TRUE VIEW OF LAST ARMOUR SLAUGHTER

Human Beings Die Because Great Packer Did Not Warn Them

This is very truly intimated in the official report of the coroner's inquest, held in Packer's slaughterhouse, on Monday, January 27, 1907. The coroner's jury, in his report, gives the following facts:

1. The factory was not properly equipped with safety devices.
2. The factory was not properly supervised.
3. The factory was not properly maintained.
4. The factory was not properly staffed.

The coroner's jury, in their report, state that the factory was not properly equipped with safety devices, and that the factory was not properly supervised, and that the factory was not properly maintained, and that the factory was not properly staffed.

That Defeat of Socialism

A few days ago the tables were loaded with materials telling of the “defeat of Socialism” in Germany. Every daily paper, except one, from one end of the country to the other announced in frontearing headlines that Socialism was “crushed,” “interdicted,” “wiped out,” “destroyed,” “had its progress checked,” etc.

Some of the leading politicians and statesmen, who have written in learned periodicals and progressive newspapers, philosophizing on the “reasons for” and the “necessity of” the “defeat of” Socialism, will probably find that some months hence there will be discussions and newspaper columns of obituary and eulogy, whereas the German Socialists were “defeated.”

So thoroughly will this idea be accepted in the public mind that for months to come their society will continue to be known as the “defeated Socialists.”

The “defeat of Socialism” is not complete, of course, because one or two Socialists are not quite dead yet. And although the Socialists are “defeated,” it is not at all likely that Socialism will be overthrown or its influence entirely destroyed.

The defeat of Socialism is the defeat of a party. That defeat will not mean the destruction of Socialism. It is a defeat of the German Socialists. The Socialists, as such, are not defeated. The Socialists of Germany are not defeated. The Socialists of the world are not defeated.

Waving the Red Flag

In a recent paper (Das Einheitsblatt für die Arbeiterbewegung) the question was raised as to whether the Socialist party in Germany had, in the wake of the “defeat,” the right to carry the red flag. It was stated that the Socialist party should not wave the red flag, because the “defeat” must mean that the Socialists have lost the privileges of their party. Labor, it was said, should not try to establish its own political party, but should work for the welfare of the whole nation, and for the benefit of all the people.

The “defeat” of Socialism does not mean that the Socialists have lost the right to carry the red flag. It means that the Socialists have lost the right to assert their political sovereignty, and that, for the time being, they must stand aside and let the nation be guided by the governments which are maintained by the bourgeoisie.

The Socialists are not defeated. The Socialists of Germany are not defeated. The Socialists of the world are not defeated.

Socialist victory in the Fatheland

Socialist victory in the Fatheland referred to in the Chicago Daily Socialist (February 16, 1907) means the victory of the Socialists in the Fatheland, and not the defeat of Socialism. This is to say, the victory of the party which is in the majority in any one of the Fathelands, and not the defeat of Socialism in any one of the Fathelands.

The Socialist party in Germany is not defeated, and the Socialists of Germany are not defeated. The Socialists of the world are not defeated.

Socialist scientific literature

The following list of books mark the appearance of the monthly bulletin of the “Socialist Scientific Literature,” which is published by the “Socialist Book Exchange” of Chicago, and which is devoted to the publication of books and periodicals on socialism, social questions, and social and political economy.

The Referendum

The referendum has just been held. It was the greatest, the most important, and the longest in the history of the franchise. The franchise, however, seems to have been frustrated in its efforts to throw the blame on the streets. No one can deny that the Socialists did not work hard, but to no avail. The question is not whether Socialism was less than an 80 percent majority, but only whether it was less than a majority. The Socialists, however, believe that a majority of the voters will still vote "Yes" on the "little ball" and "No" on the big ball. If they do, they will vote "yes". This ought to be a clear proposal. It is hard to believe that there is anyone on earth who would work for this. But we must recognize the fact.

On two previous occasions, the voters of Chicago have decided by an overwhelming majority that they were opposed to private ownership of the franchise. The first time, a majority of the voters declared that they wanted a political party that was based on private ownership to carry out this policy. No one has been opposed to this. We are now, as we were in the past, more than ever a party that is devoted to working class interests.

THE REFERENDUM ON MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP AT ALL IT WILL BE

The Socialists have a long history of opposing the idea of private ownership of the franchise. This is not a question of whether or not private ownership is desirable, but whether or not it is desirable. It is a question of whether or not private ownership is desirable. The Socialists, however, believe that it is not desirable. They have always opposed it. There is no question about it.

THE ONLY WAY TO VOTE "NO" ON THE LARGE BALLOT IS TO VOTE "NO" ON THE SMALL BALLOT OF THE SOCIALIST COLUMN

The Socialists have always been in favor of the right to vote "No" on the franchise. They do not believe in private ownership. They believe that the people should have the right to vote "No". They believe that the people should have the right to vote "No" on the franchise. They believe that the people should have the right to vote "No" on the franchise.
