EMPLOYERS FAIL TO MAKE STRIKE A CRIME
Shen and Other Labor Leaders Acquired by Jury in Short Time

A jury has returned the verdict of guilty in the case of Shen and other labor leaders, who were charged with having made an unlawful combination to injure and ruin the businesses of certain employers. The judgment will have the effect of causing them to go to jail, and it is feared that it will have the effect of seriously hindering the progress of labor organizations.

MAGNETIC MEET WITH THE MONEY MERCENARIES

A large meeting was held at the Auditorium last night, at which the magnetic meeting with the money men was discussed. The speaker of the evening was a prominent labor leader, who delivered a brilliant speech, in which he spoke of the dangers which faced the working class in the present day, and of the necessity for unity and combined action. He also spoke of the need for education among the working class, and of the importance of the trade union movement.

A Letter and Reply

CHICAGO, Feb. 13, 1907.

Mr. Ives, Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Ives' family the other night was taken to the theater by their friends. They were all enjoying themselves very much. I'm sorry to hear that they were bothered by the noise. I hope they managed to have a good time.

Yours truly,

R. E. DUNCAN

February 17, 1907.

Mr. DUNCAN,

Chicago, Ill.

I was sorry to hear that your family was disturbed by the noise. It seems to be a common problem. I hope you managed to have a good time anyway.

Yours truly,

Mr. Ives

WOERNER DISCUSSES
POLITICS WITH BANKER
Both are in Jail—One for Giving Money to Poor and the Other for Sterling

Without a sound of the great pounding of the wheels that mark the approach of a storm, and without a roar of wind, the storm is on the Atlantic Ocean. It is the storm of prosperity. It is the storm of bank failures and foreclosures. It is the storm of the end of a stage of our history.

The savings of the little people are being washed away. The capitalization of the depositors is being used to pay the interest of the corporations. The banks are being drained of their resources. The manufacturing interests are being built up at the expense of the farmers. The railroads are being built up at the expense of the towns. The insurance companies are being built up at the expense of the people.

In the midst of this storm, two men are being held in jail. One is a banker, the other is a banker. But their positions are well known.

The banker is the one who has been charged with bankruptcy. He is the one who has been charged
to pay the interest of the corporations. He is the one who has been charged
banks. The banker is the one who has been charged
insurers. The banker is the
railroads. The banker is the one who has been charged
to pay the interest of the
manufacturers.

The other banker is the one who has been charged with
to pay the interest of the towns. He is the one who has been charged
to pay the interest of the farmers. He is the one who has been charged
to pay the interest of the insurance companies. He is the one who has been charged
to pay the interest of the railroads. He is the one who has been charged
to pay the interest of the
manufacturers.

The two men are in jail, but their positions are well known. One is bankrupt, the other is bankrupt. Both are bankrupt.

What Socialists Want

We are commonly asked to explain the philosophy of Socialism in a few short words that can be read in a few minutes and easily remembered.

This is impossible. Socialism is an elaborate system of thought that pervades every phase of human life. It is the outcome of tens of thousands of years. All men are not bound to pass over these phalanxes of Socialism, and still less will they forget its lessons.

The principle of Socialism is that there is a point in men's lives when they can no longer live in society. They have to live apart. It is the same principle that binds all men together. The first idea of Socialism is to create a commonwealth, a commonwealth in which all men are of equal birth, and in which all men are of equal birth. It is the principle of Socialism.

The end of the costly speee.

The Socialism party is seeking to accomplish.

Trade Unions and Politics

For the last year the leaders of Chicago have been actively engaged in a strike of the workers of the world. They are ready to make a contract with the capitalists, and they are ready to make a contract with the world. They are ready to make a contract with the workers of the world. They are ready to make a contract with the workers of the world. They are ready to make a contract with the workers of the world.

Socialism and Women

In the United States at this very moment there are women who are working for the betterment of the world. They are working for the betterment of the world. They are working for the betterment of the world. They are working for the betterment of the world. They are working for the betterment of the world.

Turn On the Light

A deed of darkness is being attempted in the West. It begins with a midnight kidnapping, and it is proposed to go on murder.

This is a terrible moment, and it is a moment of darkness. It is a moment of darkness. It is a moment of darkness. It is a moment of darkness. It is a moment of darkness.

Now and Forever

As our picture comes to the East, we see a world up in arms. It is a world up in arms. It is a world up in arms. It is a world up in arms. It is a world up in arms.
