THE CHICAGO SOCIALIST

POISON FOR YOUR STOMACH--LIES FOR YOUR MIND

The Condemnation at Industry and What It Means to You--A Letter From the Author of "The Jungle" to the People of Chicago.

What It Means to You

IT MEANS

Your minds with lies.

IT MEANS

That the commercial bandits of the Beef Trust are not contented with filling your stomachs with poison, they are also filling IT MEANS your time, and your labor, the contents of your pocket-book; it means that they own your souls.

IT MEANS

That they dictate not merely what you shall eat, but also what you shall think.

IT MEANS

That they are able to dictate what you shall think of them.

IT MEANS

That you are prevented from even desiring to interfere with their crimes.

IT MEANS

That when a man who cares for nothing on God's earth but truth, spends two years of his life in making an exhaustive study of their methods, they are able to make you think of him as a scandal-monger--"half malicious and half insane," as one of them phrased it.

IT MEANS

That they are able to influence the officials of your public library to have his book declared "indecent" and unfit for circulation.

And concerning all this mass of information, charging and proving each crime against the public health, not one single newspaper in Chicago has said one word to say...

Social Conditions of Packingtown.

The history of the rise and fall of a nation is told in the history of the cities in which it lives. The cities are the national workshops of the people and the first sign of the national decline is the decline of the cities.

In the history of the
stand out in the national annals.

Cities of the People.

Packingtown, Illinois,
and the Packingtown
workers, are the

Organized Labor in Politics.

Labor Leaders Snubbed by Old Party Politicians. Less Than a Dozen Congressmen and Senators Pledge Themselves to Support the Eight-Hour Bill. Roll Call and File Looking Toward Socialism.

Organized labor is going into politics. This is the conclusion of the Chicago Federation of Labor. The Chicago Socialist has been informed by a reliable source that a large number of the congressmen and senators who have been associated with labor organizations from the beginning of their careers are now in politics.

A Very Exceptional Suit for $10

Exceptional in every way. In style, fit and material. Made to hang generously from the shoulders, in the new length of coat—but not extreme. A fashionable fullness in the cut makes a very nobby appearance. The assortment is large—in Cheviots, Thibets, Serges, and fancy mixtures. The most attractive patterns shown this season. The choice is yours at the sharply reduced price of $10.
