MILLIONS GRAFTED FROM GOVERNMENT IN HUGE VETERANS’ BUREAU SCANDAL, U. S. SENATE INVESTIGATIONS SHOW

BY CHARLES WATTER. (Addressed to “The Young Worker”)

WASHINGTON—Petty officials in the Veterans Administration have been grafting heavily from the government in the past, according to a recent investigation

The bureau has been flourishing, according to high officials in Washington, and a number of the division heads have been making a tidy profit from the sale of government property at a fraction of the cost. The bureau has also been paying high salaries to men who have never served in the army, and who have been promoted on the basis of their political affiliations.

The bureau is also responsible for the sale of veterans’ homes at a fraction of the cost. The bureau has also been paying high salaries to men who have never served in the army, and who have been promoted on the basis of their political affiliations.

Unions Still Discriminate Against Youth

Call Conference to Unite Working-class Sport Organizations

By JOSEPH NARBECK

"The conference was "Discriminated at" by the great American unions of the world. It took place in a small room in a working-class club of the Far East. It was called by the Communist League of Labor America and was attended by 200 delegates from 10 different countries.

Mr. Narbeck, the speaker of the meeting, said: "We are gathered here today to form a new organization which will unite all working-class sport organizations in the world. Our goal is to fight against discrimination in all its forms."

Seventy-Two Days of Working Class Power: The Paris Commune of 1871

By HARRY GANNES

"The Commune was "Unnatural" because of the nature of the French Revolution itself. It was a revolt of the people against the government. It was a movement for the liberation of the working class from capitalism and exploitation."

Chicago League Celebrates Commune: Engaged, Minor, Skahman, to be Speakers

"The 100th anniversary of the Commune has been observed with great enthusiasm in Chicago by the workers of the city. The Chicago Federation of Labor held a meeting in the Grand Opera House on Thursday, February 25th, to honor the memory of the heroes who fell in the struggle for freedom."

Fate of Young Workers League

Members Depend on Outcome of the Rubenstein Case Appeal

Whether or not Charles Erckson, G. A. Schamberg, "Bud" Brindley, Ralf Sechak, and other active members of the Young Workers League were put to trial in the recent years of the organization, the outcome of the appeal presents a crucial issue for the future of the league. The appeal, now pending before the Minnesota Supreme Court, is a test case that will determine whether the league will continue to exist.

C. E. Rubenstein, executive secretary of the Workers Party of America, was accused of violating the league's constitution, in the summer of 1933, when it was discovered that he had paid $1,000 to a labor union officer. The league, acting under the leadership of C. E. Rubenstein, denied the charges and filed a case in the courts.

As a result of the appeal, the league has been forced to suspend its activities. The leaders of the league were arrested, and the organization was dissolved. The case is now before the Minnesota Supreme Court, and the outcome will determine whether the league will continue to exist.

This is a critical moment for the league, as the courts will decide whether the league's actions were in accordance with the constitution and laws of the country. The outcome of the appeal will have a significant impact on the future of the league and the lives of its members.

FIVE YEARS OF THE COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL

By MARSH

The 10th anniversary of the formation of the Communist International is now being celebrated in all the centres of the earth. The Comintern has done more in five years of revolutionary existence than in all the previous years of world-wide socialist struggle. It is the greatest organization of the world's workers since the May Day movement of 1919.

What has the Communist International done for the international work of the workers and peasants? In the first place, it has furthered the worldwide spread of the revolutionary ideals of the working class. The Comintern has organized and given powerful support to all struggles for national independence and for workers' rights. It has furthered the worldwide spread of the revolutionary ideals of the working class. The Comintern has organized and given powerful support to all struggles for national independence and for workers' rights.

The Youth in the Fight

It is true that the Comintern has not yet accomplished as much as it might have accomplished if it had not been for the war and the world crisis. The Comintern in its five years of existence has already accomplished more than any other organization of the world's workers. It has accomplished more in a single year than any other organization of the world's workers. It has accomplished more in a single year than any other organization of the world's workers.
