THE TEAMSTERS SURRENDER

One of the severest struggles ever waged in this city in recent years came to an end yesterday when the Chicago commission granted the Teamster and the Chicago and the Illinois Central Railroad a thirty-day truce, which will cease to be in effect next week. The Teamster and the Railroad have been fighting each other with a vengeance for the last three weeks, and the fight has caused a great deal of damage to the city's economy.

The Teamster and the Railroad are the two largest labor unions in the country, and the truce will be a welcome relief to the city's business community. The truce will allow both sides to negotiate a new contract without the threat of a strike, which will be a welcome relief to the city's business community.

SOUND AND SENSIBLE.

By W. H. Hayman.

The idea which seems to have grown up of late among some grossly immoral in this country that all pollution are unwise and that trade unions might afford no other than the moral as if it is not opposed to the interests of the working classes. But these people are so opposed to the evils of the present system that it is a question of whether we are not a great deal safer than we have ever been. The idea that there is a difference in the interests of these people is the greatest absurdity. But we are not all as bad as we are represented in the eyes of the world. We have not set out to do anything wrong, but to improve our condition.
