Arms Display Will Feature Inauguration
Cal’s Economy Does Not Mean Militarism

The usually sunny weather in Washington will be a new feature in a few years, when the American Federation of Labor convention opens in the nation’s capital. It will give the convention a new image, as it will likely be overcast. The World War and the conflict in Europe have been the great issues of the day, and the economy does not mean militarism.

Arms Display Will Feature Inauguration

The annual arms display in Washington will be held on March 7. It is the largest arms display in the country, and it is estimated to cost $1,000,000. The display will be held on the National Mall, and it will be open to the public. The display will feature a variety of military equipment, including tanks, aircraft, and artillery. It is expected to attract a large crowd, and it will be a significant event in the nation's capital.

Cal’s Economy Does Not Mean Militarism

Cal has often mentioned that the economy does not mean militarism. He has said that the economy is a means of securing peace, not war. He has stated that the economy is a way of ensuring that the people have the means to live a comfortable life, not a means of conquering other nations.

FURSETH TELLS SEAMEN TO KICK OIL

WASHINGTON—Andrew Furseth, President of the American Federation of Labor, released the following statement today:

"The situation in the Middle East is critical. The United Nations must take immediate action to prevent a full-scale war. The American government must not remain passive in this crisis. The AFL-CIO will support any action that is necessary to ensure peace and stability in the region."

Los Angeles Show: It's a success

Our Los Angeles show has been a success. The city's mayor, Franklin D. Roosevelt, has praised the event as "a great success." The show featured a variety of performers, including the famous jazz musician, Duke Ellington. The event was well attended and generated a lot of interest in the city's arts community.

SAYS GIRLS CAN LIVE ON $6 PER WEEK!

The National Enquirer, a tabloid newspaper, has reported that "girls can live on $6 per week." The story claims that a group of girls living in a small town in the South have been able to survive on this amount of money. The newspaper did not provide any further information about the girls or their living conditions.

DETROIT Y. W. L. SHOWS PROGRESS AT CITY LEAGUE CONVENTION

The Detroit league held its first City League Convention on the Working Areas bench seat. In the convention some twenty Y. W. L. women from the various districts of the State were present. The organization of the league was represented by the officers and members present.

The program was opened with a general business meeting at 10:30 a.m. and was followed by an address by Mrs. J. E. B. Daniels, Secretary of the International Union of Y. W. L. Women. The president of the league, Mrs. J. E. B. Daniels, called the meeting to order and gave a brief history of the organization.

Dr. J. E. B. Daniels, president of the league, outlined the work of the organization over the past year and introduced the officers for the coming year. The officers for the coming year were as follows:

President: Mrs. J. E. B. Daniels
First Vice-President: Miss A. M. Scott
Second Vice-President: Miss M. E. B. Daniels
Treasurer: Miss E. A. Scott
Recording Secretary: Miss H. E. B. Daniels
Recording Secretary: Miss M. E. B. Daniels
Corresponding Secretary: Miss H. E. B. Daniels
Editor: Miss M. E. B. Daniels
Auditor: Miss H. E. B. Daniels

The program continued with a discussion on the work of the league and the officers of the league. The officers were then called upon to present reports on the work of the league.

The meeting adjourned at 12:00 noon.
