PHILADELPHIA LEAGUE CONVENTION OUTLINES BIG PROGRAM OF ACTION

By DOMENICK PLAPLAN.

President of the Philadelphia chapter of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, Mr. Domenick Plaplan, will open the convention with a speech on "The partners are the terrorists, not the gendarmes." The convention is to conclude with a demonstration of the "Women's March on the Plaza." The meeting will be held at the headquarters of the league, 1235 S. Broad St.

THE DOPE SQUAD

By HAROLD GANNES

The dope squad is a small group of young people who are fighting against the use of marijuana. They believe that marijuana is a dangerous drug and that it should be illegal. They are trying to educate people about the dangers of marijuana and to promote a drug-free society.

TOILING YOUTH

By HELEN GRAYSON

The working class youth of America are fighting against the power of the wealthy and the rich. They want a fairer society where everyone has equal opportunities. They are organizing protests and strikes to demand better wages and working conditions. They are also fighting against the government's policies, which they believe are unfair.

Young Workers' Correspondence

Correspondence—This section is intended for the free exchange of ideas between the Young Workers' League and other organizations. It is hoped that this section will provide a forum for the exchange of ideas and the development of new strategies.

First American Letter

Going to Russia

Our letter is not meant to be a political statement, but rather a personal one. We are all workers and we are all united in our struggle. We believe that the working class is the only one that can change the world and create a better society.

Speed Up Work on Carriers So They'll Be Ready for War

By M. A. S. T.

The speed up of the shipyards is a very important issue. It is crucial that we work as fast as possible to get the carriers ready for war. We must be able to provide the military with the necessary equipment to win the war.

Letter from Russian Railroad

Railroad

Our comrades in the Russian railroad workers' union are fighting against the exploitation and oppression of the working class. They are working to organize and unite the workers in order to fight for their rights.

More Marches in Parade

By F. S. T.

The goal of the March is to demand an end to the war. We want to show the world that the working class is united in its opposition to the war.

A Sub at This Time

BY THE WORKERS MONTHLY

The Workers Monthly magazine will bring you the special offer (good only until April 15) for subscribing to "The History of American Communism" by John Reed. The book is a must-read for all those interested in the history of American communism and the role of the working class in shaping the course of American history.
