MAY DAY CELEBRATION ASSURED

Seventy Delegates Attend First Conference — Twenty-seven Organizations Represented — All Unions and Progressive Fraternal Organizations Urged to Participate.

The call for a conference of Socialists and progressive labor and industrial organizations to be held in Chicago May 2nd has been accepted by the Socialist party, was received by the various organizations and fraternal bodies, and a call for the conference was issued.

The conference was called by the Socialist party to discuss the question of May Day celebration, which is to be held at a meeting of the International May Day Committee at the Chicago Labor Temple, 355 Lake St., at 8 p.m., May 3rd.

The meeting is to be attended by representatives of all the social and progressive labor organizations in the city and the surrounding districts.

The conference will be held in connection with the annual celebration of May Day, which is to be held on May 1st.

The Socialist party, through its representatives, has been working for the promotion of May Day celebrations for many years, and has been successful in improving the condition of the working class.

A SOCIALIST PRINTING PLANT.

The movement for the improvement of the working class through the establishment of socialist printing plants has been one of the most important phases of the socialist movement in this country.

The establishment of the first socialist printing plant in Chicago, the Chicago Socialist Printing Co., is a stepping stone in the direction of a socialist movement in the city.

"THE GATHERING OF THE CHURCHES"

In the April number of "Everybody's" there appeared a story, "The Calling of the Priests" by Edna Ferber, in this series. We have been asked by the editor of "Everybody's" to publish the story again in full. We have attempted to do so, but have been advised that "Everybody's" does not have the right to reprint stories, and that the story must be obtained from the publisher, The Century Company, New York City. We have no wish to infringe upon the copyright of the story, and we will be glad to publish it in full if we are permitted to do so by the publisher.

A FORWARD MOVE.

A worker's meeting was held in the office of the Chicago Socialist. The meeting was called by the Socialist party to discuss the question of the National Labor Union. Several speakers made speeches in favor of the union, but there were also several who were opposed to it. The meeting was adjourned without a decision being reached.

"EDUCATIONAL.

The Chicago Socialists are planning to hold a series of educational meetings in various parts of the city. The first meeting will be held in the office of the Chicago Socialist on Saturday evening, April 10th. The meetings will be open to all who are interested in the cause of socialism. The speakers will be selected from the members of the Socialist party, and the meetings will be conducted in a friendly and informal manner.
