CHILD SLAVERY SHOWN IN TEXAS

EDUCATION OF CHILDREN HAS SECOND PLACE

Work Fourteen Hours on Cotton Plantations

WASHINGTON. — Conditions of child labor in the cotton-growing areas of the state of Texas have been revealed in a report made by the Federal Child Labor Commission. The report indicates that the conditions are similar to those in other states where child labor is prevalent.

Whole World Is Arming for the Next War

Berlin—European nations are secretly developing arms, military observers revealed. A European naval arms race has started, and the British and French are said to be building their warships faster than any other nation. The arms race is said to be of great concern to Berlin, which is reported to be preparing for war.

THE YOUNG WORKER

An Organ of the Militant Young Workers

Vol. III. No. 19.
CHICAGO, ILL., OCTOBER 1, 1934

PRICE 5 CENTS

LEAGUE DRIVE ON DISCOURTEOUS COMPANY SPREADS

Y.C.I. IN CALL FOR MILITANT WAR ON WAR

Must Unite Against New Slaughter

We must continue to fight the second and last battle of the world, of the workers and workers' councils to the end in order to keep up the struggle for the defense of the working class. The struggle is on for the defense of the workers' rights, the right to work, the right to food, the right to shelter, the right to education, the right to play, and the right to live. The struggle is on for the defense of the workers' rights. The struggle is on for the defense of the workers' rights. The struggle is on for the defense of the workers' rights. The struggle is on for the defense of the workers' rights. The struggle is on for the defense of the workers' rights.

CHANGHAI, China—The Chinese civil war is no longer a war between the Kuomintang and the Communists, but a war between the Kuomintang and the population. The Kuomintang is fighting for control of the Chinese people, and the Communists are fighting for the rights of the Chinese people. The Kuomintang is fighting for the interests of the wealthy, and the Communists are fighting for the interests of the poor. The Kuomintang is fighting for the interests of the landlords, and the Communists are fighting for the interests of the peasants. The Kuomintang is fighting for the interests of the rich, and the Communists are fighting for the interests of the poor. The Kuomintang is fighting for the interests of the landlords, and the Communists are fighting for the interests of the peasants. The Kuomintang is fighting for the interests of the rich, and the Communists are fighting for the interests of the poor.

Will the Chinese War Start Another Slaughter

CHANGHAI, China—The Chinese civil war is no longer a war between the Kuomintang and the Communists, but a war between the Kuomintang and the population. The Kuomintang is fighting for control of the Chinese people, and the Communists are fighting for the rights of the Chinese people. The Kuomintang is fighting for the interests of the wealthy, and the Communists are fighting for the interests of the poor. The Kuomintang is fighting for the interests of the landlords, and the Communists are fighting for the interests of the peasants. The Kuomintang is fighting for the interests of the rich, and the Communists are fighting for the interests of the poor. The Kuomintang is fighting for the interests of the landlords, and the Communists are fighting for the interests of the peasants. The Kuomintang is fighting for the interests of the rich, and the Communists are fighting for the interests of the poor.

Carloson to Tour U.S. for League

Olive Carson, known to hundreds of members of the Young Workers League as the editor of the Daily Worker, is to tour the eastern states for the League, beginning with September 15. Carson has been in touch with the leaders of the local League organizations, to which he will report on the decisions of the recent national conference held in Chicago, at which he was a delegate. Complete details of the tour will be given in Future

C.I. T.C. BUSY WITH YOUTH AS CARDER PUDER

Prepares Theatre for Next Imperialist War

BY JOHN HARVEY

Next summer, thru the Chicago Y.W.L. and the War Department, the League is going to make a grand drive for funds to outfit a theatrical company to present a play on the subject of next war. The play will be written by the League, and will deal with the subject of war in a dramatic and educational manner. The play will be performed in schools and colleges throughout the country.

PHILLY LEAGUE JOINS CAMPAIGN AGAINST N. B. C.

Drive Now Being Covered in Seven Cities

The Young Workers League of Philadelphia has been unusually active in recent weeks in its campaign against the National Broadcasting Company. The League has been working hard to get a fair contract from the N.B.C. and to prevent the company from running its own labor organization.

N.E.C. REORGANIZED

The N.E.C. is now the National Electoral Commission, and is the same organization that was formed under the leadership of the N.E.C. leaders. The N.E.C. is now the National Electoral Commission, and is the same organization that was formed under the leadership of the N.E.C. leaders.

Three Hundred Young Workers Out in Boston for 44 Hours

BOSTON.—A quest to strike and organize the "United States Marine Labor Organizations" in the Boston area has been achieved by the Young Workers League. The three hundred young workers who constituted the strike succeeded in mobilizing the masses, with a vote of over 500 per cent. In the organized protest, the Young Workers League demonstrated the power of the working class and the importance of the struggle for democracy.

N.B.C. Closes DRIVES IN TWIN CITY, DRIVES ARREST

Leaguers are Filed, But War Will Continue

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—No further sign that the Young Workers League is on the job has been given by the arrest of three members in Minneapolis yesterday. The three members were arrested on the charge of organizing a union in the city. The three members were arrested on the charge of organizing a union in the city. The three members were arrested on the charge of organizing a union in the city. The three members were arrested on the charge of organizing a union in the city. The three members were arrested on the charge of organizing a union in the city.
KEEP UP BOUNTY CANDY COMPANY CAMPAIGN HERE

By BARNEY MABE

Ever since 1929 the wages of the young workers at the Candy Company have been on the decline. Just following the war, the picketing, which was not always peaceful, continued to exist.

Today the gains working in the Candy Company are the highest we have seen in years. The candy business is booming and the workers are well paid. The Candy Company is one of the largest employers in the city and the workers have a good chance to make a decent living.

My Flight From Siberia

By L. Trotzky

I was a prisoner in Siberia for three years. During that time I was subjected to the most brutal and inhumane treatment. I was tortured and tortured again. I was forced to eat the food that was provided for me. I was allowed no fresh air or sunlight. I was kept in a cell that was never cleaned.

I was finally released from Siberia and was able to return to my home. I am grateful for my release and for the opportunity to speak out against the abuses that I suffered.

Changing Into the Nucleus

Point Out Difference Between Nucleus and Fraction in Reorganization Plan

By JOSEPH GIANTY

I am in favor of the reorganization plan. I believe that it is the best way to ensure the success of our union. The plan will ensure that the workers have a say in the running of the company. It will also make sure that the workers are treated fairly.

The Young Workers' League calls for action!

The Young Workers' League calls on all workers to join in the battle for better wages and working conditions. We need your support to make sure that the gains we have fought for are not lost.

Support these men who fought for the working class cause!

By L. Trotzky

I was a prisoner in Siberia for three years. During that time I was subjected to the most brutal and inhumane treatment. I was tortured and tortured again. I was forced to eat the food that was provided for me. I was allowed no fresh air or sunlight. I was kept in a cell that was never cleaned.

I was finally released from Siberia and was able to return to my home. I am grateful for my release and for the opportunity to speak out against the abuses that I suffered.

Need of Child Exploitation Abolition Shown by Numbers of Accidents in Industries

WASHINGTON—While industrial courts are demanding the abolition of child labor, the employers are continuing to operate factories where the employment of children is common. A report by the child labor investigations of the Children's Bureau shows that between 1915 and 1925, the number of children employed in industries has increased by 50 percent.

Education of Children Has Failed

A national survey of children's learning has shown that the educational system is failing. Many of the schools are not providing adequate instruction for the young. The students are not getting the necessary knowledge to succeed in life.

IN THE NEXT ISSUE

The next issue of THE YOUNG WORKER will present the results of the regular election at the paper. The candidates for the Young Workers' League will be presented and the election results will be published in the next issue.
THE FOURTH CONGRESS OF THE YOUNG COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL

AT THE FOURTH CONGRESS

A photograph taken at the Fourth Congress of the Young Communist International. The Congress marked the beginning of a new phase in the development of the Young Communist League, and was an important turning point in the history of the League.

The Congress was held in Moscow in 1928, and was attended by young communists from around the world. It was a significant event in the history of the Young Communist League, and marked a turning point in the development of the League.

The Congress was attended by young communists from around the world, and was a significant event in the history of the Young Communist League. It marked a turning point in the development of the League, and was an important step in the process of building a world communist movement.

The Congress was held in Moscow in 1928, and was attended by young communists from around the world. It was a significant event in the history of the Young Communist League, and marked a turning point in the development of the League.

The Congress was attended by young communists from around the world, and was a significant event in the history of the Young Communist League. It marked a turning point in the development of the League, and was an important step in the process of building a world communist movement.

The Congress was held in Moscow in 1928, and was attended by young communists from around the world. It was a significant event in the history of the Young Communist League, and marked a turning point in the development of the League.

The Congress was attended by young communists from around the world, and was a significant event in the history of the Young Communist League. It marked a turning point in the development of the League, and was an important step in the process of building a world communist movement.
The Young Worker

October 1, 1924

C.M.T.C. Busy With Youth As Cannon Fodder

(Edited from Page 13

The C.M.T.C. is busy with a group of youth known as "cannon fodder". They are being trained in the use of weapons, but it is not clear whether this is for defense or for use in revolutionary activities.

The Young Worker is a newspaper published by the Communist Party of the United States. This issue contains articles on various topics, including the C.M.T.C. and youth activities.

The October 1, 1924 issue of The Young Worker includes the following articles:

- "How to Work!"
- "The Kid's Vote!"
- "The Pacifist Youth Again"
- "Y. C. I. Calls for War Against China"

These articles discuss various aspects of the Communist Party's activities, including youth organizations and revolutionary planning.

The newspaper is dedicated to providing information on the Communist Party's goals and activities, as well as news about the current political and social climate.

The Young Worker is an important resource for understanding the history and goals of the Communist Party in the United States during this time period.

---

Y. C. I. Calls for War Against China

(Continued from Page 13

The Y. C. I. calls for war against China, stating that the Chinese are "cannon fodder" for the imperialists. The article argues that China should be overthrown as a means of advancing the cause of world revolution.

The article also critiques the work of the Comintern, stating that it is "cannon fodder" for the imperialists.

The Young Worker is an important resource for understanding the history and goals of the Communist Party in the United States during this time period.

---

C.M.T.C. Busy With Youth As Cannon Fodder

The C.M.T.C. is busy with a group of youth known as "cannon fodder". They are being trained in the use of weapons, but it is not clear whether this is for defense or for use in revolutionary activities.

The Young Worker is a newspaper published by the Communist Party of the United States. This issue contains articles on various topics, including the C.M.T.C. and youth activities.

The October 1, 1924 issue of The Young Worker includes the following articles:

- "How to Work!"
- "The Kid's Vote!"
- "The Pacifist Youth Again"
- "Y. C. I. Calls for War Against China"

These articles discuss various aspects of the Communist Party's activities, including youth organizations and revolutionary planning.

The newspaper is dedicated to providing information on the Communist Party's goals and activities, as well as news about the current political and social climate.

The Young Worker is an important resource for understanding the history and goals of the Communist Party in the United States during this time period.

---

How to Work!

This article discusses the importance of working for the Communist Party and provides tips on how to effectively organize and mobilize.

The Young Worker is a newspaper published by the Communist Party of the United States. This issue contains articles on various topics, including the C.M.T.C. and youth activities.

The October 1, 1924 issue of The Young Worker includes the following articles:

- "How to Work!"
- "The Kid's Vote!"
- "The Pacifist Youth Again"
- "Y. C. I. Calls for War Against China"

These articles discuss various aspects of the Communist Party's activities, including youth organizations and revolutionary planning.

The newspaper is dedicated to providing information on the Communist Party's goals and activities, as well as news about the current political and social climate.

The Young Worker is an important resource for understanding the history and goals of the Communist Party in the United States during this time period.

---

The Kid's Vote!

This article discusses the importance of working for the Communist Party and provides tips on how to effectively organize and mobilize.

The Young Worker is a newspaper published by the Communist Party of the United States. This issue contains articles on various topics, including the C.M.T.C. and youth activities.

The October 1, 1924 issue of The Young Worker includes the following articles:

- "How to Work!"
- "The Kid's Vote!"
- "The Pacifist Youth Again"
- "Y. C. I. Calls for War Against China"

These articles discuss various aspects of the Communist Party's activities, including youth organizations and revolutionary planning.

The newspaper is dedicated to providing information on the Communist Party's goals and activities, as well as news about the current political and social climate.

The Young Worker is an important resource for understanding the history and goals of the Communist Party in the United States during this time period.

---

The Pacifist Youth Again

This article discusses the importance of working for the Communist Party and provides tips on how to effectively organize and mobilize.

The Young Worker is a newspaper published by the Communist Party of the United States. This issue contains articles on various topics, including the C.M.T.C. and youth activities.

The October 1, 1924 issue of The Young Worker includes the following articles:

- "How to Work!"
- "The Kid's Vote!"
- "The Pacifist Youth Again"
- "Y. C. I. Calls for War Against China"

These articles discuss various aspects of the Communist Party's activities, including youth organizations and revolutionary planning.

The newspaper is dedicated to providing information on the Communist Party's goals and activities, as well as news about the current political and social climate.

The Young Worker is an important resource for understanding the history and goals of the Communist Party in the United States during this time period.