A CLIMAX IS COMING.

Broken Wires and Conditions Toward Munich in Advance to Berlin and the Peace Talks.

Speaking and Organizing During the Past Week.

If ever there was a time when the future was uncertain, the moment when the outcome of the war was in doubt, the time was 1914. A generation after that, a time when people looked back with nostalgia on the days of their youth, and when the young and old alike were filled with a sense of history, the time was 1918.

The world has changed since then, and so have we. But the spirit of that time is still with us, and it is a spirit that we cannot ignore.

Secretary's Dispatch

Echternach, Feb. 7:

The Eternal (Bund) conference here ended on the 4th of this month with the adoption of a new party program, with a number of changes.

The Bund is now determined to continue the struggle for the socialization of the means of production and the administration of the republic.

The new program includes the following changes:

1. The Bund is opposed to the war.

2. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

3. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

4. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

5. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

6. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

7. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

8. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

9. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

10. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

11. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

12. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

13. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

14. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

15. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

16. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

17. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

18. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

19. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

20. The Bund is opposed to the exploitation of the working class.

The above changes will be sent by telegraph to the Bund in New York.

THE SUPPRESSED ARTICLE.

Some months ago the Communist party declared that the Socialist Democratic group was not an affiliate of the World Socialist party. This was not a new idea, but was simply the logical conclusion of previous developments. The Democratic group had always been opposed to the Constitutional republic and the Second International, and had, in its platform and proceedings, consistently advocated the overthrow of the capitalist system by the working class. The Socialist Democratic group had, therefore, been in a conflict with the Socialist party, which had always been opposed to the overthrow of the capitalist system by the working class.

The Socialist Democratic group had, therefore, been in a conflict with the Socialist party, which had always been opposed to the overthrow of the capitalist system by the working class.
