U. S. Busy Preparing For War
On Eve of Coolidge Inauguration

Y. W. L. Membr is Winner in Mine Election

General Mitchell Calling For A Bigger Air Force Exposes Plans For Coming Slaughter

GEN. MITCHELL CALLS FOR BATTLESHIP CARRIERS

BY BARNEY MASS

The Weekly WORKER is here and is to remain, providing that the demand of the membership continues.
It is not at all sure that the supply will increase. It is impossible to cover the value of the Weekly WORKER without price increases. The result is that each individual member cannot help but become more enthusiastic over the product of the labour of his comrades. Making a plebiscite on the question of price, the Weekly WORKER is at last in a position to make a confirmation of the demand. The result is an increased demand for the Weekly WORKER. The Weekly WORKER is a plebiscite, a social experiment, and the result is that each individual member cannot help but become more enthusiastic over the product of the labour of his comrades. Making a plebiscite on the question of price, the Weekly WORKER is at last in a position to make a confirmation of the demand. The result is an increased demand for the Weekly WORKER. The Weekly WORKER is a plebiscite, a social experiment, and the result is that each individual member cannot help but become more enthusiastic over the product of the labour of his comrades. Making a plebiscite on the question of price, the Weekly WORKER is at last in a position to make a confirmation of the demand. The result is an increased demand for the Weekly WORKER. The Weekly WORKER is a plebiscite, a social experiment, and the result is that each individual member cannot help but become more enthusiastic over the product of the labour of his comrades.
FRENCH SARDINE STRIKE WINS VICTORY FOR YOUTH DEMANDS

DOMINICK, France—After 11 months of bitter labor struggles, involving a large number of young workers, the French government has given in to the demands of the workers in the sardine canning industry. The French government has agreed to set up a commission to investigate the conditions of work in the canning industry and to make recommendations for improvements.

The workers have been on strike since last October, demanding better wages, shorter hours, and better working conditions. The French government had resisted the workers' demands, but the workers' determination and the support of the public forced the government to yield.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.

The French government's decision to set up a commission is a victory for the workers and a significant step forward in their struggle for better working conditions. The commission will be responsible for investigating the conditions of work in the canning industry and making recommendations for improvements. This decision is a victory for the workers and a step towards better working conditions in the canning industry.
How a Live Young Worker Can Be Built!
BY MORITZ J. LOEB

G

February 28, 1925

T HE YOUNG WORKER

orally speaking, every Communist who understands perfectly that a movement toward socialism is a movement toward creation of a society in which nothing can exist without a living man, must realize that this idea has a living content only in a struggle with a large struggle. Actually, how else could one explain the fact that the big day of work with which the world has been marked every year since 1919? The struggle with the revolution is the only way to transform the good ideas into realized work. But the struggle of the revolution with the bosses and with the counter-revolution is the only way to transform the political ideas into the living, fighting ideas of the working class. The party is the leader of this struggle, but it needs the help of the masses in order to be able to lead. The party exists for the masses; it has no right to exist for itself. Preparing Comrades, therefore, means educating them, not just by theoretical instruction, but by actual participation in the struggle. This is the essence of education. It is the struggle of the masses with the bosses which educates the masses. The party is the organizer of this struggle and, through the organization of the struggle, imparts to the party its life, its strength, its help. The attitude of the party towards the struggle, that is, its attitude towards the organization of the struggle, will determine to a great extent the attitude of those who want to work in the party. The party lives, the activity of the party, the form of the party can only be maintained and made perfect by the struggle of the masses with the bosses. The party is the leader of this struggle, but it needs the help of the masses in order to be able to lead. The party exists for the masses; it has no right to exist for itself. Preparing Comrades, therefore, means educating them, not just by theoretical instruction, but by actual participation in the struggle. This is the essence of education. It is the struggle of the masses with the bosses which educates the masses. The party is the organizer of this struggle and, through the organization of the struggle, imparts to the party its life, its strength, its help. The attitude of the party towards the struggle, that is, its attitude towards the organization of the struggle, will determine to a great extent the attitude of those who want to work in the party. The party lives, the activity of the party, the form of the party can only be maintained and made perfect by the struggle of the masses with the bosses. The party is the leader of this struggle, but it needs the help of the masses in order to be able to lead. The party exists for the masses; it has no right to exist for itself. Preparing Comrades, therefore, means educating them, not just by theoretical instruction, but by actual participation in the struggle. This is the essence of education. It is the struggle of the masses with the bosses which educates the masses. The party is the organizer of this struggle and, through the organization of the struggle, imparts to the party its life, its strength, its help. The attitude of the party towards the struggle, that is, its attitude towards the organization of the struggle, will determine to a great extent the attitude of those who want to work in the party.
SOCIAL DEMOCRATS RETRAY APPRENTICE IN DENMARK

By ANDREW OVERS

Social democratic governments in the New World have had little success in their efforts to win the hearts and minds of the working class. This is not surprising, as the working class is not easily swayed by political slogans and promises. However, the Danish social democratic government is an exception to this rule. The Danish government has been able to gain the support of the working class by implementing policies that are directly beneficial to their lives.

One of the best ways of achieving this goal is through the implementation of a program that provides apprenticeships. The Danish government has been successful in this regard, as the number of apprenticeships has increased in recent years.

The Danish government's program provides a path to a stable and secure future for young people. This is important, as many young people are unsure about their future and do not know what they want to do. The apprenticeship program gives them a chance to gain valuable experience and learn skills that will be useful in the future.

In addition to the benefits for the individual, the apprenticeship program also benefits the economy. The program helps to create a skilled workforce that can meet the needs of the country.

In conclusion, the Danish social democratic government has been successful in retaining the support of the working class by implementing a program that provides apprenticeships. This is a positive example of how governments can work to improve the lives of their citizens.

MARCHING IN THE PARADE!

The army of Weekly Young Worker supporters will parade in the first three issues of the "Weekly!" to show the solidarity of the workers in the parade. Read your copy today and be a part of this historic event. The parade will take place on May 1 at 10:00 AM. The parade will start at the intersection of Main Street and 5th Avenue, and will proceed along Main Street to Central Park, where the rally will be held.

The parade will feature members of the Weekly Young Worker staff, as well as members of the local labor unions and community organizations. The parade will be a vibrant and colorful celebration of the strength and solidarity of the working class.

Don't miss out on this historic event. Join the Weekly Young Worker supporters in the parade and show your support for workers' rights and dignity. Together, we can create a brighter future for our community.

REVIVING THE JANUARY YC REVIEW IN PICTURES

In Pictures:

- A young boy stands in front of a large crowd, holding a flag with the slogan "workers of the world, unite!"
- A group of workers march in a parade, waving signs and banners.
- A young girl stands in front of a sign that says "stop the war!" and looks at the camera.
- A group of workers chat in a cafe, laughing and enjoying each other's company.
- A young man speaks at a rally, holding a microphone and looking at the crowd.
- A young woman stands in front of a group of workers, holding a sign that says "we are stronger together!"
- A group of workers stand in a line, looking at the camera and holding signs.
- A young boy waves a flag, looking at the camera and smiling.

These images capture the spirit of the Weekly Young Worker, a publication that celebrates the struggles of the working class and fights for a better future. Join us in the fight for workers' rights and dignity. Together, we can create a brighter future for our community.

YOUNG WORKERS GET LOUSIEST PAY UNDER FASCIST RULE IN ITALY

In Pictures:

- A young woman stands in front of a sign that says "we are stronger together!
- A group of workers stand in a line, looking at the camera and holding signs.
- A young boy waves a flag, looking at the camera and smiling.
- A young man speaks at a rally, holding a microphone and looking at the crowd.
- A group of workers chat in a cafe, laughing and enjoying each other's company.
- A young girl stands in front of a sign that says "stop the war!" and looks at the camera.
- A young man speaks at a rally, holding a microphone and looking at the crowd.
- A group of workers march in a parade, waving signs and banners.

These images capture the spirit of the Weekly Young Worker, a publication that celebrates the struggles of the working class and fights for a better future. Join us in the fight for workers' rights and dignity. Together, we can create a brighter future for our community.

CHILD LABOR GROUPS IN NEW YORK CITY; MUST FIGHT MENACE

In Pictures:

- A young boy stands in front of a large crowd, holding a flag with the slogan "workers of the world, unite!"
- A group of workers march in a parade, waving signs and banners.
- A young girl stands in front of a sign that says "stop the war!" and looks at the camera.
- A group of workers chat in a cafe, laughing and enjoying each other's company.
- A young man speaks at a rally, holding a microphone and looking at the crowd.
- A young woman stands in front of a group of workers, holding a sign that says "we are stronger together!"
- A group of workers stand in a line, looking at the camera and holding signs.
- A young boy waves a flag, looking at the camera and smiling.

These images capture the spirit of the Weekly Young Worker, a publication that celebrates the struggles of the working class and fights for a better future. Join us in the fight for workers' rights and dignity. Together, we can create a brighter future for our community.
TOILING YOUTH

BY HARRY DANNES.

This vast concept ration of wealth in the hands of the few has been brought to the fore by the awakening of the working classes. In many areas, the income of the wealthy has been growing rapidly, while the income and living conditions of the poor have been declining. The conflict between the rich and the poor is intensifying, leading to a widening gap between the haves and have-nots.

ITALIAN BNSAN

The Italian Bnsan is the voice of the working class in Italy. It publishes articles on the struggles of the workers and the need for solidarity. The Bnsan is a vital organ for the dissemination of revolutionary ideas and the unification of the working class.

RADIOICAL STUDENTS ON THE BAN

The radioical students are engaged in struggle against the capitalist system. They demand education and the right to work. The students are also fighting for the abolition of schools and universities, which they consider as tools of the bourgeoisie to maintain their power.

COLLEGE BOSSES EVEN FIGHT LIBERALS

POLAND

The struggle against the bosses is not limited to the working class. It is also fought by the students and the intellectuals in Poland. They demand freedom of speech and the right to assemble. The bosses are trying to suppress these movements, but they are fighting back with determination.

INDUSTRIAL CONTROLLING

Large scale industry is the main concern of the working class. It is the source of their suffering and it is the key to their liberation. The bosses are trying to control the working class by means of the state机器. They are using the state to suppress the revolutionary ideas and to maintain their power.

The struggle against industrial controlling is the struggle for the survival of the working class. It is a struggle for the future of humanity. The bosses are trying to control the world, but the working class is fighting back with determination.

THE SOURCE OF ALL COMMUNIST LITERATURE

The Daily Worker, published by the Communist Party of the USA, is a source of all communist literature. It contains the works of the great communist leaders, such as Marx, Lenin, and Mao. It is a valuable tool for the revolutionary fight.

The Daily Worker is available in all major cities across the USA. It is a free publication and it is distributed to the workers and the poor as a matter of principle. The Daily Worker is a symbol of the struggle for the world revolution.
The Shop Committee

The Shop Committee of the Young Workers, in an attempt to organize the industrial youth workers brings before the public some statistics that show, for the first time, the extent of their movement in the big stores and their desire to improve their working conditions. The Shop Committee reports that, in recent weeks, they have conducted a series of surveys in various parts of the country and have found that there is a growing interest among young workers in improving their working conditions. They have also found that the young workers are becoming more active in their efforts to organize and improve their working conditions.

The Young Workers have been working for the past six months to organize the young workers in the industrial sector. They have been conducting surveys and collecting data on the working conditions of young workers in various industries. The Shop Committee has been working closely with the young workers to improve their working conditions and to provide them with a better understanding of their rights and responsibilities.

The Shop Committee has been working closely with the young workers to improve their working conditions and to provide them with a better understanding of their rights and responsibilities. They have been conducting surveys and collecting data on the working conditions of young workers in various industries. The Shop Committee has been working closely with the young workers to improve their working conditions and to provide them with a better understanding of their rights and responsibilities.

The Shop Committee has been working closely with the young workers to improve their working conditions and to provide them with a better understanding of their rights and responsibilities. They have been conducting surveys and collecting data on the working conditions of young workers in various industries. The Shop Committee has been working closely with the young workers to improve their working conditions and to provide them with a better understanding of their rights and responsibilities.

The Shop Committee has been working closely with the young workers to improve their working conditions and to provide them with a better understanding of their rights and responsibilities. They have been conducting surveys and collecting data on the working conditions of young workers in various industries. The Shop Committee has been working closely with the young workers to improve their working conditions and to provide them with a better understanding of their rights and responsibilities.

The Shop Committee has been working closely with the young workers to improve their working conditions and to provide them with a better understanding of their rights and responsibilities. They have been conducting surveys and collecting data on the working conditions of young workers in various industries. The Shop Committee has been working closely with the young workers to improve their working conditions and to provide them with a better understanding of their rights and responsibilities.