A RUSSIAN GIRL'S TRAGIC STORY.

She Tells Why She Killed the Chief of Police—Says She Was Justified, and Pays Penalty with Her Life.

St. Petersburg, April 25—The trial of the anarchists in St. Petersburg has been brought to a conclusion. The chief of the assassins, who was tried last week, has been sentenced to death, and he has paid the penalty. The trial of the anarchists was a remarkable story, published in the newspapers of the country. The trial was held in the court of St. Petersburg, and was attended by the press and the public. The trial was held in the court of St. Petersburg, and was attended by the press and the public.

It is said that the trial was marked by a terrific display of eloquence and the accused were tried by the court. They were found guilty of murder, and were sentenced to death. The sentence was carried out in the court of St. Petersburg, and the condemned were executed in the court. DEBS WRITES AN OPEN LETTER TO ROOSEVELT.

Dear Mr. President,

I am writing to you with a great deal of concern about the current state of our country. The conditions under which the working classes are forced to live are intolerable, and I believe that your administration has failed to address these issues adequately.

It is my hope that you will consider the plight of the working classes and take action to improve their living conditions. The current economic policies are not sustainable, and they will only lead to further problems in the future.

I urge you to consider the needs of the working classes and to take action to address them. The future of our country depends on it.

Sincerely,

AN APPEAL FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

The conditions in San Francisco are extremely difficult for the working classes. The cost of living is high, and the wages are low. Many workers are forced to live in poor conditions.

I urge you to consider the needs of the working classes in San Francisco and to take action to improve their living conditions.

Sincerely,

[Signature]
