NEWSS FROM NEBRASKA

The women of Lincoln are going out Jenny Lind Union for an organization all its own, called the "Women's Employment and Welfare Bureau." Mrs. Morey, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Tompkins are the principal Secretaries and the finger tongues, respectively. A dinner will be given in the fall to the women of the city who are willing to study the details.

The women of Lincoln plan to hold a meeting in the fall to discuss the details of the organization. The women are determined to make this organization successful and they are working hard to achieve their goal.

K.C. SOCIALISTS GO TO PRISON

Browder Brothers and five other active comrades leave Thursday night for West Virginia.

The Workmen's World and the Socialist movement of the middle West suffers a heavy blow this week by the arrest of eight of our most active and devoted comrades, including the entire editorial staff of the paper. Earl Browder, Editor, Will Browder, Business Manager; Ralph Browder, Bob Sullivan, Harry Doyle, Edward Bagnon, O. E. Means, and Elie Lefevre must leave Monday, July 14th to commence a two year term in the federal prison. Their defense consisted of open opposition to censorship when the draft first went into effect and a consistent opposition from the first to the principles of International Socialism. Earl and Will Browder, together with Sullivan have already served a year sentence for refusal to register. Upon the expiration of this sentence last fall, they plunged into greater and greater in the task of building up the Socialist movement. The Workmen's World is, in large measure, the result of their work.

Under the inspiration of their heroism, we appeal to the whole Socialist movement to take up a spirit of courage and chivalry in the face of the requirements of this period of world revolution. We call on the Socialists of the world to work for the release of those comrades, who are making for our cause and of the best fighters they have given to the Kansas City movement.

We will take up the banner where they drop it at the prison gates and bear in the face of the foe every糧. With this banner— which we will never allow to be discredited—our men, who is the message of International Socialism, shall be carried to every increasing number of Socialists. Remembering our obligation to these noble comrades and to the thousands of others who suffer today in the jails and prisons of this country, we will not fail or stop to count the cost.

Our movement will not be discredited by this persecution. It will be the more firmly together. We appeal to those who would overcome Socialism with terrorism will be more members for the Socialist Party and more readers for the Workmen's World.

INTERNATIONAL STRIKE TO HALT WAR ON SOVIETS

By Paul Waller Motion

WASHINGTON, July 5.—The delegates of Moscow, Paris, and St. Petersburg have agreed to convene a second大会 of all those who have been active in the Red movement. The government is involved in a conspiracy of world importance. This move is simply an answer to the demands of the American workers. It is understood that the delegates have been given the opportunity to work without the Free Speech laws, to suppress literature, and to support the Red cause.

YANKS TELL OF MUTINY

True story of the revolt of Arachnegele arrives America with Arrival of the American Troops.

"We wanted to know why we were fighting." A simple direct question put by the men of the 839th Infantry, fighting the bleak arctic of Alaska, to their superiors, bringing an unanswerable, equivocal response, famed the growing flames of discontent among the troopers and led to the famous mutiny in Company C.

These are the outlines of the story brought back by some of the officers and men of the regiment. The men were preparing to break camp at Camp Merritt, N. J., and to discharge their weapons at the sailors of the Roebuck during a period of seven days, July 25th of this year. Officers of the regiment, when assembled at a meeting in the San Francisco hotel, declared that the mutiny had been a "dynamite movement." The 839th was then sent to the Far East.

"When we reached Arachnegele we discovered that the order to mutiny was called upon to order could not have been made more of our regimentary army troops."

The men were disarmed, the MUTINY said. Their food for several days had not been adequate, and they had to abandon their tents and go into the forest for shelter. A number of the men were shot. The order to discharge was instantly executed, and the men discovered they had been ordered to fire on the ships. It was then discovered that they had been ordered to fire on the ships. It is now discovered that they had been ordered to fire on the ships.

The mutiny was caused by the fact that the men were not being fed properly, that they were not being paid properly, and that they were not being treated properly. The men were not being fed properly, that they were not being paid properly, and that they were not being treated properly. The men were not being fed properly, that they were not being paid properly, and that they were not being treated properly. The men were not being fed properly, that they were not being paid properly, and that they were not being treated properly.

STRIKING FOR MOONEY

Big revolts of the rank and file may presage shake-up in the Truman Administration

Despite the desperate efforts of the Truman Administration to labor movement to throttle the Mooney protest, the strikers are more united and more determined than ever. The rank and file has kicked over the traces and is showing a spirit and a solidarity heretofore unknown in American Conservatives. Enquiries, based on information from reliable sources, place the number of strikers at one half million. The actual figures are not yet obtained as the effort has been made by the Capital News media agencies to suppress accounts of the demonstrations and to minimize the numbers of workers taking part.

For the first time in American labor history, the workers are boycotting their employers in order to force the government to agree to their demands. The two sides are locked in a struggle that will determine the future of American industrial relations. The workers have shown a determination to win their demands, and the government is forced to face up to the challenge they present.

MANIFESTO AND PROGRAM OF THE LEFT WING

The Left Wing Program is inspired by the slogan of the Congress of the International: "One World—One People—One Union!"

1. The present is the period of the crisis of the world capitalist system, its moral, political and economic instability, and its inability to meet the needs of mankind.
2. The Left Wing is the vanguard of the world socialist movement, its vanguard because it is the vanguard of the world socialist movement.
3. The Left Wing is the vanguard of the world socialist movement, its vanguard because it is the vanguard of the world socialist movement.

U.S. DRIFTS RAPIDLY TOWARD "HARD TIMES" AS WAR'S AFTERMATH

WASHINGTON, July 4—The United States is heading toward a depression that is likely to be the worst in its history. The unemployment rate is expected to reach a record high, and the price of food and other necessities will rise sharply. The government is failing to take any effective steps to prevent the situation from worsening.

The main problems that the government faces are: (1) the need to increase the money supply, (2) the need to raise taxes, and (3) the need to increase government spending. The government is not taking any effective steps to solve these problems. The result is that the situation is getting worse and worse.

A good way to stop the depression would be to increase the money supply. The government could do this by printing more money. This would make it easier for people to buy things, which would help to get the economy started again.

The government is also failing to increase taxes. This is because it does not want to increase taxes on the rich people who are already paying taxes. The government should increase taxes on the rich people and use the money to provide jobs for the poor people. This would help to get the economy started again.

The government is also failing to increase government spending. The government should spend more money on things like roads, hospitals, and schools. This would help to get the economy started again.

In conclusion, the government is failing to take any effective steps to prevent the depression from worsening. The result is that the situation is getting worse and worse. The government should increase the money supply, increase taxes, and increase government spending in order to get the economy started again.
