTS OF THE CASE.

The facts of the case are as follows:

Mr. A. B., aged 30, was arrested on June 1, 1905, for violating the alien quota law. He had entered the United States illegally on May 30, 1905, and had been detained in a federal detention center since that date.

Mr. A. B. was a native of Germany and had lived in the United States for 10 years. He had been employed as a skilled laborer in a factory and had supported his family through his work. He had never been in trouble with the law before.

Mr. A. B. pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to 30 days in jail. He was released on July 1, 1905, after paying a fine of $50.
