Morgan's Hand Rules
Military Training Camps

By John E. Morgan

CAMP BUTLER, BATTLE CREEK, Mich.—From a careful investigation of the Military Training Camps, it is stated that the entire effort to mobilize the workers of this country in preparation for another war is being conducted primarily in the interests of the capitalist class. The training camps are designed to prepare the workers for the defense of the empire and to keep them in a state of preparedness. The workers are forced to submit to military discipline and are deprived of their basic rights.

Fires Wage Cut

BY OLIVER CASTRO

The workers are organized to work in the interest of the capitalists. The capitalists have complete control over the workers, and the workers are forced to accept the conditions imposed by the capitalists. The working conditions are extremely harsh, and the workers are subjected to constant exploitation.

Rally to International Youth Day, is the call now being heard all over the country in the ranks of the revolutionary youth. Under the direction of the Young Worker League of America, American section of the Young Communist International, the masses of the youth are being mobilized for the defense of the working class and the working youth of the world. The Young Workers League of America is calling for a demonstration against imperialism on the 10th anniversary of the International Youth Day.

The 10th anniversary, the Young Workers League of America will celebrate with a demonstration against imperialism.

Militarizing the United States

NEW YORK—The Young Worker League of New York is distributing this new issue of their Bulletin titled "The Young Worker". The Bulletin is available at local offices of the League, which was founded in 1919, and is distributed by the Union of Young Workers. The Bulletin contains articles on current events, labor problems, and educational matters of interest to young workers. The League is a national organization that aims to provide information and resources to help young workers become more involved in political and social movements. Its goal is to promote collective action and solidarity among workers and their communities. The Bulletin covers a range of topics, including labor rights, social justice, and economic justice. The articles are written by League members, as well as guest authors who share their perspectives on these issues. The Bulletin is an important resource for young workers who are looking to gain a deeper understanding of the challenges facing them and to connect with others who are working towards a better future. The Bulletin is available online and can be downloaded for free. The League encourages all young workers to join and support their efforts in building a stronger, more equitable society.

Workers' Children Are
Out of Luck

When the city authorities Charge a board engaged in the provision of money for nothing of the value of $50,000 that buildings bars will open for the reception of all the children of the working classes who need them, it is a shortlived increase of the number of children.

Never Again War!

The means to prevent your invasion is your own, all the men and women of the world. The people of every nation, every class, are seeking the way to liberty and happiness.

NEVER AGAIN WAR!

The dream has become your reality, and your dream will always be your reality. And we shall not forget.

What does it mean? Your dream is your reality, your reality is your dream. And we shall not forget.

War Again?

The people that never again will accept war. And we shall not forget.

My Flight From Siberia

By Leon Trotsky

A month before I left Japan, the Japanese government demanded my extradition to the Russians. On December 19, 1921, the Japanese
Ministry of Foreign Affairs received a note from the Russian diplomatic representative, demanding my extradition. The Japanese government rejected the demand and refused to cooperate in the extradition proceedings.

Our flight to Japan was organized under the auspices of the Japanese government, which had been impressed by the tale of the brave everyday man who had faced the oppression of his countrymen.

On the night of December 23rd, we left for Japan from the Russian embassy in Cairo.

We arrived in Japan
on December 27th, 1921.

The Fourth World Congress

The Fourth World Congress was held in London in 1928. The Congress was attended by delegates from various countries, including the United States, Canada, and the Soviet Union. The main topic of the Congress was the development of a worldwide socialist movement. The Congress also discussed the need for international solidarity and cooperation between the workers of different countries. The chairman of the Congress was John Maclean, who was a prominent socialist and trade union leader. The Congress adopted a number of resolutions, including a call for the formation of a Socialist International to unite the workers of the world. The Congress was a significant event in the history of the socialist movement, marking a step towards the development of a worldwide socialist coalition. The Congress also had a significant impact on the development of trade unionism, as it emphasized the need for international solidarity among workers.
