The Fall Campaign in Full Swing.

From all the signs looking backward and forward, the indications are that the socialist movement is in for one of its most hazardous and important battles. The press and the public will be kept well informed during the next few months, and the various organizations will be active in helping the movement.

The political situation is such that the socialists must make a stand in the coming fall campaign. The working class is faced with a choice between two parties, the Democratic and the Republican, both of which are controlled by the capitalist class.

The Socialist Party is the only party that stands for the interests of the working class. It is the only party that stands for the abolition of private property and the distribution of the means of production and distribution of life. It is the only party that stands for the unity of the working class.

The Socialist Party is the only party that stands for the abolition of the state. It is the only party that stands for the abolition of the police and the army. It is the only party that stands for the abolition of all forms of coercion.

The Socialist Party is the only party that stands for the unity of the working class. It is the only party that stands for the unity of the workers of all countries. It is the only party that stands for the unity of the workers of all races.

The Socialist Party is the only party that stands for the unity of the working class. It is the only party that stands for the unity of the workers of all countries. It is the only party that stands for the unity of the workers of all races.

THE CHICAGO SOCIALIST, SEPTEMBER 15, 1908.

THE MAIN ELECTION.

The weight of the election is, in the main, decided by the cities, and the cities, when they are in the hands of the working class, will insist on the workers' demands being carried out. The people are in the hands of the working class, and the working class will insist on the workers' demands being carried out.

DARROW ON UNIONS AND JUDGES.

The speech of Mr. Darrow, the chief counsel for the plaintiffs in the Case of International Harvester Co. v. Mulligan et al., was at once a great popular success. He spoke in the courthouse, and the audience was composed of workingmen, laborers, mechanics, and other men of the working class.

AN OLD STORY AND A MODERN PARALLEL.

The following is a fragment from the speech of the late Mr. Darrow, a noted American lawyer, who was the plaintiff in the Case of International Harvester Co. v. Mulligan et al., which was decided by the United States Supreme Court.
