Demand Right to Organize

NEW YORK CITY—One of the leading industrial workers of the country, the United Textile Workers of America, has adopted a new policy of organizing itself into a labor union. The union is now the largest in the country, with more than 100,000 members.

The union has been organized under the leadership of the American Federation of Labor, which, for many years, has been the dominant influence in the labor movement. The union is now a federation of local unions, each of which is independent, but which are united in the common purpose of securing better working conditions for the members of the union.

The union has established a number of local unions in various cities, and is now organizing in other cities. The union is working to increase its membership, and to secure better working conditions for its members. It is determined to fight for the rights of the workers, and to secure better wages and working conditions for all.

The union is a strong and powerful organization, and is determined to fight for the rights of the workers, and to secure better wages and working conditions for all.

The union is determined to fight for the rights of the workers, and to secure better wages and working conditions for all.

NEW YORK YOUTH HIT C. M. T. C.

By JACK STACHEL

With the new year on the daily agenda, it appears that the New York Y.M.C.A. is planning to take some action. The organization has announced that it is planning to open a new branch in the city, and that it will be located in the Central Y.M.C.A. building. The new branch will be equipped with all the necessary facilities, including a library, a gymnasium, and a cafeteria.

TWO Y. C. I. PAMPHLETS

"Resolutions" (3c)

The Fourth Congress of the Young Communist International

"The Results of Two Congresses" (10c)

The Fourth Congress of the Y.C.I.

Every avenue will find it useful to own two of these pamphlets. These pamphlets are printed in the United States and contain a wealth of information. The first pamphlet, "Resolutions," contains the resolutions adopted at the Fourth Congress of the Young Communist International. The second pamphlet, "The Results of Two Congresses," contains a summary of the proceedings of the Fourth Congress and a review of the work of the International. These pamphlets are a valuable resource for anyone interested in the history and development of the Communist movement in the United States.
The Young Communist International

The Young Communist International (YCI), established in 1927, is an international communist youth organization. It is the youth wing of the Communist International (Comintern) and is meant to involve young people in the struggle for a socialist future. The YCI is present in many countries and promotes communist ideas among youth.

The YCI is a part of the broader international communist movement and seeks to educate young people about the principles of communism, the history of the working class, and the need for a socialist society. It encourages young people to take an active role in the fight for social justice and to work towards a world without exploitation and oppression.

The YCI's activities may include organizing political rallies, public discussions, educational events, and cultural activities. It aims to mobilize young people around the world to participate in the struggle for a socialist future and to build a united front against capitalism and imperialism.

The YCI is committed to promoting the principles of internationalism and solidarity among young people from different countries. It works to foster a sense of unity and cooperation among its members, emphasizing the importance of working together for a common goal.

The YCI's work is grounded in the belief that young people have a crucial role to play in the fight for a socialist future. By involving young people in political activities and by providing them with opportunities to learn and grow, the YCI aims to prepare them to become active participants in the struggle for a better world.

The YCI is a valuable resource for young people who are seeking to understand the complexities of the world and to contribute to the fight for a socialist future. By joining the YCI, young people can become part of a global network of activists working towards a common goal.
