YOUTH TO BE CALLED IN U.S.-JAP WAR OVER PROFITS!

A Weekly "Young Worker" By First Of Year

YOUNG WORKERS LEAGUE DRIVES
DRIVE FOR $2,000 AND 10,000
CIRCULATION BY END OF 1924

BY MAX BECHTOLL

A weekly Young Workers by January 1, 1925. A weekly organ of the revolution by young workers by the end of this year. That is the imminently to the ultimate objective of the Young Workers of America. That is the final goal to be achieved by the national objective committee of the league.

Weekly by the First Three months in which to do it. And it will depend on the energy, initiative, spending, and the money thrown behind it.

The announcement of the drive has opened tremendous possibilities for the league. The project is reported in the press and radio as to the progress of the drive. It will mean the number of copies of the league issued by the league to the young workers.

There are about 3,000 young workers involved in this work; and the league is making an attempt to reach them. The "young workers" drive. It will mean as much as the struggle against the wave of the milk workers.

Carlson Holding Successful Meetings In National Tour

CARLSON, R., editor and publisher of the Young Workers League weekly, has been on a successful meeting in the National Tour of the Young Workers League. Carlson has made many appearances in various parts of the country, and has met with great success. The meetings have been well attended, and the speeches have been very popular. Carlson has been very successful in arousing the interest of the young workers in the work of the league.

Chicago League Reorganizes

Till now the Chicago Young Workers League has been in the recognition of the Young Workers League as the one of the largest leagues in the country. The need for reorganization has been evident for some time, and the decision to reorganize was made at the recent meeting of the Executive Committee.

The reorganization will bring about many changes in the organization of the league, and will make it more efficient in its work. The new organization will be more democratic, and will have a greater influence in the labor movement.

The Young Workers League is a national organization of young workers, and is the voice of the young workers in the country. It is the aim of the league to organize young workers into strong and effective unions, and to fight for the betterment of the working class.

The Y.C.I. on the Controversy in the Workers Party

It is with misgivings that we approach the question of the Workers Party and the controversy between it and the C.I. In the last few months, there has been a great deal of discussion and debate on this matter. The Y.C.I. has always been opposed to the Workers Party and its policies. We believe that the Workers Party is a threat to the workers' movement and to the revolutionary struggle.

The Workers Party, as we know it today, is the result of a split in the International Communist Organizing Committee (C.I.). The split occurred in 1923 and led to the formation of the Workers Party in France. The Workers Party became a popular organization in France and spread to other countries.

The Workers Party has always been opposed to the C.I. and its policies. The Workers Party has been accused of working with the bourgeoisie and of supporting the capitalist system. The Y.C.I. believes that the Workers Party is a tool of the bourgeoisie and that it is working against the workers' movement.

The Y.C.I. has always been in favor of the C.I. and its policies. The C.I. is the international communist movement and it is the only organization that can truly represent the workers' interests. The C.I. is the only organization that can provide the workers with the necessary guidance and support to achieve their goals.

We believe that the Workers Party is not the answer to the workers' problems. We believe that the C.I. is the only organization that can truly represent the workers' interests. We urge all workers to support the C.I. and to work for its policies.

REACHING THE RURAL YOUTH

By Roy Kaplan

"We cannot reach the rural worker unless we reach his home."

The Young Worker League organized a farm conference in Chicago last month to discuss the problem of reaching the rural worker through educational means. The conference was attended by representatives of various farm and labor organizations, including the American Farm Bureau Federation, the Farm Labor Union of America, the National Farmers' Union, and the United Farm Workers of America. The conference discussed ways to improve farm workers' living conditions and to increase their political awareness.

"Down below multitudes of our fellow workers face very much the same condition as the millions of workers in the large factories. They are exploited, living in great poverty. They are the victims of the system of inequality and of the class struggle." - John L. Lewis

War!

By Henry George Weisz

We must have war. Down with the Japanese! Long live the war! To fire and fire and fire! The yellow dogs must die. Say what you please. The Taft-Hartley bill will settle all the questions.

On to Berlin! Expose, expose, expose the people who attack the peace movement. Expose the people who are behind the war. Expose their money, their influence, their power. The people who are responsible for the war must be made to feel the full force of the people's will.

The patriotic hearts of all the dumb.

On to Boston! Expose, expose, expose the people who attack the peace movement. Expose the people who are behind the war. Expose their money, their influence, their power. The people who are responsible for the war must be made to feel the full force of the people's will.

The patriotic hearts of all the dumb.

Program of Action For the Y. W. L.

INTRODUCTION

The Young Women’s League of America is a national organization dedicated to the development of a strong and active league in every city and town. Its purpose is to promote the economic and social development of women, provide leadership for the betterment of the community, and foster a sense of citizenship among its members.

Activities of the League

The League organizes educational meetings, cultural events, and recreational activities. Its members participate in community service projects, such as blood drives and community clean-up efforts. The League also supports local and international causes, such as women’s rights and environmental conservation.

Objectives of the League

The League’s objectives are to promote the development of women’s leadership, foster social and economic advancement, and support community development.

The Young Women’s League of America is committed to achieving these objectives through the active involvement of its members in various activities and programs.

War Looms With Japan

War is imminent with Japan. The League must prepare for this event by organizing and mobilizing its members. This includes providing information and resources to its members, as well as working with community leaders to ensure the safety and well-being of all women and children.

The League will work with local and national organizations to develop plans for disaster response and relief efforts in the event of a war. It will also provide support to women and children affected by the war, and work to ensure their rights and needs are met.

The League will also work with government agencies and other organizations to support the efforts of the armed forces and ensure the protection of civilian lives and property.

The Young Women’s League of America is dedicated to serving its members and the community during this critical time. We will continue to work toward our objectives and ensure the safety and well-being of all women and children.

FAKE INVESTIGATION OF CHILD SLAVES OF MICHIGAN BEET LAND FAILS TO WHITEN AS THE FACTS

The Young Women’s League of America has been working to expose the mistreatment of children on Michigan beet land. We have uncovered evidence of forced labor and exploitation of these children, and we will continue to work to ensure their rights and needs are met.

The League will also work with government agencies and other organizations to support the efforts of the armed forces and ensure the protection of civilian lives and property.

JUNIOR WORK

The Young Women’s League of America is committed to the development of young people and their leadership potential. We will continue to work toward our objectives and ensure the safety and well-being of all women and children.

We will also work with government agencies and other organizations to support the efforts of the armed forces and ensure the protection of civilian lives and property.

THE EGYPTIAN AND MODERN SLAVES

We are committed to working toward the liberation of all children and women from slavery and exploitation. We will continue to work toward our objectives and ensure the safety and well-being of all women and children.

We will also work with government agencies and other organizations to support the efforts of the armed forces and ensure the protection of civilian lives and property.
How to Make a War

In order for country to make a war against another it is necessary to have a real reason and a real power behind the scenes that the financial, commercial, or cultural interests of the country are at stake.

The war must start at the factory, in the mine, or on the farm, before it reaches the stage of internationalism.
