The Machinists' Elections

In the machinists' union the left wing is waging a determined battle for control of the national organization. The struggle is being fought in the local unions and in the general meeting of the national organization. The Machinists' union is one of the largest and most powerful in the country. It is important for the socialist movement to strengthen the left wing of the union.

Disappearing the Stool Pigeon

The machinists' union is facing a serious problem with the disappearance of its members. Many members are leaving the union, either by choice or because of pressures from outside sources. It is important for the union to address this issue and take steps to retain its members.

A True Patriot

The true patriot is someone who is committed to the principles of democracy and justice. They stand up for what is right, even when it is difficult. It is important for us to recognize and support true patriots in our society.

The Young Machinists in the Elections

The young machinists are an important force in the union. They are energetic and committed to the cause of socialism. It is important for us to support and empower the young machinists in their efforts to build a stronger and more democratic union.

Marx War Headlines

The war between the classes, as predicted by Marx, is unfolding. The working class is fighting for its survival and for a better world. The struggles of the working class are central to the socialist movement.

The Negro in American Industry

The struggle for racial justice is a central issue in American society. The working class is fighting for the right to form unions and to have a voice in the workplace. The struggle for racial justice is closely linked to the struggle for economic justice.

English League Fights Militarism

The English League is fighting against militarism and the expansion of the war. They are calling for a peace settlement and for the demobilization of the armed forces. It is important for us to support the English League in their efforts to build a more peaceful world.

ISSUES IMMEDIATELY FOCUSING IN THE WORKING CLASS

The immediate issues facing the working class are the struggle for economic justice, the struggle for racial justice, and the struggle against militarism. It is important for us to support the working class in their efforts to build a more just and equitable society.
