Every attack a boost.

The Chicago Times of the City took up the cudgel against me the other day on account of my having said that the Irish-American Protective Association was a mere political racket. The Times, as some of its readers doubtless know, is a newspaper that has none of the spirit and none of the backbone of a well-cooked cabbage leaf. Its editors and reporters are like the shamrock on the Irishman's hat, only its shamrock has no name. The Times is a cheap, shallow, demagogic organ, and a traitor to the cause that it pretends to champion.

The Times is only too eager to heap all kinds of abuse on any one who dares to stand up against its demagogic methods, regardless of the fact that its attacks are false and devoid of substance. It is always prepared to cry foul whenever anything is done that militates against its selfish ends, and it is not too scrupulous in its means of effecting those ends. It is always ready to make a swift attack on any one who dares to stand up against its demagogic methods, regardless of the fact that its attacks are false and devoid of substance. It is always prepared to cry foul whenever anything is done that militates against its selfish ends, and it is not too scrupulous in its means of effecting those ends.

The Times is a mere political racket, and it cannot be expected that it will ever do anything that is not calculated to further its own selfish ends. It is only too happy to join hands with any demagogue or political machine that promises to further its own ends, and it is not too particular about the methods that it uses to achieve its ends. It is only too willing to throw overboard any principles that may stand in the way of its own ends, and it is not too scrupulous in its means of effecting those ends.

PAUL miners INCREASES IN ENGLAND.

The miners in England are in a bind. The coal-combining company has increased its wages, and the miners are now in a quandary. They cannot afford to work for the new wages, but they cannot afford to go out on strike, either. They are in a fix, and they are not sure what to do. They are in a bind, and they are not sure what to do.

MONEY UNDER SOCIALISM.

(By Gaylord Winchell, in Winchell's "Magazine.")

Money should have a meaning in the Socialist State. It should be a thing that men can use to buy the things that they want. It should be a thing that men can use to get the things that they want. It should be a thing that men can use to get the things that they want.
