ETHICS OF SOCIALISM

by Mrs. May Wood Simons

Since the General Council decided upon policy, it has been generally understood that the Christian Socialist will support the Socialists in their actions. The Christian Socialist, through his teachings, has been the avowed champion of social justice, and has made it his aim to bring about a state of affairs in which all can share equally in the benefits of the social order. The Christian Socialist believes in the equality of all men, and he is therefore opposed to the existing social order, which is based upon the idea of a superior and a subordinate class. He believes that all men are entitled to an equal share in the benefits of society, and he is therefore opposed to the existing social order, which is based upon the idea of a superior and a subordinate class. Minneapolis, Minn., July 10, 1896.-Workers in the Iron-Mines of Minnesota have given notice to their employers to be prepared for a strike on the 1st of August. They also demand the abolition of the system of piece-work, which they say is unjust. The meeting was well attended, and the men were determined to stand firm in their demands.
