THE CHICAGO SOCIALIST

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1905

VOL. VI
NO. 348

THE TOCSIN CALL TO ACTION.

THE DEED MEETING.

The meeting of the Socialist party took place in Chicago, Illinois, on Monday, Nov. 3, with the purpose of discussing the measures to be adopted by the party to meet the situation created by the actions of the United States government against the working classes in this country. The meeting was well attended, and the speakers were able to present a clear and concise explanation of the situation and the steps that the party must take in order to effectively oppose the actions of the government.

The speakers emphasized the importance of unity among the members of the party and the need for a clear and consistent message to be delivered to the working classes. They stressed the importance of organizing and mobilizing the working people to fight against the policies of the government and to demand a better future for all.

THE NIGHT THAT MADE ME A REVOLUTIONIST.

By Ernest Pese in Everybody's Magazine.

My father was a small farmer, who as a boy had heard of the struggle that was being waged against the rich men by the men who were poor. He had a great respect for the men who were poor, and he had a great love for them.

He was a man of great courage, and he was not afraid to stand up for what he believed to be right. He was a man of great principles, and he was not afraid to fight for them.

He was a man of great wisdom, and he was able to understand the problems of the poor. He was a man of great kindness, and he was always willing to help the poor.

He was a man of great faith, and he always believed that God would provide for the poor. He was a man of great hope, and he always believed that the poor would one day be free.

My father was a man of great courage, and he was not afraid to stand up for what he believed to be right. He was a man of great principles, and he was not afraid to fight for them. He was a man of great wisdom, and he was always willing to help the poor. He was a man of great faith, and he always believed that God would provide for the poor. He was a man of great hope, and he always believed that the poor would one day be free.

The people have found their champion in my father. He has stood up for them, and he has fought for them. He has been a man of great courage, and he has always been willing to stand up for what he believed to be right. He has been a man of great principles, and he has always been willing to fight for them. He has been a man of great wisdom, and he has always been willing to help the poor. He has been a man of great faith, and he has always believed that God would provide for the poor. He has been a man of great hope, and he has always believed that the poor would one day be free.

The people have found their champion in my father. He has stood up for them, and he has fought for them. He has been a man of great courage, and he has always been willing to stand up for what he believed to be right. He has been a man of great principles, and he has always been willing to fight for them. He has been a man of great wisdom, and he has always been willing to help the poor. He has been a man of great faith, and he has always believed that God would provide for the poor. He has been a man of great hope, and he has always believed that the poor would one day be free.

THE KATTLE CALLS NOT BLACK.

My father was a man of great courage, and he was not afraid to stand up for what he believed to be right. He was a man of great principles, and he was not afraid to fight for them. He was a man of great wisdom, and he was always willing to help the poor. He was a man of great faith, and he always believed that God would provide for the poor. He was a man of great hope, and he always believed that the poor would one day be free.

My father was a man of great courage, and he was not afraid to stand up for what he believed to be right. He was a man of great principles, and he was not afraid to fight for them. He was a man of great wisdom, and he was always willing to help the poor. He was a man of great faith, and he always believed that God would provide for the poor. He was a man of great hope, and he always believed that the poor would one day be free.

My father was a man of great courage, and he was not afraid to stand up for what he believed to be right. He was a man of great principles, and he was not afraid to fight for them. He was a man of great wisdom, and he was always willing to help the poor. He was a man of great faith, and he always believed that God would provide for the poor. He was a man of great hope, and he always believed that the poor would one day be free.

My father was a man of great courage, and he was not afraid to stand up for what he believed to be right. He was a man of great principles, and he was not afraid to fight for them. He was a man of great wisdom, and he was always willing to help the poor. He was a man of great faith, and he always believed that God would provide for the poor. He was a man of great hope, and he always believed that the poor would one day be free.

My father was a man of great courage, and he was not afraid to stand up for what he believed to be right. He was a man of great principles, and he was not afraid to fight for them. He was a man of great wisdom, and he was always willing to help the poor. He was a man of great faith, and he always believed that God would provide for the poor. He was a man of great hope, and he always believed that the poor would one day be free.

What the People Demand (From the Philadelphia Correspondent of the Chicago Daily Tribune, Nov. 3, 1905).

The working men of Philadelphia are demanding equal pay for equal work. They believe that the rich men who control the government should not be allowed to pay less than the men who work for them. They believe that the working men should be paid enough to live on, and they are willing to work for as much as the rich men. They believe that the working men should have the same rights as the rich men, and they are willing to fight for them. They believe that the working men should have the same chances as the rich men, and they are willing to work for them.

The working men of Philadelphia are demanding equal pay for equal work. They believe that the rich men who control the government should not be allowed to pay less than the men who work for them. They believe that the working men should be paid enough to live on, and they are willing to work for as much as the rich men. They believe that the working men should have the same rights as the rich men, and they are willing to fight for them. They believe that the working men should have the same chances as the rich men, and they are willing to work for them.

Collins & Co.

$2.00 HATS

NEW FALL STYLES
NOW ON SALE

A. W. Corin

Tessaldy and Silk Hats

Feras Restaurant
49th Avenue Street

Pepperidge and Union Hotel

TRIAL YUNUS BIRKOMBER

FESSUS ARE AS A RUII.
The Chicago Socialist offers the following prizes to the parties sending in the most subscriptions for the period of THREE MONTHS From September 15 Until December 15

1st PRIZE ONE BEAUTIFUL STAND $85.00
2nd PRIZE GENTS GOLD WATCH $30.00
3rd PRIZE LADIES’ GLOBE WATCH $30.00
4th PRIZE $15.00
5th PRIZE SOCIALIST BOOK $ 5.00

The prizes will be given to the persons sending in the largest number of copies or the largest amount of cash on the bonds of five yearly or ten half-yearly subscribers for $2.00.

These prizes are each worth $50.00 in gold and are guaranteed by the Socialist Party.
THE REVOLUTION IN RUSSIA.

The revolution in Russia is at hand. As yet it is at a very early stage, and the潼解 of its aims and purposes has been incomplete. It has already, however, shown itself to be a powerful force, and is likely to grow in strength and influence as time goes on. The revolution is not without its dangers, and it is to be hoped that it will not lead to political strife and civil war. The people of Russia are entitled to the fullest liberty and equality of opportunity, and it is to be hoped that the revolution will enable them to realize these rights.

THE INTERNATIONAL REVIEW.

The review of the month of April, 1905, is now ready, and contains a number of important articles on the political and social situation in Russia. The review is distributed free of charge to all who wish to receive it, and is sent by post to any part of the world. The material in the review is taken from the reports of correspondents and observers in Russia, and is based on the latest information available.

DIAMONDS.

The value of diamonds as an investment is increasing, and it is advisable to take advantage of the present opportunity to purchase them. Diamonds are a safe and profitable investment, and are likely to yield a good return in years to come. The article in the review contains a detailed analysis of the diamond market, and will be of great interest to those who wish to invest in this field.

THE CHICAGO SOCIALIST.

The Chicago Socialist is a weekly newspaper published in Chicago, Illinois, for the working class and other laboring people. The paper is devoted to the interests of the working class and the support of the labor movement. It is published in English and is distributed free of charge to all who wish to receive it. The material in the paper is based on the latest information available, and is taken from the reports of correspondents and observers in the United States and other countries.