The Sociali...
HYPOCRISY EXPOSED.

Hypocrisy and anti-Socialist activity abound in the field of industrial life to the extent that the workers themselves are beginning to lose their confidence. A recent organizing campaign in the textile industry revealed that the employers were using high-pressure tactics to discourage unionization. The workers themselves began to feel the effects of this campaign and decided to organize a counter-campaign to expose the hypocrisy of the employers.

A CIVILIZING MEETING

The wages and working conditions in the textile industry are a major concern. The workers are demanding better wages and working conditions, but the employers are resisting these demands. The workers have started a campaign to organize and fight for their rights. The employers, however, are using high-pressure tactics to discourage the workers from joining the union. This is a form of hypocrisy that must be exposed.
