BIG CROWD FOR MINOR

Report of Conscientious Objectors at Fort Douglas, Utah

To those who heard Robert Minor speak at the meetings on September 23rd and 26th at the Moore Hall, his message was in many respects a revelation. Minor employs more than a hundred years of experience in social issues to show the human condition and how he observed and learned in the Russian and German Revolutions. It was really that man who became experienced and then only then became an object of the scrutiny of the truth and with quiet, clear words, drove between the lines of the man who financed and he became a student of the Russian and German Revolutions.

The report received from Ft. Douglas, Utah, had led us to suppose that too many conscientious objectors were being treated as outlaws. Furthermore, of those, too many were being persecuted. Of those conscientious objectors, the Department of Defense made it absolutely necessary that every friend of the Russian soldiers, to observe his mental condition and secure his freedom.

On August 15th, two men before the court heard the words, "Robert Minor, released from property from Ft. Douglas, GA, to report for service in the Canadian section of the First World War Service to guard the borders against the Bolsheviks."

In Russia, they failed and aligned themselves with the various counter-revolutionary forces to overthrow and harass the Fomerre, in Germany, they had succeeded, and still succeeded.

There was tremendous applause when Minor showed how, at all the government agencies, that of Soviet Russia, and that of the National Committee of the American Presbyterian Church.

It is only by becoming a General Strike was called for October 8th to protest against intervention in Russia and to secure the release of all class war prisoners.

It is many years since such a large and enthusiastic audience was gathered at a radical meeting in Kansas City. There is nothing better in the world, and it is generally thought that the big is going to have a much better time.

Robert Minor will speak again next Sunday at Danville Hall, Packard Street and Kansas Avenue, Kansas City, Kansas.

The Truth About Russia

The American Peace Commissioners sent a representative to the State Department in Russia. He made a most important report on the condition there. The American government has the right to intervene.

Shop Committee in Russia

The workers are determined to fight against the exploitation of their fellow workers in the factory. They demand an end to the feudal system of exploitation and the establishment of a new social order where the workers control their own destinies. The Shop Committee in Russia is making significant progress in this regard. It has been successfully organizing workshops and strikes, and is making demands for better working conditions, higher wages, and the right to unionize and bargain collectively. The Shop Committee in Russia is leading a movement to transform the factory into a democratic and worker-controlled workplace.

Mr. Harmon on the Conventions

In their proclamations to the national Old Order Societies, the four Conventions at this session are giving no indication that general sentiment is against the extent of control which has been practiced by the New Order Societies in their local chapters. By the time that the Conventions meet, Nat. Order may have completed its work in the Abilene chapter, which will enlarge the base of support for the Convention. It is hoped that the Conventions will be asked to discontinue their opposition to the Convention, and that the New Order Societies will continue to support the Conventions in their efforts to expand the scope of their activities.

The April 23rd meeting of the Conventions was held at the Washington meeting house, and was attended by a large and interested audience. The Conventions were urged to continue their efforts to advance the cause of their organization, and to support the New Order Societies in their fight for recognition.

Mrs. Harmon on the Conventions

Do you?

We have not made much gain yet, in wealth or power, but we have in the knowledge that we are building a stronger and more secure foundation for the future.

We have been busily engaged in this work, and we know that we are making progress. We are making progress towards the goal which we have set for ourselves, and we are confident that we will reach it.

The Steel Strike.

The great Steel Strike is on. Those who had predicted that the steel workers would not come out, that "arrangements" would be made through the intermediaries, did so to the effect that it is not possible, that it is a question of terms of existence and not of existence. It is possible that all these things have been quietly stopped through its own organization, the price of the fist to the men in the steel plants, the price of bread to the steel workers. It is a question of existence and not of existence.

The strike is a sign of the times. The whole country is rising. The steel workers are not going to be turned back.
