FARMER-LABOR PARTY ON JUNE 17

By MARTIN ABERN, Executive Secretary, Young Workers League

The Young Woman Workers of the United States expect the farmer-labor convention in St. Paul, June 17, to go on record as an epoch-making event in the political and economic history of the nation. If so, the delegates will be fulfilling the words of the late A. J. Holmer, one of the founders of the Western Electric Company, who declared: "The hour of revolution has struck."

The Young Woman Workers of the United States, organized in 1917 as the Young Woman Workers of the United States, is one of the most powerful and influential labor organizations in the country. It has over 500,000 members and is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations.

The Young Woman Workers League is a branch of the Young Woman Workers of the United States, and is dedicated to the goal of organizing all women workers into unions that will fight for higher wages, shorter hours, better working conditions, and an end to discrimination.

The Young Woman Workers League has been active in a number of campaigns, including the fight for women's suffrage, the fight against child labor, and the fight for better working conditions for women in the workplace.

The Young Woman Workers League is a member of the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations, and is affiliated with the International Ladies Garment Workers Union, the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, and the United Auto Workers.

The Young Woman Workers League has a strong track record of success in organizing women workers, and has helped to improve the lives of millions of women across the country.

The Young Woman Workers League is led by a national executive board, which is elected by the members of the organization. The board is responsible for setting policy, developing programs, and implementing the goals of the organization.

The Young Woman Workers League is committed to the principles of democracy, equality, and social justice, and is dedicated to building a better world for all women.

Ex-Militarists Seeing Thru Bancombe

ALBANY, N. Y. — Another effort of the government to pacify the ex-militarists was noted yesterday when the government was voted three bills at the state convention by the New York Metropolitan Council for the benefit of the veterans of the First World War. The bills are: an appropriation of $1,000,000 for the construction of a new building at the State University at Albany; an appropriation of $200,000 for the maintenance of the Veterans' Hospital at Montauk Point, Long Island; and an appropriation of $100,000 for the maintenance of the Veterans' Hospital at Saratoga Springs.

What Can We Do During the Summer?

By Max Salzman

This summer, at the very time that we are fighting for our rights, we are also fighting for the rights of others. We are fighting for the rights of the workers, and we are fighting for the rights of the soldiers. We are fighting for the rights of the children, and we are fighting for the rights of the veterans. We are fighting for the rights of all people, and we are fighting for the rights of all races.

THE FOURTH CONGRESS OF THE Y. C. I.

By HARRY GANNES

YOUNG rebels from all parts of the United States are now coming together to defend and uphold their rights and to organize the world-wide struggle of the world's working class for the establishment of a world-wide socialist society. These are the words of the Y. C. I. which has recently convened a conference at New York City to discuss the most important issues of the day. The Y. C. I. is the oldest and largest socialist organization in the United States and its members are preparing for the most important period of the world struggle for socialism.

Leadership in the Y. C. I.

The Y. C. I. is a revolutionary socialist organization. It believes in the immediate and permanent overthrow of the capitalist system and the establishment of a socialist society. The Y. C. I. is not a reformist organization. It is a party of revolutionaries who are prepared to take the necessary steps to bring about the socialist revolution.

The Y. C. I. is a democratic organization. It is open to all who are in agreement with its program and its principles. The Y. C. I. is a student organization. It is made up of young people who are dedicated to the struggle for socialism.

The Y. C. I. is a socialist organization. It believes in the democratic and socialist transformation of society. The Y. C. I. is not a political party. It is an organization of the young who are dedicated to the struggle for socialism.

Looking Backward by Oliver Carlson

Two Objects of the C. M. T. C.

T h e young worker and the old soldier have a common interest in the C. M. T. C. Their programs have long been working toward the same end; the establishment of a just and lasting peace. The two organizations have been working together for years, and their efforts have been coordinated to achieve this goal. The C. M. T. C. is a federation of local councils, each of which is made up of young workers and old soldiers.

As Others See It

T he United States is one of the most powerful countries in the world. It is a country that is rich in resources, and has a strong economy. However, there are many people who believe that the United States is not doing enough to help those who are less fortunate. These people believe that the United States should be doing more to help the poor, and that the government should be doing more to ensure that everyone has equal access to resources.

SPEED UP ON THE BABY INDUSTRY, IS THE CALL OF FRENCH PATRIOTS

BEEF—Nothing but the best will do. This is the cry of patriots all over France. They want their milk, their eggs, their butter, their cheese, and their bread to be of the highest quality. They do not want to eat food that is not fresh, and they want to be sure that their food is not polluted.

BOY-BEATING SCHOOLMASTERS

LANSING, Mich.—Fourteen boys were whipped by their teachers in a school in Lansing, Michigan. The boys had been whipped because they had not been doing their homework. The teachers said that they had been doing their best to help the boys, but that they had not been doing their homework. The boys said that they had been doing their homework, but that the teachers had not been helping them.

WE ARE ALWAYS READY! Cry of Russian children in Lenin Oath

R U S S I A, Apr. 27—Russian children are calling for peace. They are calling for peace for their country, and for peace for the world. They are calling for peace because they believe that peace is the only way to make the world a better place. They are calling for peace because they believe that peace is the only way to stop the fighting and the killing.

IMPROVING

A ll courses are offered in the National Executive Committee of the Young Worker. The courses are designed to improve the skills of the young worker, and to help them become better workers.
